Boat Burning Causes Furor

TAMPA, Fla. (U-P)—Did the name Arfaras, was destroyed by fire at a Tarpon Springs boatyard the night of June 1, 1951.

Arfaras was paid $6,000 for his loss by the Detroit Fire and Insurance Co., which is now suing to recover that sum from Sarris Bros., Inc., operator of the boatyard.

The insurance company alleged that negligence by boatyard employees caused the loss.

Attorneys for the boatyard operator said residents at Tarpon Springs resented a boat named Joseph Stalin while this country was fighting communists in Korea and that Arfaras had been warned to change the name or keep a night watchman at the yard.

They said Arfaras, now dead, was not a lover of Stalin, but insisted on keeping the name which the boat had when he bought it.

Bank Auditors Show Deficit

CLIO, Ala. (U-P)—The fear which began gnawing at citizens here three weeks ago when banker Royall Reynolds disappeared became an awful truth yesterday—an audit showed a $75,000 deficit at the Merchants Exchange.

An official who helped audit books of the little unchartered money exchange declined use of his name but said the check revealed at least that much money is missing.

He added, however, that the $75,000 figure does not include personal property which Reynolds has promised to throw in to help make up any deficit.

Reynolds, who was president of the defunct exchange, said he would dispose of his home, car and government bonds in an effort to pay off depositors. There was no estimate of the value of his personal holdings.

Reynolds, released from jail temporarily to help with the audit, was put back in his cell after the check was completed. He is charged in three warrants with embezzling funds of the exchange while president.

Depositors have filed unofficial claims for about $167,000, but less than $87,000 of exchange money is available.

Barley Hearing To Be Held

PORTLAND (U-P)—Proposals to raise malting barley standards will be discussed at an informal hearing here April 1, the federal agriculture department announced Monday.

The proposals come from growers and buyers who discussed them recently.

Barley damaged by heat, mold or frost would be excluded from malting grade under one proposal. Last season some Willamette Valley barley qualified as malting barley although mold developed because of rain at harvest time.

The tolerance for skinned, broken and thin kernels in No. 1 malting barley would be cut from 10 per cent to 7 per cent under another proposal. The tolerance would remain at 5 per cent for choice grade.
