

HER NEW HOME IS HERE . . . as bride of Donald Robert Peterson, member of the KUHS teaching staff, and assistant basketball coach. She is the former Jeannine Melvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Melvin, Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peterson, Portland, are parents of the bridegroom; and were in Spokane for the wedding in Bethany Presbyterian Church, March 14.

The bride's sister, Myrna Melvin, was maid of honor; and bridesmaids were Phyllis Churchill, Virginia Needham (cousins of the bride); and Mrs. Paul Poetsch, close friend of the bride from school days.

Duane Arthur Peterson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man; and John Neeley and Jim Morton were ushers.

Flower girl was little Grace Mann, four year old daughter of the Rev. David Mann, who officiated at the 4 p.m. ceremony. After a Canadian honeymoon, the couple is now at home in Klamath Falls.

KF SOROPTIMISTS TO STAGE PROGRAM AT ASHLAND DINNER MEET

Members of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist Club will be guests of the Ashland club for a dinner meeting April 9. The local club will furnish the program. Members planning to make the trip should phone Ruth Adams, president, at 4031, before Wednesday April 7. Transportation will be available for those planning to go. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Kathleen Thompson, of the Klamath club, will review the book, "The 49 Odd," with descriptive pantomime, following the dinner.

The nominating committee for election of officers, later in the spring, includes: Ben Griggs, president appointee; Coral Sabo, appointed by the board of directors and Bee Bell, named by the club at large during the luncheon meeting Thursday, at the Winema Hotel. Installation ceremonies will be in June. The new corps of officers will conduct the first meeting in September following the summer vacation.

Barbara Carnini was introduced as a new member.

Two minute talks on Soroptimism were given by Ota Smith who spoke on the "Club Emblem," and Isabelle Brinker, who talked on "The Federation."

Ida Odell, who has been absent for about two months on an extended vacation, was welcomed back, and farewells were said to Alice Lamm who leaves soon for a tour of Europe.

Present were Mrs. E. N. Eagle, Mrs. Dwight Eagle, Mrs. Harriet Polsteringham, Mrs. J. L. Haskins, Mrs. Della Hodges, Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Lyle Hufaker, Mrs. Kenneth Hunnicutt, Mrs. Frank Hunnicutt, Mrs. Pete McNeill, Mrs. G. A. Milne, Mrs. Pearl Moore, Mrs. Wendell Moore and Mrs. Mary Offield.

Mrs. R. A. Smith, Mrs. Gene Taylor, Mrs. Bernice Wilson, and Mrs. Martin Winter. Guests were Mrs. Ella Holt, Mary Pickett, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. K. C. Burke and Mrs. R. A. Merton.

Next meeting will be April 21, at the home of Mrs. George Milne.

Aloha Past Matrons Club

Aloha Past Matrons Club met in the Masonic Hall, Friday, March 26, for the stated March meeting. A one o'clock dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses, Nellie Wattenburg, Norma Uerlings and Elizabeth Norris. Daffodils and miniature nests of Easter eggs were used in the colorful decorations.

President, Josephine Penrod, welcomed back after absence because of illness, conducted the business meeting.

During the social hour canasta was played. Prizes for the afternoon went to Amedea Hanks and Clara Dewitt.

Other members present were: Clair Alice Epperson, Lynn Martin, Grace Cole, Sadie Holloway, Jean Porter and Clara Dewitt.

The club's April meeting is slated for April 30. Hostesses will be Sadie Holloway, Alma Getz and Clara Dewitt.

EXINE M. ANDERSON . . . soprano, scheduled to appear on the Library Club spring musicale program, April 12. She is now assistant professor of voice at the University of Oregon; with a background of professional singing in New York, as soloist for the National Association of Composers and Conductors in Times Hall.

She studied at Columbia University where she later became instructor of voice, continuing her studies on a doctorate. Since her residency in Oregon, she has been featured soloist with the University of Oregon Symphony, Eugene Gleeman and the Eugene Civic Symphony. Local lovers of music who have heard Miss Anderson in Eugene consider her an outstanding artist "easy to look at" — and "magnificent to hear."

She appears on the program with two other featured artists, Stacey I. Green, piano accompanist; and Arthur Bailey, tenor, each a recognized proficient in his field of musical expression.

BPW PROGRAM TO BE TELEVIEWED ON OTI SETS AND SIMULTANEOUSLY SHOWN AS MEETING PROGRESSES

A unique and unusual program has been arranged for the next meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club, Monday, April 5 following the 6:30 p.m. dinner meeting at the Willard Hotel.

Mrs. Maude Davis, radio and television chairman will present entertainment furnished by students of OTI. There will be a 20 minute film on the college, illustrating courses offered and projects carried on. A special OTI table will be set for the guests who will entertain, and all decorations will carry out the college theme. Mrs. Davis will be assisted by Bernice Gruell.

The entire meeting is to be televised on an actual program on two television sets from OTI, operated by a television photographer. Those attending will view the meeting as it progresses. A narrative on the miracle of television and what it will mean to the Klamath country will accompany the film. Narrator will be Don Orrell.

Fred Dallas will play several violin numbers with Mrs. Dallas at the piano. The Schulz sisters, Barbara, Joan and Mary, Tulelake, will sing.

The spring district conference will be held April 3-4 at Grants Pass. Theme will be "Spring Roundup." The Grants Pass club is entertaining all visitors at a "Chuck Wagon" dinner free of charge, Saturday night.

Natalie Burns, state first vice president will be guest speaker. Her topic will be, "You, the Federation." The program continues through Sunday.

BID OR BYE BRIDGE CLUB

HENLEY — Mrs. Harold White and Mrs. Harry Orem entertained the Bid or Bye Bridge Club with a lovely luncheon, March 26 at Mrs. White's home. Other members present were: Mrs. Robert Norris, who won high; Mrs. Fred Beymer, low; Mrs. Forrest Brethaupt, traveling; Mrs. Vern Berry, Mrs. Harvey Wisc, Mrs. Paul Fairbro, Mrs. Don Johnson and Carolyn Dickson.

NEW BETHEL OF JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Installation of a new Bethel of International Order of Job's Daughters in the Henley District is slated for Sunday April 11, at 1:30 p.m.

Officers for the Bethel will be installed; and new members will be initiated in the Henley High School gymnasium.

Parents, guardians and all eligible relatives of Masons are invited. It will be open to the public for installation ceremonies at 2:30 p.m. for all friends and relatives.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM JAMES GILPATRICK . . . pose after their wedding in the First Methodist Church. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal B. Gilpatrick, Broadbent, Oregon; and the bride is the former Evelyn Vera Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Jones. Her father took the picture after the 3 p.m. single-ring service, which was read by the Rev. Lloyd Holloway.

GILPATRICK-JONES NUPTIALS IN FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

The wedding of Evelyn Vera Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Jones, 723 St. Francis Street, to William James Gilpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal B. Gilpatrick, Broadbent, Oregon; was truly a family affair. The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kent Jones, from Medford; Wayne Gilpatrick from Broadbent served his brother as best man; and bride's brother, Kent Jones, from Medford, was usher.

Candlelighter for the 3 p.m. ceremony in the First Methodist Church on March 21, was the bride's brother, Roger. He was also soloist. The bride's father gave her in marriage; and took the wedding pictures. Rosemary James, cousin of the bridegroom, registered the guests and was at the gift table.

Mrs. O. O. Gildow, organist, played traditional wedding music, and accompanied the bride's brother, who sang "Because of You," and "Bless This House."

The impressive single-ring service was read by the Rev. Lloyd B. Holloway before a background of daffodils with vari-colored spring flowers in the sanctuary; and white candles framing an illuminated cross at the altar.

The bride wore a simple white nylon dress, ballerina length; a shoulder length veil of fine nylon net; and she carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of elaborate three-tiered cake was cut and served by Mrs. Ted Nancarrow; Mrs. Lee Thompson was at the punch bowl; and members of Debra Circle assisted.

After a brief wedding trip to the coast the new Mr. and Mrs. Gilpatrick are at home to their friends, 703 North Ninth Street.

For travel, the bride wore an aqua suit with white and navy accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Jones wore a powder blue dress with pink and black accessories to her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother chose a gray dressmaker suit with black accessories; and her corsage was of maroon carnations.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR LARRY CLINE

CHILQUIN—Larry Cline was a surprised lad recently, when his mother, Mrs. Allen Cline, gave him a Sunday afternoon party to celebrate his eighth birthday.

Billy Swanson, Tony Dillio, Micki Jo Wolff, Donna Kircher, and Larry's sister Linda were guests. Cherry Wolff and Sally Ravizza were Linda's special guests.

The group took advantage of good weather to play ball on the school grounds, and finished with refreshments and gift-opening at the Cline home.
