

Spring Vacation

... SOME WERE starting their vacations from college... some were cherishing the last care-free days before returning to high school classrooms... some were from out of town, and others went on trips. ALL were occupied doing just what kids on vacation usually do. Get-togethers, record-playing sessions, dancing, gabbing and a few (a few) actually did some studying.

"MUSIC STILL HAS CHARM" ... switching from the platter department to the piano at the C. A. Henderson home, Daughter Jean, home from University of Oregon, on the piano bench—with Dennis Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd; in the chair, Charlie Harris; son of Mrs. Sylvia Garner Harris; Marcia Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Roberta Maude Wilson; and seated on the floor, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson's other daughter, Ann. All except Jean are KUHS students. Dennis and Charlie had just returned from San Francisco, where they went with the science class group. Picture was taken last Sunday when they were just "killing time."

SOCIETY

FROM SOC ... Bill Harlan brought three college friends home for part of the spring vacation. Last Saturday night, they, and four KUHS girls met at the Hugh Estes home, 2056 Lawrence, with the Estes' daughter, Joan, to kill a little time with music, music ... before show time. Joan and Bill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harlan, are in picture upper right. Group picture at top of page — Leon (Punky) McDougall, Medford; and Gail Nerseeth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerseeth, in foreground. Back of Punky, Duane Nealy, Grants Pass; Jan Kenyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kenyon; and Judy Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clark; and back of her, Duane Franklin, Medford.

THIS IS THE GROUP ... whose dancing intrigued the Currin boys. The picture was taken in the Currin living room, 1940 Lawrence, during "time-out" from the tapersichorean tryout. From the left, Larry King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Trujillo, Malin; Sue Ramsby, Marlene Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Howard; Larry Dossier, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dossier, Northport, Washington, son of Mrs. Currin's sister; Margaret Scholer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. (Ed) Scholer; and Dick Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Collins, Eugene. Dick was a houseguest at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George May, 1820 Lowell. All except Sue and Margaret, KUHS seniors, are students at the University of Oregon.

WE COULDN'T resist this shot of two sub-teenagers watching the "older crowd" executing some amazing and agile dance steps. Ricky Currin with older brother Charleton leaning over his shoulder watch with fascination ... unaware that they were camera subjects. Taken at an informal evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Currin for visiting nephew, Larry Dossier and friends.

TWO YOUNG MISSES ... just off the streamliner from Eugene where both had visited relatives. Kathleen Dougherty, left, 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dougherty, 5038 Cottage, vacationed at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bart, former Klamath Falls residents. Posing with her is Leslie Currin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Currin, and sister of the two boys in the bathrobes. Her vacation headquarters were at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Pinkstaff; and her Pinkstaff cousins kept her busy every moment. Leslie is seven and is in the second grade at Roosevelt. Kathy, 12, is a 6th grader at Sacred Heart Academy.

GREETED AT THE TRAIN ... was Linda Fyock, by Nancy Drew, who met the Streamliner last Sunday. Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fyock, had been to Portland for spring vacation with her mother and brother, Dick, 12, who is in the 5th grade at Roosevelt. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew, and she and Linda are both freshmen at KUHS.
