Spud Growers Hold Drawing

TULELAKE—Members of the Tulelake Growers Association Potato Committee, met March 29, with the growers who had requested potato storage in the TGA potato cellar for 1954. The 29 bins in the cellar were allotted to the following growers: Wendell Schey, Dan S. Crawford, Ben Reimer, Obet Kougalle, Woodrow Neufeld, Wesley St. Peter, C.N. Chambers, and Raymond Pruitt. Names were drawn by Stan Buckingham, president of TGA. Two other growers, Manuel Silva and Pete Schwabeneiland, whose names were drawn out of the hat, in the order of nine and ten, will have an opportunity to use bins not utilized by any of the first eight growers. Growers who received the bins in the drawing, have ten days in which to call at the TGA office, complete their agreement and pay the first half of the rental which is $75 per bin, according to Cliff Jenkins, manager. Those in attendance at the drawing were Glen Arthur, Wendell Schey, Earl Schultz, Lowell Kenyon, Dan M. Crawford, Wesley St. Peter, Stan Buckingham, Ben Reimer, and Raymond Pruitt. Each bin rents for $150 and will store 1500 sacks of potatoes, Jenkins said.
