Civic League To Change Meeting

BONANZA-The meeting of the Civic Improvement League will be deferred one day to allow the Womens Club to hold its annual Easter party at the library April 13. The C. I. League will meet April 14.

City and state sanitation laws and enforcement will be discussed, and the feasibility of laxing the city to put in street drainage tiles. Meeting time is 8 p.m.

Bonanza Library Renovated

BONANZA-Meetings of Bonanza organizations usually held in the library will be transferred to different places from April 5 to 12 when refinishing of floors in the building will be completed.

City Council will meet at the home of Recorder Virginia Hartley, Monday, April 5. Papers and documents will be sorted and filed in the files recently purchased.

The Womens Club will hold an all-day meeting April 6, place to be announced. Aluminum trays, the most recent hobby project, will be completed in the morning. At the afternoon business meeting, a nominating committee will be appointed to select candidates for election of officers.

The Langell Valley Garden Club will be held in the parish hall in Langell Valley April 9. Hostesses will be Grace Dearborn, Cora Leavitt and Margaret Burnett. Alyce Haley will give a demonstration on air layering; topic for the meeting is cold frames, with Violet Brown in charge of the day's program. Roll call will be answering the question, "How would you use a cold frame?"

Malin Church Host To Rainbow Girls

The congregation of the Malin Community Presbyterian Church will be the host to the Rainbow Girls of Malin at the regular morning worship service Sunday, April 4, at 11 a.m.

The regular quarterly Communion service will follow the worship portion of the program on the same date, according to the Rev. Carl C. DeMott, pastor.
