

Wed On Parents' Anniversary...

SOCIETY

By MILLY
RAMSBY

LOVELY MARCH BRIDE... was Marilyn Joan (Lyn) Perkins, in First Presbyterian Church, March 23. She exchanged nuptial vows with Donald Calvin Mesner in a candle-light service read by the Rev. Dwayne L. Proett at 8 p.m. Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Perkins, 428 Jefferson; and her father gave her in marriage. Bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Harry C. Mesner, 2956 Summers Lane. The newlyweds have returned to Corvallis, where both are students at Oregon State College. Their honeymoon trip along the Oregon Coast and the wedding were during spring vacation. [Further details on inside page]. —Photo by Floyd

Spring

Irene McKinley Honored at OES District Tea

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR... District Tea brought a large group of local and out-of-town members to the Masonic Temple, March 29, when Irene McKinley, Portland, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon, was honored guest while here on official visit. She is shown second from the right. With her, from the left, Dorothy Bramlett, president of Aloha Social Club, Aloha Chapter; Rena Oldham (standing), worthy matron; Mrs. McKinley, and next to her, Lynna Martin, past matron and past grand Esther. (Additional details on inside page). —Photo by Kettler

Before the AAUW Musicale...

College Women on Vacation Take a Moment Out For a Cup of Coffee Before Last Saturday's Event.

THIS SHOULD HAVE BEEN A FOURSOME... but Mary Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. (Gene) Hooker, 1218 Pacific Terrace, was the victim of a severe cold and sore throat, which kept her home. She and brother Bob were home from the University of Oregon for spring vacation. She's a junior in English lit; and he's a senior in political science.

In the picture, from the left, Jean Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Owens, 2039 Fremont Street, is a sophomore in journalism and a member of Alpha Phi sorority at the U of O; Virginia Van Doren was a Chi Omega at Oregon State College; now in her sophomore year at OTI as a medical tech student. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Van Doren, 1854 Melrose.

Patty Teale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Teale, 1935 Auburn Street (where the picture was taken), is a sophomore in liberal arts at the U of O, and is a sorority sister of Jean Owens. It was a cold spring day and a hot cup of coffee was indicated before the musicale. —Photo by Milly Ramsby

Breakfast With Brother

(cooked by mother)

Sister and Guest From Stanford Fortify Themselves with Sunday Breakfast Before Packing to Return to School.

IT WAS EASY TO LINGER... and difficult to think of packing — when — on the last day of vacation, breakfast included perfect-fluffy-hotcakes, thick slices of Canadian Bacon, etc., and "concluded" with steaming hot coffee. Joan Juckelend, center, freshman at Stanford University, brought classmate, Ann Chase home for spring vacation. Picture was taken at the home of Joan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Juckelend last Sunday morning. Young man is of course, nine year old brother Phil Juckelend, a 4th grader at Roosevelt. Ann is the daughter of Mrs. Chauncey G. Chase, Minneapolis, Minnesota. She's interested in political science — and Joan is planning a career in the field of education. Joan's sister, Betty, not in picture, is a senior at KUHS. —Photo by Milly Ramsby