Separates, Casuals For "Around Home" Wear Gain

Loungewear goes gay this spring. Separates and casuals to wear "around home" and later during vacations have a definite "witty" touch.

Typical of the flamboyant feeling are the harlequin prints in skirts and one-piece leisure dresses. These feature giant diamonds in red-and-black or red-and-white and are available in many fabrics from terry cloth to polished cotton.

Leotard-type top and trouser sets come in jersey and cotton knits, may be sparkle-trimmed or gaily printed. The French influence is found in can-can bloomer shorts and poster-colored print separates.

Tunic coats and trousers show a far eastern influence in brilliant brocade cloths of cotton, rayon or silk. Usually the trousers are tapered and shining black.

"Conversation prints" are excitingly different in leisure clothes this spring. They may show international landmarks, show various foods complete with calorie count, or depict English country scenes in Victorian colors. Designed for comfort with a luxurious and young look, at-home styles are very much suited to "stepping out."

Schoolgirl Look Popular This Spring

The junior figure goes prominently in fashion trends this spring. The "schoolgirl" look with its high bosom, little waist and gay, feminine tone is a leader and particularly well adapted to juniors.

In the 9 to 15 size range (and often running to 7 and 17) is a wide choice of dresses, suits, coats and separates that are no longer specifically "junior" styles, but are now "fashion" at its spring height.

Leading silhouette is the unbroken princess line, fitted through shoulder and waist and buoyant of skirt. This allows the junior to indulge her penchant for petticoats. There are also stiffened linings to bolster full skirts this season.

Printed silk taffeta with a tissue paper texture makes a smart junior princess dress. Other important fabrics are silk and worsted blends, silky polished cottons and feather-light wools.

For parties, the junior princess appears in schiffli-embroidered cotton satin, dramatic brocade cottons and rich, stiffened silks. Small prints in exotic colorings and patterns are popular for day and date, pastels on black or navy a cocktail favorite.

"Josephine" Silhouette The "Josephine" silhouette is important in junior fashions. It combines the high waist and full shoulders of the empire with a sheath skirt, and takes well to linen, wool crepes and supple silks, such as foulard and sarah. Sometimes the sheath skirt is drawn back to a soft box pleat for easy movement and fashionable "back interest."

Junior offerings include the tunic dress, especially new with a detachable peplum. There are jumper dresses with separate "baby doll" blouses and there are shirtwaist styles with both narrow and full skirts.

Throughout the junior fashion lineup this spring are similar styles in full or narrow skirts. Date styles are almost all full. And because of a "covered up" look for evening, many daytime styles in dress-up fabrics can double as date wear.

Costumes have joined suits in spring popularity. The spencer jacket is particularly well-suited to the junior figure and comes with a variety of dress and skirt partners. Often the spencer is in cloud-weight wool fleece or washable orlon. There are costumes that include cashmere sweaters with pretty bead-work and encrustations. Others have loose linen coats over "little" linen dresses.

Embroidered Linens Linen costumes are newly decorated with beadwork and embroidery and are now safely crease-resistant. There is a silk-linen worth junior attention, especially in full-length costume coats.

Pretty details make junior styles additionally exciting. White cuffs and over-collars, pastel leather touches, tiny bows here and there—all enhance the "young" feeling that is, in fact, a natural for juniors.

Puritan collars, small collars with tubing, jewel band necklines are important on tailored styles. Crescent shaped sleeves conform to natural lines and suggest top width with deeper armholes.

Black is crisp with white, navy takes to pastel trimming, striped trims make news. In all, the "ingenue"—always a junior specialty—is spring fashion.

JUST ABOUT THE MOST FRAGRANT place in town is a flower shop, especially when spring blossoms are ready for Easter. Half the fun of working in a florist shop is caring for the potted blooms. Here, pretty Jane Bowie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bowie, 1444 Crescent Street, waters a favorite. Hyacinths, brilliant tulips and hydrangeas are at their best at Flowers, by Bill and Rita.

Bouffant For Spring Formals Is By-Word

Bouffant is the by-word in new spring formal dresses. Whether full or cocktail-length, there is great buoyancy, much grace in this season's formals... arrived at by a combination of festive design and frothy fabric.

Organdies, chiffons, tissue taffetas and crisp, foamy cottons make lighthearted formals in pale pastels, white and clear "water" colors. Top interest appears as covered shoulders with a good deal of draping plus low, beautifully carved necklines.

The empire feeling is attained by artful waist molding which starts under the bust and extends to a deep V or by dramatic wrapping of a wide, contrasting-colored cummerbund.

Skirts are swept back into poufs or bustles or huge bows. Others have lacy peplums that suggest the tunic silhouette. Others bell into wide circles for sweeping festivity.

Swimsuits Get Belts

A new dressmaker silhouette brings flattering softness to this year's swimsuits. Feminine touches include cinch belts with non-tarnishable buckles, corselet-like shapes with modified puff pants. There are sweetheart necklines and soft ruffle trims.

New swimsuit fabrics offer a "soft touch." Rich boucle plaids and stripes have textured surfaces. A satiny multi-color stripe appears on black elasticized taffeta.

Olingham checks, once limited to cotton, are now available in latex. Knits and jerseys look new in an assortment of design variations. One maker uses exclusive embroidered motifs on elasticized bengaline.

Ice cream colors are new and delectable. Novel styling includes waist fronts, jutting pockets, suit revers and fluted ruffle trims.

Under-the-umbrella beach styles feature new designs in poplin, denim and sailcloth. There are pedal-pushers, Bermuda shorts and cropped shorts with a wealth of colorful trim. There are vests, cobler aprons, flare jackets and new halter versions— notable in contrast-stitched white.

Skirted playsuits doff their shorts to become attractive afternoon ensembles. In this category are the fine linens and linen-like cottons and rayons, featuring crease-resistance and easy washability.

TRADITIONAL GIFTS FOR EASTER are potted plants... colorful ones from the Suburban Flower Shop on South Sixth Street where the seeking lens found a colorful arrangement of deep pink carnations, heather and asparagus fern in a footed, crystal bowl, above potted azaleas, cyclamen, cinerarias, calceolarias (grandmother's pocketbook) and primroses.
