

SOROPTIMIST CLUB . . . Klamath Falls Chapter, honored Mrs. Earl (Margaret) Sheridan, this year's winner of the club's annual award as "Woman of Achievement," at a dinner for members and guests in the Pine Grove Room, of the Willard Hotel, March 23. The outstanding Klamath Falls woman was pictured in Wednesday's Herald and News with Mrs. Robert A. (Kathleen) Thompson, who verbally listed the many and varied contributions made by Mrs. Sheridan which directly benefited the community and especially supported youth programs. The same picture also ran in the Northwest News section of the Oregon Journal on Friday, March 26.

After the actual award, Mrs. David (Bess) Campbell, Eugene member of the Soroptimist Club, and staff member of Station KORE, was introduced as guest speaker of the evening. The pictures of the dinner audience, taken at different times during her informal and informative talk on factual knowledge acquired over a period of years lived in the interior of China, indicate clearly that she had the complete attention of her listeners.

In the upper left, their serious attention reflects the speaker's serious statements in reference to the terror program of the Communists in China; and in the other, lower right, the group response was ready laughter, when her talk struck a witty and humorous note.

Lower left, an informal picture taken of Mrs. Campbell in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams on Huron Street, where she was house guest of Ruth Adams, president of Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club. Upper right, from the left, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Charles (Margaret) Larkin, who was emcee for the evening.

Camp Fire Girls in Dorris Join
National Birthday Celebration

Camp Fire Girls in Dorris have been busy celebrating the organization's 44th birthday. Joan Wemple and Stephanie Ryer, Horizon Club girls arranged a window display at the Dorris Drug Store using the Camp Fire flag, a ceremonial gown, banner, symbols of rank and samples of handwork made by girl members.

The Katina Klementina Horizon Club held a progressive dinner Thursday night. In order to earn the birthday honor, the meal had to include five courses, each representing a different country.

The group started with French onion soup prepared by Darlene Enloe, Darlene Wallace and Linda Wire at the home of Mrs. Arch Milligan; next was a Hawaiian salad at Mrs. Dolores Sundkvist's; served in traditional luau style in wooden bowls on the floor. Each girl was given a crepe paper lei. Mrs. Sundkvist and Sharon Gordon prepared the salad.

The party went next to Stephanie Ryer's for chili, enchiladas and fried cutlets prepared by the hostess and Marilyn Ward; after Mexican came Italy, with spaghetti and meat balls with garlic bread at Shirley Burkhardt's, with Shirley and Carol Dean as hostesses.

For the final course, they went to Margaret Hamilton's, where Margaret and Joan Wemple served Swedish nut bread, date nutbars and coffee. Then the tired (but no longer hungry) girls watched Groucho Marx on television.

A Friendship Fire was held Tuesday night at the Dorris City Hall. Camp Fire songs were sung by members before the open fire in the fireplace. Lindell Hamilton, Thaya Olson and Carol Dean gave short talks on the organization of the Tanda Camp Fire and Horizon Club groups, explaining their ranks and honors. The Tanda Group charter is now sixteen years old. New and younger girls have joined each year, keeping the old charter in good standing. The Horizon Club is now four years old.

Presidents Alice McIntyre and

Margaret Hamilton, lighted birthday candles for their groups. Concluding the program, winners and marshmallows were roasted in the fireplace.

Tanda Camp Fire and Horizon Club members and guests present were Margaret and Lindell Hamilton, Roxie Gravier, Pat Gamble, Christine Ryer, June Middaugh, Carol Dean, Sharon Gordon, Peggy VanMeter, Judy Barnett, Linda Olson, Nancy Chase, Janice Meek, Barbara Olson, Denis Marshall, Nancy Wemple, Tim and Tom Coles, Alice McIntyre, Janet Malisan and Thaya Olson.

Joan Wemple, Shirley Dixon, Shirley Burkhardt, Beverly Houston, Brenda Holder, Mary Ann Olson and Betty Logan, Tanda leader and Mrs. Dolores Sundkvist, Horizon leader.

The Dorris Camp Fire Girls are members of the Klamath Falls council.

Prosperity
Rebekah Lodge

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104 met March 18, in the IOOF Hall with the regular officers officiating.

Seven candidates were initiated in a beautiful ritualistic ceremony. They were then welcomed after signing the membership roll.

The Rebekah assembly of Oregon is set for May 18, in Grants Pass, with state president, Lola F. Osborne and her assembly officers in charge.

The local Rebekah convention of district No. 16 will include an all day and evening session in the IOOF Hall on May 22, under the direction of the chairman, Bernice McCracken and her assisting officers.

The next regular lodge meeting will be April 1, when plans for the two conventions will be discussed. All members are urged to be there to help plan the many details essential to a successful convention.
