

REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

MAYBE THEY'LL — (the Elbert Stiles foursome) — be back THIS weekend—intended to be home in time for Mrs. S's mother's birthday LAST weekend and for Stevie and Dougie to return to school—BUT Dougie picked that time to get the mumps—could be—a repeat this weekend with brother Stevie—so in the meantime—guess they'll just have to tough it out at the Lone Palm tepee in the desert.

ANGUS SHOW—and sale out at the fairgrounds April 5 will be preceded with a 10 a.m. brunch and meeting at the Yacht Club for the local and out-of-town women members of the Angus Ass'n auxiliary—here for the two day meet.

TOO BAD—that more KF persons weren't at the Soroptimist dinner which honored Margaret (Mrs. Earl) Sheridan as their "Woman of the Year"—who had qualifications to spare as a suitable candidate — The KUHS sextette was heartily applauded—and then Bess Campbell (Soroptimist from Eugene) was introduced as guest speaker for the evening—from then on the audience was hers—she had a message and she delivered it! A relaxed convincing speaker with a sparkling and magnetic personality she told of her years in interior China and what she personally saw the Communists do (mentally and physically) to our supposed "Allies" the Chinese — her broadcast Tuesday the 30th at 9:15 p.m. over KF-TV on "What Do You Think?"—will briefly bring part of the message to Klamath Basin listeners.

YACHT CLUB MEMBERS — are enthusiastically making the clubhouse their Sunday afternoon headquarters again — and tomorrow many are planning on "taking the family" out for dinner—choice of 1/2 fried chicken or Virginia baked ham and Mike and Beulah will also serve "and-with"—of course there's the added attraction of television for everyone—members and guests.

REAMES GOLF CLUB—swarming with social activity — started last night with the card party—and continues with the spring luncheon April 2 at 1 p.m. with style show by Mrs. Mayfield on the 3rd an informal dinner-dance starting with a social hour at 6:30 and a special fried chicken dinner prepared by Al and Lottie at 7:30—Dancing from 9 to 1 — additional info elsewhere.

NORA RINKEP—home from a trip to SF and nearby points — while gone she tangled with some unknown germ—which put her in bed for a couple of days—but she won the bout and continued her vacation in good health—she also got to see new grand-nephew James Walter O'Neill — son of Nora's niece Betty and Alan O'N.

Home Extension

CALENDAR "Keeping Up To Date With Textiles," will be the topic for two district meetings to be presented March 30-31, by Dolores Bracken, home demonstration agent.

March 30, the discussion will be at the fairgrounds in the exhibit building from 2-4 p.m. The next day, March 31, the meeting will be in the community hall in Poe Valley from 2-4 p.m.

The public is invited to attend both meetings. There are many fabrics available in both yardage and ready to wear that are new. This discussion will help women work with the new materials, best uses to make of them, and how to care for them. Questions on the topic may be asked at the meeting.

SHASTA-HOMEDALE

By Lucille Barnes Mrs. H. G. Berry was hostess, March 19, to members of the Shasta Homedale home extension unit. The "on time" prize was won by Mrs. W. E. Kaffon, Mrs. N. W. Mayfield, president, opened the meeting.

Mrs. H. E. Bjorklund, Associated Country Women of the World chairman, filled out a questionnaire on the United Nations and named those working on it.

Mrs. H. G. Berry, program planning chairman, distributed forms for balloting on the 1954-55 programs. Mrs. W. E. Kaffon, legislative chairman, read a paper on "What To Do to Be a Good Citizen," and a questionnaire on county officials.

Serving on the nominating committee are: Mrs. T. L. Winterringer, Mrs. H. G. Berry and Mrs. N. W. Mayfield.

Dolores Bracken, home demonstration agent, talked on "Storage Space for the Home." She suggested using step shelves, sliding trays, storing camping equipment in the garage and a special closet for guns that can be locked.

Twenty members and one guest, Mrs. I. W. Beard, were present. Anyone interested in luncheon tickets for the May Festival at the fairgrounds, may call Mrs. Mayfield at 2-0815.

Birthday Dinner

BONANZA — A birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Ernest Puddy was given at the Leslie Maxwell home March 11. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Puddy, Mr. and Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Maxwell and Otis Maxwell.

WOMEN OF MOOSE MERRILL CHAPTER

MERRILL—Senior regent Susan Williams presided at the March 18 meeting of Women of the Moose, Merrill Chapter 18. The 29 co-workers present balloted on applications of two candidates. Children of members were cared for by two teenage baby sitters. Bessie West is currently in Missouri with her father who is seriously ill.

It was reported that the recent Moose dance at Malin was a financial success. The social service and publicity committees served refreshments at the dance.

All committee chairmen are requested to meet at the home of Susan Williams on Monday evening, March 22. An executive board meeting is scheduled for Monday, April 5, at the home of Lillian Thomas.

Members wishing to contribute cookies for the Bloodmobile visit on March 29, are reminded to take them to the home of one of the chairmen, Susan Williams, Merrill; Rose Van Meter, Malin; or Betty Fund, Tulelake.

Blood donors in Tulelake who need transportation may contact Elizabeth Holland, Tulelake. The Red Cross Bloodmobile, sponsored in Merrill by LOMM will be at the recreation hall from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. March 29.
