Hal Newhouser Tries Comeback

By ED CORRIGAN
AP Sports Writer

The date was July 22, 1953 — less than a year ago — and Hal Newhouser who once had drawn $65,000 for pitching for the Detroit Tigers, was talking:

"This is the end. I'm finished as an active player. My arm just can't stand the strain any more."
The handsome fireballer had just been told that at the age of 32, he was all through. He couldn't even hold a job with the last-place Tigers. After almost 15 years with them, he had his unconditional release and memories.

But he couldn't stay out of the game, and today he's back trying to win a spot with the Cleveland Indians. He's on trial, of course, but what Manager Al Lopez has seen has been encouraging.

CREDIT
Newhouser got credit for his first victory of the spring training season yesterday when the Indians battered the Chicago Cubs 12-2. Despite the heavy bombing, the slim left-hander broke down all the way through his three-inning stint and didn't allow the Cubs a run.

The injury jinx that has been haunting the major league clubs all through training struck the Indians when second-string catcher Mickey Grasso broke his left ankle sliding into a base. He will be out about three months. He is Jim Hegan's No. 1 understudy.

Meanwhile, the Baltimore Orioles, the Cactus League leaders, won their 11th game against five defeats by turning back the New York Giants 4-3 at Phoenix. They jumped on Sal Maglie for three runs in the sixth after he had run up a scoreless streak of 13 innings.

TROUBLE
The Detroit Tigers and the Philadelphia Phillies, who have been having the same trouble — no hitting — came to different fates. The Tigers broke a five-game losing streak with a 5-4 victory over the Milwaukee Braves achieved on a two-out single in the bottom of the ninth by rookie Harry Bright.

The Phillies, who have scored just six runs in their last five games, dropped a 7-1 decision to the Washington Senators. Johnny Schmitz and Chuck Stobbs combined to harass the Phillies.

Gavilan Has New Daughter

CHICAGO — Kid Gavilan, confident welterweight champion and new father, was to arrive in Chicago Thursday for intense on-the-scene training for his April 2 shot at Carl (Bobo) Olson's midweight crown.

After formally signing for the Chicago stadium bout a week ago, Gavilan returned to his Summit, N.J., camp. Wednesday he received the good news: His wife gave birth to a 7 pound, 8 ounce daughter in Havana.

"We name her Victoria in honor of my victory over Olson," said the Cuban Kid, who also has another daughter and a son.
Gavilan, still confident of defeating Olson, possibly by a knockout, and sneering at the current 9-5 odds against him, will train at the Midwest Gym, where he sharpened up for his slughters of Chuck Davey and Johnny Bratton.

Gavilan's arrival may help stimulate advance sales, although they are going along at a fair clip, according to the International Boxing Club.

Latest figures are an advance of $145,000. The goal is a sellout gross gate of $300,000, assuring a crowd of 19,000. There are 9,000 "ringside" tickets earmarked at a top of $30.

have been consigned to the National League cellar, have been hitting home runs all over the lot. They bashed five more in a 10-4 victory over the Philadelphia A's.

Winning pitcher Max Surkont was impressive, yielding only one hit in his three innings.

PINCH HITTER
Young Bill Skowron drove in six runs for the New York Yankees to lead the world champions to an 11-7 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Skowron is a first baseman and the Yanks already have three, but he might stick as a pinch hitter.

The St. Louis Cardinals scored four runs in the ninth inning to turn back the Brooklyn Dodgers 6-2. Stu Miller went five innings for the Cards, allowing the Dodgers only one hit, a home run by Gil Hodges.

Bob Keegan and Mike Fornieles held the Cincinnati Reds to eight hits in tossing the Chicago White Sox to a 6-4 victory.

Bradley Eyes McCall

Coach Not Notified Officially

Paul McCall said today all he knew about Bradley University eying him for the head basketball coaching job was what he "read in the newspapers."

The Associated Press said yesterday that Bradley of Peoria, Ill., McCall's alma mater where he starred in basketball, listed the Klamath Union High School cage boys among the candidates for the job left vacant when Forrest Anderson accepted the job at Michigan State.

McCall, who currently is being mentioned strongly for the top job in football at KUHS, said university officials have not been in touch with him directly.

He did say that friends in Peoria, Ill., telephoned him Wednesday to ask him if he were interested.

He told the Herald and News last night he "couldn't afford" to pass up the job if it should be offered him.

A standout player at Bradley from 1939 to 1942, McCall took the Pelicans to the Oregon high school basketball finals three years ago.

Four others were mentioned as possible successors to Anderson. They are Ray Meyer of DePaul,

PAUL MCCALL

Johnny Dee of Alabama and George Ireland of Loyola Chicago, former Notre Dame stars, and Ralph Stanley of Beloit.

Speculators today predicted the Klamath school board would sound the naming of a football coach, a position created by the recent resignation of Bob Hendrix, shot, until more definite word reaches McCall from Peoria.

McCall, bidding for the Pelican grid job with Dutch Simons as his assistant, unofficially at least seems to have the strongest backing for the position, for which applications are still coming in.

McCall's status regarding the Bradley job, however, is expected to clear up considerably by Monday, when the school board hands the advisory committee a shaved-down list of "finalists" for the high school's football job.

Standings Change In ABC Singles Events

SEATTLE — Teams from Detroit, Kansas City, Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., and Anchorage, Alaska, make their first appearance in the American Bowling Congress Thursday.

Wednesday's action featured play of 64 booster division teams and doubles and singles events, leaving the ranking of the top ten open teams unchanged. Major changes were in the singles and all-event standings.

Four new names were added to the singles events leaders. Bob Cole of Tulare, Calif., fired a 625 and earned a tie for fourth place with Carl Jeske of Milwaukee; Red Jones of Seattle took sixth place with a 624; Joe Sato of Blackfoot, Idaho, gained the ninth spot with a 620 and Neal Olson, Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane, Wash., moved into 10th place with a 612.

No changes were recorded in doubles standings but two names were added to the all-events log. In the latter division, Frank Lucido, Guerneville, Calif., took seventh place with an overall score of 1782, and Patsy Milano, Youngstown, Ohio, slipped into the 10th spot with 1749.

Meanwhile, the Wisconsin Bridge and Iron Team of Milwaukee, Lincoln Lakes of Tacoma, Wash., and Fox Deluxe Beer of Chicago continued one-two-three in the open team classification. Jim Nelson of Portland, Ore., remained as singles leader; Bruce Pearson of Seattle and David Tuell Jr., of Tacoma, clung to the doubles lead.

Schahan was booted off the singles ladder, however, by the quartet of newcomers in that division.

Molinas' Return Dimmed

NEW YORK — "He broke faith with us," said Maurice Podoloff, president of the National Basketball Assn., all but squashed any chance Jack Molinas, suspended Detroit Pistons star, had of being reinstated to his club.

The Pistons dropped Molinas when it was found that he had placed bets on the team to win. Yesterday, a Bronx County grand jury reported that no evidence of any crime had been found.

Molinas, overjoyed, immediately said he would like to get back into action.

"We are not concerned with whether Molinas committed a crime," Podoloff snapped. "To us, his betting means that he broke faith with us. It was a flagrant violation of a written contract."

He added that he could not personally outlaw Molinas because such authority rests with the Board of Governors of the NBA. However, he indicated he doubted if Molinas would be permitted to play again.

Podoloff said the league was out to maintain its record of avoiding scandal and anything that would reflect unfavorably on it.

"I was silly," said Molinas. "I'll never bet again."

He said he never bet against the Pistons.

BLOOD
Nardico, always on the attack, got through Norkus' fumbling defense with dozens of smashing lefts and rights. By the eighth round, his white trunks were red with blood flowing from Norkus' nose.

But for every blow he landed, he took two and in the ninth and 10th, as Norkus chopped home one vicious punch after another, the crowd wondered why the wobbling Nardico didn't fall.

Over the past four years Del Rice of the Cardinals has appeared in more National League games than any other catcher.
