

Shrine Club Crab Feed Draws Large Crowd

A NEW HIGH WAS REACHED ... at the annual Shrine Club Crab Feed in the Armory. The Willard Hotel (caterers for the event) served heaps of the popular crab — also relishes and appetizers from heavy-laden buffet tables.

Some candid shots taken during the evening include the group of six still "bibbed" at the table (l to r), standing, John West; Mrs. West, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, Ray Beeber and Mrs. Wesley Guderian. Foursome at the buffet table, from the left, Mrs. Dwight Eagle, Ralph Ovgard, Dwight Eagle and Mrs. Ovgard. Top center, Elmer Balsiger has more than his share of feminine companions. Mrs. Don Kenyon, left; Mrs. Balsiger and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge. Balsiger is newly appointed state director of the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children.

ZULEIMA NILE CLUB

Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls met for the regular monthly luncheon at the Willard Hotel on April 7. The tables were gay with Easter baskets, bunnies and daffodils.

Mary Vlahos gave the invocation. A guest from Medford, Hope Wood, was introduced, and a new member, Betty Kolstrom, was welcomed into the club. Both were presented with corsages.

Mildred Dimbat, chairman of the day, introduced her committee consisting of Martha Hubbard, Alma Geiz, Mildred Isaacs, Ora Reading, Rosalia Jones, Stella Dehlinger, Doris Peyton, Flo Steinseifer, Meivene Nitscheins, Ora Giesinger, Belle Josephson, Beatrice Wilkes and Helen Anderson.

Special prizes were awarded to Myrtle Ackerman and Josephine Young, and a birthday gift to Marie Pike. Phyllis May gave a report on the Daughters of the Nile installation ceremony in Eugene on March 27.

A group of drama students from Klamath Union High School under the direction of Mrs. Roberta Blomquist was introduced by Canna Fyock, entertainment chairman.

Their offering was a delightful, funny one-act play entitled "Mother Is Pooled" and many appreciative comments from an interested audience followed.

Cards were played after the meeting with Lorraine Miller in charge.

Gossard's
narrow-minded narroline...

YOU: Where did my hips go? Even my middle is smaller!

Corsetiere: You have no figure problem in Narroline. Gossard's special hip panels hold you firmly but beautifully all the way 'round—and your waistline loses inches in a wink!

YOU: Imagine a girdle doing all that and feeling so easy with every move I make!
