Birthday Party At Walsh Home

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Russell Walsh entertained with a birthday party at the Walsh home March 7, in honor of her niece Virginia Noble, who was 6 years old.

The children enjoyed games and contests, followed by a beautiful cake and other party refreshments; and Virginia opened numerous gifts from her little friends.

Present were Virginia and Dayle Noble, Marianne and Kathleen Keyser, Kenneth and Wayne Scott, Linda and Doug Schmidt, and Katie and Rickie Walsh and Linda Fernlund.

Nuptials In Reno Church

Mrs. Olive Ethel Reed and George Peterson were married in Reno March 14, in the Mormon Church. Attendants were Mrs. Reed's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Reed, Tulelake. The couple will be at home, 1125 Walnut.

Jean Tidrick Bridal Shower

BONANZA — A lovely bridal shower was given at the Bonanza Library, March 10, 5 p.m. in honor of Jean Tidrick of Sprague River. Jean is bride-elect of Mervin Stainaker of Langell Valley. Mervin is in the Navy stationed at San Diego, and the couple plan a late summer wedding.

Hostesses were Mrs. Bill Cunningham, Mrs. James Baldock, Mrs. Bruce Bieler, and Wilma Hubble.

After the gifts were opened a social evening and games were enjoyed, followed by the serving of dainty refreshments.

Others honoring Jean, included Mrs. Stainaker, Mrs. Tidrick, Mrs. Francis Lilly, Louise Hubble, Ruth Thomas, Rosemary Stainaker Marie Lee, Lois Hubble, Mrs. Frank DeBel, Alice Graves, Mary Anne Leavitt and Mrs. Bud Lee.

CWCS PLANS ANOTHER BENEFIT

BONANZA — The Community Women's Christian Society wishes to thank all those who contributed in any way to the success of the chicken supper it gave March 11 at the Bonanza School Cafeteria. Over $65 was cleared and will be used to improve and remodel the parsonage.

Later a waffle supper or something similar will be given to raise money to buy some furniture and paint. They also plan to fix up the Sunday School annex.

The group has reorganized the choir and choir practice is held every Tuesday evening at the church. Everyone who wants to come and sing is cordially invited.

LOCAL CLUB ENTERTAINS LAKEVIEW SOROPTIMISTS

Lakeview Soroptimist members, guests of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club, at luncheon in the Winema Hotel Thursday, March 18, campaigned vigorously for a member of their group, for regional governor.

The candidate is Anne Sprague, superintendent of Lake County schools, who has an impressive record of service in the club. She is a past president, regional board member, United Nations chairman, regional UNESCO chairman during 1950-1952, regional secretary, is active in church work, has a BA degree from the University of Oregon and a masters degree from the Colorado State College of Education.

The campaign speech was made by Margaret Rudd.

Nine members of the Lakeview club including the president, Ardeeth Baum, were present.

Mrs. Baum introduced Helen Bradler, music instructor, who played several piano and accordion solos.

Mrs. Bessie Campbell, member of a staff of a Eugene radio station, with her own daily program, will speak at the annual Soroptimist dinner at the Willard Hotel, Tuesday night, March 23. Mrs. Campbell has traveled widely in the Orient. Her topic will be "Two Kinds of Living."

The "Woman of the Year," achievement award, will be presented following the dinner, to a woman in the community who over a period of time has been identified with the advancement of women in this community.

There will be no regular meeting next week due to the banquet. Audrey Smith of the Lakeview club presented a gift, won by Coral Sabo, who with Alice Lamm helped with organization of the visiting club.
