Bucky Harris Banks On Senator Pitching

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was only a week ago that Manager Bucky Harris of the Washington Senators said, "we won't look good until our pitchers round into form."

"That not-too-startling prediction looked mighty good today as the Senators found themselves the proud possessors of a five-game winning streak, due largely to the improved efforts of their mound corps."

The Senators have come a long way since they opened their exhibition schedule with nine straight setbacks. And now that their pitchers are clicking, they look more and more like a club that will give the other American League teams a lot of trouble this season. Yesterday, righthanders Frank Shea and Sonny Dixon limited the Boston Red Sox to seven hits as Washington pounded out a convincing 10-1 victory.

In the last four games, the Nats' moundmen have allowed the opposition only six runs. More important, Shea, Bob Porterfield, Connie Marrero and Chuck Stobbs, the pitchers Harris is counting on most, have been effective.

The East holds a 4-3 edge in the seven-year series.

Braves High On Aaron

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

BRADENTON, Fla. (NEA) — Young Henry Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves hit a Herschel Freeman pitch so hard that the ball landed on a house far back of the Sarasota park's left center field fence.

"Holy cow!" shouted the Boston Red Sox shortstop, and team-mates agreed they had never seen a more awesome poke, not even with Ted Williams around.

With Bobby Thomson out with a triple fracture of the right ankle, Aaron packs more weight for and assumes an even more important position with the Milwaukee club. Aaron is a 20-year-old Mobile Negro who last season led the Class A South Atlantic League in everything but hotel accommodations and repeated throughout the winter in Puerto Rico. This is only his second full season in professional baseball, but reporting to Eau Claire of the C. Northern League in June, 1953, he quickly convinced the brass that they had something extra special.

CATCH
In exhibition games, Charley Grimm has the right-hand hitting Aaron batting fifth behind Eddie Mathews and Thomson. In that situation, the phenomenon threatened to turn Bill Bruton into a strictly defensive outfielder, one to be sent in late in the game, when a catch is more important than a clout.

Milwaukee pitchers testify that the fleet Bruton saved 15 games last season with his artistry in center field, but a club simply can't carry a flycatcher who bats no more than .250, with only 41 runs batted in and a single home run in 131 games.

Paul Waner, the hall-of-famer of the 3000 hits, is working on the left-hand swinging Bruton's bunting and trying to teach the trim Wilmington lad to poke the ball into left field.

SPEDY
Aaron, 5-10 and 165 and a speedster who runs on his heels like Joe and Dom DiMaggio (and Mickey Mantle), adds to the Braves' power and versatility. He broke in as a second baseman.

With Aaron in right field, the plan was to switch Thomson to center and Andy Parko to left. Jim Pendleton was a shortstop who became an outfielder and hit close to .400 throughout the closing weeks of last season and continued taking liberties with pitchers as a member of Roy Campanella's All-Stars.

Manager Grimm likes another outfielder, Dick Sinovic, who in six years in the minors manufactured 92 home runs and drove in 701 runs. With Atlanta last trip, Sinovic led the Southern Association in runs batted in with 135, hit with 201 and total bases with 319. Runner-up for the batting championship with 342, he had 35 doubles and 23 home runs.

Danny O'Connell plays second, third and shortstop. Jack Dittmer is an excellent defensive second baseman.

SOUND
So with Joe Adcock at first base and Johnny Logan at shortstop and Sam Calderone backing up Del Crandall behind the plate, the Braves are as sound as Lou Perini's contracting business.

The Braves can get along very well without Bobby Thomson, provided their surprising pitching of last season was not a mere and delusion.

The Thomson injury must come as no surprise to Mel Ott. When the Scot first came up to the Giants in 1947, Ott stopped a spring training session and warned Thomson that "you'll hurt yourself if you don't learn to slide correctly." The slide which broke his ankle was a poor one.

Brissie Named To Legion Job

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Lou Brissie, former Philadelphia Athletics and Cleveland pitcher was named Friday as commissioner of the American Legion junior baseball program.

Brissie, a graduate of junior baseball and a veteran of World War II, recently asked to be placed on the voluntarily retired list.

'Frisco Foe Inks For Byrne

Jarrin' Jimmy Byrne returns to the Armory a week from tonight to face Roger Smith, a hard-hitting San Francisco Negro in a 10-rounder.

Boxing fans got a brief, but impressive, look at Byrne March 13 when he stopped Vallejo's Al Winn in two rounds.

Byrne, 216 pounds, outweighed Winn 26 pounds but Smith will coin in at about 205. He's rough and tough and has had 24 pro fights.

SEMI
Beatty's Ralph Weiser holds down his usual semi-windup spot against Al Moore, Smith's stablemate. Both should scale close to 140 for the six-rounder.

George Bray, promising Bonanza lightweight, has been promoted to the six-round special event position. His foe will be Vince Tero, a San Francisco Mexican.

Bob Barney of Sprague River meets Weiser's sparring partner, Dick Henry, in one four-rounder.

LOOKING
Matchmaker Mack Lillard is looking for an opponent for Duane McDaniels of Chiloquin for another preliminary over four heats. There may be one more four-rounder to round out the card. Reserved tickets are on sale at Dick Reeder's, 5th and Main.

Scholz Wins In Ring Rose

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP)—Gustav (Bubi) Scholz is no Marcel Cerdan but he'll do.

The 23-year-old unbeaten German middleweight, latest of a horde of foreign fighters to invade our shores in the past year, made his American debut last night by winning a unanimous 10-round decision over spunky Al Andrews of Superior, Wis.

A southpaw socker, the former Berlin cook floored the 23-year-old ex-GI in the fifth round with a left to the jaw and rocked Al in the seventh and tenth rounds with a rapid-fire bombardment. Andrews jumped up at one in the fifth but had to take the mandatory eight count. The officials' votes for Scholz were 6-3-1, 6-3-1 and 7-2-1. The AP had it 6-3-1.

Scholz was disappointed over his showing.

"It was one of the worst fights I ever made," he said as well wishers mobbed him in his dressing room in Madison Square Garden. "I was tired and listless because I am not yet acclimated. In Europe it was 5 a.m. (It was 11 p.m. EST here) and I felt like I wanted to sleep. When I am acclimated, I will do much better."

Rivals In Third Mat Mix

Georges Dusette and Eric Pedersen stage the third chapter of their hectic wrestling rivalry Wednesday night at the Armory.

Matchmaker Mack Lillard signed the bitter mat foes yesterday for their third meeting.

Dusette crippled Pedersen with the full Nelson two weeks ago but lost on disqualification when he refused to release the hold.

COMEBACK
Pedersen made a mighty comeback after losing the first fall last Wednesday night to score two straight wins, the pump handle.

Neither was able to score with his pet hold, the full Nelson.

Dusette begged for the rematch.

Bill Fletcher and Ivan Kameroff tangle in the other bout.

Scortichini, Fiore Tangle

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Carmine Fiore, who likes to rush in and slug, and tricky Italo Scortichini, a cautious type, battle Saturday night in a 10-round fight that may make or break Fiore as a welterweight contender.

The fight contract calls for a 153-pound limit, heavy for Fiore and a bit light for the Italian welterweight champ who has been fighting in this country as a middleweight.

Both hope for a crack at Carmen Basilio of Canastota, number one contender for Kid Gavilan's welterweight title.

Fiore hasn't been beaten since he lost to Basilio here nearly a year ago.

Royal Tan 'Chase Winner

AIN'TREE, England (AP) — Royal Tan won the 108th running of the gruelling Grand National Steeple chase Saturday, in a close finish with Tudor Line.

Irish Lizard was third. Royal Tan, owned by Joe Griffin, ran second to Nickel Coin in the 1951 national.

The winner was the second favorite at 8 to 1. Irish Lizard was 7-1.

Royal Tan, who had failed twice in this race previously, just got home by a neck in the 4 mile 856 yards test over 30 of the stiffest jumps in the world. Irish Lizard was 10 lengths back of the two leaders.

A great crowd of some 250,000 turned out for the world's toughest jumping race.

This was the second straight Grand National victory for Griffin of Ireland and his jockey, Bryan Marshall, who won with Early Mist in 1953.

Aside from the first three, the only others to finish in the field of 29 were Sanperion, Martingale, Uncle Barney, Southern Coup and Ortray, the latter bringing up the rear.

The race is the basis for an Irish Lizard sweepstakes.

Royal Tan carried top weight, 161 pounds. Tudor Line carried 147 and Irish Lizard, 145.
