

Merrill High School Junior-Senior Banquet

Klamath Yacht Club

MERRILL HIGH JUNIORS HONOR CLASS OF '54 WITH BANQUET AT YACHT CLUB

MERRILL—Merrill High "Class of '54" were honor guests when members of the junior class were hosts for the annual junior-senior banquet Tuesday evening, March 30, at the Yacht Club in Klamath Falls.

Attractive place cards in red and silver, the class colors, marked places at the tables, which were centered with bouquets of spring flowers. Red rosebud corsages and carnation boutonnieres were presented the honor guests. Junior girls wore corsages of their class flower and colors—white carnation tied with lavender ribbons.

Junior class president, Peggy Noonan, welcomed the guests, and senior class president Johnny O'Neil responded. The Rev. John Phelan gave the blessing before dinner. The benediction after dinner, was given by the Rev. George Milne, School superintendent. H. J. Hendrickson was called on for remarks; the class prophecy was read by Mary Jo Hendrickson; and the will by Martha Beasley.

Four members of the junior class, Lee Wolfgram, Billy Green, Frances Barber, and Joyce Haskins, presented an amusing skit. Musical entertainment included two vocal duets by Peggy Noonan and Dolores Conner; and vocal solos by Carol Poe, accompanied at the piano by Nancy Dewey.

Honored guests were Johnny O'Neil, Mike Geraghty, Betty Daniel, Frances Elfert, Connie Reeves, Martha Beasley, Mary Lou Qualls, Yvonne Testerman, Ruth Merriam, Don Heaton and Nancy and Cora Williams.

Other guests were Laura Pearson, Margaret Molitor, Mr. and Mrs. William Doud, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rader, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kanzelmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Don Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Douchery, the Rev. and Mrs. Elvin Hess, the Rev. and Mrs. George A. Milne, the Rev. John Phelan, and Lewis S. Kandra.

Junior class members attending were Peggy Noonan, Mary Jo Hendrickson, Frances Barber, Loretta Lemler, Billy Green, Earl Loper, Leroy Johnson, Lee Wolfgram, Mary Johnson, Noreen Bredeen, Dolores Conner, Barbara Hodges, Carol Poe, Mary Lou Sweet, Sharon Kothoff, Barbara Icenbice, Nancy Dewey, Margie Flaugh and Joyce Haskins.
