

Spring

is

the air

Suddenly the scene changes

. . . to Spring! Birds sing, bees buzz, flowers bud, brooks babble . . .

all Nature comes alive again. In your downtown stores too, Spring makes a gala entrance. All a-brim and aglow with the new season's smartest styles, gayest colors, brightest ideas, they beckon irresistibly to you. Come on down and thrill to the lift and lilt of Spring . . . captured here in her happiest mood!
