TRAVELING COMPANION

Whether busy at home, busy at work, or traveling around the country, the truly feminine woman protects her "social acceptability" at all times. Tensions and temperatures may range from hot to cold, to humid and get away with it, but a woman cannot take chances on her personal appeal and daintiness.

One of the surest ways of guaranteeing a fresh and dainty impression, is the daily use of a deodorant or anti-perspirant after the bath.

Now that spray deodorants come in plastic bottles, it is easy to carry with you a guarantee of daintiness. The newly-designed tapered oval bottle gives spray efficiency. Unbreakable, spill-proof, leak-proof, it packs easily in the handbag, overnight case or suitcase and meets the high altitude test, so necessary for the many plane travelers of today.

Eastside

By MRS. MERLE O'NEIL
Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter, Riley McBride and Earlene LaBranch drove to Klamath Falls March 13 where they attended the NFLA meeting and banquet in the Wilard Hotel.

John Richardson drove to Klamath Saturday evening, March 13, where he was a visiting member at the IOOF meeting. Richardson brought his niece, Mrs. Eddie Own, and her five children back with him. They visited that week with the Richardsons and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Noble, and her brother, Dave.

Several from this district were at the concert held at the high school auditorium in Lakeview Saturday evening, March 13. The Carolers gave a wonderful performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Hartzog visited Sunday afternoon, March 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lightle and Harriet of the Vernon district.

Mrs. Delpha Nelson, Ivy and Bernice Wood of Lakeview drove to Klamath Falls March 13, where third and fourth degrees were conferred. On their way back they had car trouble and had to be towed home.

Mrs. Delpha Nelson and Ivy had Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hartzog and Mrs. Virginia McIntosh as guests for dinner March 14. The community was sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Frank Barnes, an old time resident of Lake County. Mrs. Barnes died Tuesday morning following an illness of several weeks. She is survived by her husband, Frank; two daughters, Mrs. Earl Cogburn and Mrs. Hugo Leyva of Summer Lake. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family.

Mrs. Virginia McIntosh, who with her husband recently returned from Tennessee where he was stationed with the Army, was a weekend visitor at the Nelson home. McIntosh has been shipped overseas and his wife, the former Virginia Reynolds, is planning to stay with her family in Lakeview while he is gone.

Mrs. Vern Morris and grandson of Lakeview listed at the home of Mrs. Clara Baxter recently.

STAINLESS STEEL

Kitchen equipment and utensils made of stainless steel are easily cleaned if you don't allow deposits of food and grease to congeal and harden. It's important to scrub off stainless steel promptly because moisture trapped under food deposits can set up a chemical action which pits the surface.

'Miss Nineteen'

A new "light-weight" bread has been developed by Morning Fresh Bakeries after long research to find a recipe-formula that would meet Morning Fresh requirements.

The new bread has been named "Miss Nineteen," according to announcement by Michael Beck, president and owner of the Morning Fresh Bakeries, and Fred Beck, manager.

The name, Miss Nineteen, was derived from the 19 ingredients that go into the bread and also from the ideal, graceful figure that is the dieter's goal.

Morning Fresh Miss Nineteen has a nut-like taste, stemming from the savory combination of flaked wheat flour, honey, yeast foods and water-free vegetables. The vegetables give Miss Nineteen a delicious flavor in addition to keeping the bread tender for many days.

Miss Nineteen is high in proteins and carbohydrates — but contains no fat or shortening and one 18-gram slice contains only 45 calories, according to the makers.

Miss Nineteen is available at all Southern Oregon grocery stores served by Morning Fresh Bakeries starting this week.

ALTURAS

By RAE GLOSTER

The population of Alturas was increased by two over the weekend. A baby girl arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Foote, and a baby boy was ushered in for the Raymond McPhersons. Mr. and Mrs. Merville Archer recently attended a laymen's conference on Bible Study in Bend. The conference, attended by members from all parishes in the Eastern Oregon Diocese, was conducted by the Reverend Charles Gilbert of San Francisco. The Northern Rebekah Lodge in Alturas initiated two candidates from Bieber, Mrs. Leila Brown and Mrs. Evelyn Potter. Degree team ceremonies were conducted by the Alturas drill team headed by Mrs. Thelma Lucky, captain. A buffet dinner was served to some 51 members, including three visitors from Bieber and two from Adin. Plans were made for an old fashioned box social and dance to be held March 20, by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Ralph Heneger of Tulelake, pleaded guilty last week to passing a fictitious check at the Stronghold store, and was given a sentence of 40 days in jail and two years probation. Toward the end of his sentence he will be turned over to authorities in Washington who have issued a hold warrant on a similar charge. The Reverend and Mrs. Earl Olsen, who formerly filled the pulpit at the Pilgrim Congregational Fellowship Church in San Francisco, is assuming the duties of minister at the Federated Church in Alturas.
