The Leaders' Round Table will hold its annual meeting for election of new officers, a round table discussion panel and a dinner gathering in the Hotel Benson in Portland on Tuesday April 13.

Bench, Cool, But Window Hard

BALTIMORE (AP)—After an afternoon stroll in Baltimore's 82 degree heat yesterday, the bench at Sears, Roebuck & Co. must have looked mighty inviting to 72-year-old Mrs. Serama Czaj. But before she realized the bench was on display behind the store window, Mrs. Czaj crashed through the 11x11 foot pane. She was treated for a cut head and hand by a doctor. The store window was demolished.

Home Destroyed By Early Blaze

Fire destroyed a house in the 3200 block on Crest Street about 3 o'clock this morning. The Suburban Fire Department was called but the flames had gained such headway, it was impossible to save the structure. The building, said to be owned by a C. K. Chambers, was vacant, and firemen were at a loss to determine what started the conflagration. No estimate of damage was reported early this morning.

NIMRODS

DETROIT (AP)—With their bare hands and a bucket, Karen Lee Reynolds and Rose Ann Brisson, each 14, caught a 26-inch northern pike in shallow water behind a Rogue River beaver dam yesterday.

Emphasis On Hell Bomb Too Great?

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) said today it would be foolish for Congress to place too much dependence on the hydrogen bomb and unbalance the nation's military strength by cutting funds for conventional weapons. Similar doubts about overstressing the H-bomb were voiced by Sen. Anderson (D-NM) and AFL President George Meany. Russell, senior Democrat on the Senate Armed Services Committee and a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said in an interview he is "uneasy" about the Eisenhower administration's proposal to reduce the ground forces. Neither, he said, is he satisfied with the amount of funds Congress has been asked to make available for the Air Force.

But he conceded that scattered Democratic protests against a proposed slash of about five billion dollars in over-all military funds are not likely to be effective. He said President Eisenhower's prestige as a military man probably will defeat efforts to change budget figures. Eisenhower has told Congress that the "new look" military program of major reliance on air power and new weapons justifies a reduction in over-all military funds. He said that while Army divisions might be reduced, they would be more mobile, harder hitting and more dangerous to an enemy. Meany, however, said yesterday that the "new look" should be altered so as to increase, rather than cut down, the number of U. S. troops in Europe and Asia. Writing in the AFL's monthly magazine, the labor leader said the "new look" itself needs "a most searching look" because "the Democratic countries must spare no effort to strengthen their collective security systems in Europe, in the Near East and in Asia." Anderson's comment about the H-bomb came during a televised panel discussion yesterday in which he declared the mighty new superweapon is not the answer to all military problems. "Does the H-bomb mean anything in Indochina?" he asked. "It means nothing. It is not suited for that kind of warfare. I think what France does toward granting freedom to the people in Indochina is more important now than the size of the H-bomb." Russell said he, for one, believes that the Air Force ought to get more funds. But he said such an

A.A.A. SANCTIONED—Stock cars identical with those you buy were picked at random by 3-A. Cars carried average passenger load of 4 persons with luggage, or the equivalent. Deputized A.A.A. men rode in each car to check all driving practices, see that maximum speed limits and all other traffic laws were strictly observed.

ENGINES CHECKED—Automotive engineers checked and tore down engines. They found completely clean engines: spark plugs, carburetor and automatic choke free of any deposits.

COMPLETELY NEW MOTOR FUEL—The Mobilgas Economy Run was the final and conclusive test in an exhaustive series of research and road tests of New Mobilgas Special. The more than 28,000 miles covered by the competing cars capped the most thorough checking

QUINCY, Mass. (AP)—City police had to rescue two sailors adrift in a small boat yesterday because the Navy was caught without a boat. Joseph E. Forti of Medford and Richard J. Greer of Quincy, both attached to the Squantum Naval Air Station, were rowing in the bay when they lost an oar. Fellow Navy men on shore noticed their plight and called the harbor police to the rescue because the naval air station didn't have a boat available.
