

BETA SIGMA PHI BENEFIT TEA

AT THE TEA TABLE . . . Mrs. Phil Brixner pours; and shown with her is Mrs. A. H. Patterson, one of the many who patronized the Beta Sigma Phi benefit card party last Saturday. Decorations included flowers for centerpiece donated by Bill and Rita DePew; murals painted by Mrs. B. R. Phillips; stage background and scenery drawn by Keith Moon; and arrangements of sprayed branches holding colorful miniature spring hat models. Three at card table, from the left, Mrs. Don Cleck, Mrs. David Richardson and Mrs. Chet Stinson.

THE CAPACITY CROWD . . . at the Beta Sigma Phi benefit tea and style show is evident in the above picture—identified are the five around the table in the foreground, from the left, Mrs. J. L. Crapo, Mrs. Glen Scott, Helen Wirth, Lena Webb and Mrs. John Feeback. All were intent upon the Town Shop Style show, which presented new style trends of the season, modeled by Billie Ivory, Audrey Brosterhouse, Marilyn O'Neill, Doris Cilk, Jean Gaines, Beth Chase, Pat Erlanson, Liza McDonald, Pat Boleyn, Ann Watters and Nancy Warren.

Mrs. G. A. Nichol, not pictured, also poured. Xi Delta, Kappa and Tau chapters were all participants in the annual project given for some civic need. Clarence Ward's sound amplifying system was used for the style show commentary by Clarice Moon.

SHOWER FOR ARLENE LEMLER BRIDE-ELECT OF RONALD TROTMAN

MERRILL — A lovely bridal shower March 16, in the social parlor of the Merrill Presbyterian Church honored Arlene Lemler, bride-elect of Ronald Trotman. Arlene is a freshman at Lewis and Clark and Ronnie is a junior at the University of Oregon Dental College in Portland. They plan a summer wedding on June 27, in Merrill.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Troy Qualls, Mrs. Roy Beasley, Mrs. Robert Burleigh Sr., and Mrs. W. O. Bricker. Two lacy hearts enseribed "Arlene and Ronnie," in an arrangement of pink roses, white carnations and Dutch lily, centered the gift table. A decorated cake centered the refreshment table.

Mary Lou Qualls, Martha Beasley, Frances Barber and Esther Beasley presented an amusing skit "Three Old Maids" during the evening.

Included in the guest list were Mrs. George Mattson, Mrs. Robert Burleigh Jr., Mrs. Warren Fruits, Mrs. Virgil Rexford, Mrs. Russell Northrup, Mrs. Myron Haskins and Joyce, Mrs. Hilton Wilson, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. Dick Reeves, Martha Beasley, Mrs. Glen Hunnicutt, Mrs. Dan Barry.

Merrill BPW

MERRILL — Vivian Trotman was the hostess at the March 17 meeting of the Merrill Business and Professional Women's Club. Eva Bowman, chairman for the evening, gave an interesting talk on social security.

Others present included president, Lillian Thomas, Kay Bricker, Audrey Lewis, Alma Elfert, Harriet Fotheringham and Delia Hodges, Mamie Giacomini.

Next meeting will be April 7, at the home of Myrtle Beasley.

Chiloquin Man Weds In Arcadia

CHILOQUIN—A former Chiloquin resident was married recently in a ceremony in northern California which was attended by other local residents.

Bob Nygren, son of Mrs. James his bride Ruth DeHaven of Arcadia, Cal., was married at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nygren, on March 15. The wedding ceremony at the Nygren home, was before a bay window banked with apple blossoms and with arrangements of daffodils and quince blossoms throughout the rooms.

The bride, gowned in a blue knit suit with white carnation corsage, was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Joyce Cousins, who wore a suit and white rose corsage. Best man for his long time friend was George Edwards.

The immediate family of the couple were the only ones attending. They included Nygren's grandmother and cousin, Mrs. Pearl Nygren and Benny Nygren of Chiloquin.

Following a wedding trip along the Oregon coast the couple will live in Hoopa where Nygren is continuing the logging operations started by his late father.
