

Dodgers Bounce Back With Win Over Giants

Newcomb Gets Revenge

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Don Newcomb finally has rid himself of the shadow that hung over him for 2½ years.

The big Brooklyn pitcher may have won the most important game of his career last night when he hurled the Dodgers to a 6-4 victory over the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds.

Although he wouldn't admit it, the triumph must have been in the nature of sweet revenge for the Negro right-hander. It was in this park back on Oct. 3, 1951, that he suffered the saddest moments of his life.

FATEFUL

That was the fateful day when the Giants' Bobby Thomson hammered that heard-around-the-world homer in the ninth inning of the final playoff game to snatch a pennant away from Brooklyn. True, the homer was hit off Ralph Branca but it came after the Giants had batted Newcomb out of the box with three ringing hits.

The Giant-Dodger scrap was the only night affair in yesterday's five-game schedule. Homers by Gil Hodges and Junior Gilliam decided that one.

In the afternoon, Philadelphia, behind the four-hit pitching of southpaw Curt Simmons, vanquished the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-0. Third baseman Willie Jones moved up from seventh to leadoff in the batting order, drove in three Phillys with a home run, double and two singles.

THREE HITTER

Bob Lemon threw a three-hitter at Chicago as the Cleveland Indians whipped the White Sox 6-3 to sweep the two-game series. The veteran right-hander ace permitted only one hit after the first inning. Wally Westlake poled his second homer in two days for Cleveland. Rookie left-hander Jack Harshman, first of four Chicago pitchers, was charged with the defeat.

A pair of ninth-inning errors by Washington second baseman Wayne Terwilliger presented the New York Yankees with the winning run as the world champions nipped the Nats 2-1 behind Eddie Lopat.

WINNING RUN

With one out, Johnny Schmitz walked Phil Rizzuto. Lopat topped a ball which Eddie Yost fielded at third and threw to Terwilliger for what looked like a certain double play. Terwilliger dropped the ball. A moment later he muffed a soft pop by Hank Bauer and Rizzuto scored from third with the winning run.

Baltimore's Orioles achieved their first American League victory in 52 years, edging out the Detroit Tigers 3-2. Rightphander Duane Pillette permitted six hits, protecting a three-run advantage his Oriole mates had grabbed at the expense of starter Ray Herbert in the first inning. Junior Stephens' two-run single was the decisive blow.

Klamath Archers Continue Work

Last Saturday and Sunday afternoons, the Klamath Archers met at Moore Park and continued their work of cleaning and repairing the park archery range.

Both days turned out to be very successful in working and shooting. After the group, around 35, had installed new bales of straw and cleaned brush away from the rear of the targets, they held practice shoots.

Plans are for more cleaning of the course, and possibly more shooting time this weekend, when the club meets on Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Those attending are reminded to bring their pot-luck lunch with them and stay for the afternoon's fun as well as work.

The club officials warned people, who are walking near the archery range, to use the trails that are marked and to stay away from the target area, so that no one will be the victim of a stray arrow.

Merrill Whips Sacred Heart 5-3

Merrill took the measure of Sacred Heart in a County League game yesterday afternoon at Merrill, 5-3.

Errors played a big part in the Huskies win over the invading Trojans from Klamath Falls.

The Merrill team scored one run in the fourth inning and then put together five scores in their part of the fifth to sew up the ball game. Only one run on both ballclubs was earned, and each team was guilty of seven errors during the contest.

Sacred Heart score their runs in the first and fourth runs off Merrill pitcher Dale McCulloch.

Dean Michaelis, Sacred Heart infielder led the losers at the plate with two hits in four trips to bat.

The win gave Merrill a 2-0 record for league play and Sacred Heart an even slate with one win and one loss for league action.

Boxscore: — R H E
Sacred Heart 3 6 7
Merrill 5 7 7
Snyder and Thill; McCulloch and O'Neill.

Wissenback, Moore Lead Gun Clubbers

Jim Wissenback and Vern Moore topped all shooters in the Klamath Gun Club's Sunday afternoon shoot.

Wissenback turned in a 49 out of 50 score to take the honors in the 50-16 yards event and Moore collected a 48 out of 50 in the handicap division.

Bill Davis, E. E. Driscoll and Rod Smith compiled scores of 48 to tie for second place honors behind Wissenback in the 50 at 16 yards class and John Catalano fired a 46 score in the handicap event to place second in the afternoon shoot.

Next Sunday afternoon the club will shoot for the first leg of the Klamath Sportsman's trophy, according to gun club officials.

Air Force, Navy Decide Service Title

GREAT LAKES, Ill. (AP) — Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D.C., the all-Air Force champion, and the Great Lakes Blue-jackets, Navy titlist, will meet Thursday night for the world-wide interservice basketball crown.

They advanced to the finals Wednesday night in the start of the four-team interservice tournament. Andrews defeated the Quantico Marines of Virginia 81-77 and Great Lakes downed the all-Army champion, Camp Chaffee, Ark., 90-84.

Quantico and Camp Chaffee will meet in Thursday night's first game for third place honors.

NCAA Clamps Video

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Member schools of the NCAA gave a harsh "No" to the Big Ten Conference in voting for the seventh straight year to continue its limited nationally controlled program of televising football games.

Walter Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., said Thursday a mail referendum showed members colleges and universities favored continuation of the limited program by a vote of 184-26.

The Big Ten had urged a TV program which would permit a team to appear twice regionally, once at home and once away, or once nationally, whichever it desired. It had asked its members to vote against the NCAA proposal. Some officials have predicted the Big Ten — officially the Western Conference — might go ahead with regional television this fall. It expected, however, the Big Ten will go along with the NCAA program.

The 1954 program is essentially the same as last year. There will be twelve nationwide telecast Saturday games with regional TV games restricted to Thanksgiving Day.

Exceptions to the 1953 program are: There is no provision for telecasting sell-out games, and the panoramic experiment in which short shots were taken from a number of games is being discarded.

Hardtop Meeting Scheduled

A meeting of all people who are interested in hardtop racing will be held Friday night according to Sam Neslin, Gem Speedway manager.

The meeting will be held in the City Library at 7:30 and not only drivers and sponsors, but also any person, who has an interest in the races, that will be getting underway some time next month, should attend.

Plans for the coming season and important announcements will be made at the meeting, according to Neslin.

It was one of those nights when everything Sacramento did was right, and everything Seattle attempted proved futile. The score, Sacramento 10 Seattle 1, conveys the theme.

Rookie Al Cicotte was in the driver's seat. He allowed the hard-hitting Rainiers only three safeties while his teammates drove out the ace of the Seattle Staff. Al Widmar, and continued the attack against Jim Suchecki and Tom Lovrich for 18 hits. Cicotte is a nephew of the Chicago White Sox "Sine Ball" immortal, Eddie Cicotte, and is on option from the New York Yankees.

Tommy Glaviano, with the Phillies last season, pumped two home runs in the Sacramento game, and outfielder Joe Brovin, known more for his hitting than his fielding, started a triple play — the first of the season.

He speared Clarence Maddern's line drive off his shoetops and fired the ball home. Leo Thomas was on second and Al Zarilla on first. They thought the ball had been trapped and catcher Bud Sheeley fired Brovin's throw to first and it was relayed to second and both runners were called out.

Dick Walbel won his second game as he pitched Portland to a 3-2 decision over San Diego. He bested the veteran Eddie Erault. Both teams got eight hits each but Portland bunched them in the fourth and fifth innings for all their runs. In the matter of statistics, Erault had the edge. He fanned four to Walbel's two, walked only one to Walbel's five.

The Beavers turned in three fast double plays—and it is no secret that they are going to be tough to score on if their pitchers can keep the ball low with runners on base.

Los Angeles had a runaway against the San Francisco Seals, and won by a 12-2 score. Bobby Usher and Tom Brown hit homers as the Angels collected 18 hits off three Seal pitchers.

Hollywood's Stars finally won another ball game—their second of the season—with a three-run eighth inning against Oakland. The Oaks bowed, 5-4, and Mel Queen got credit for the victory.

Bevo Unruffled About Rio Grande's Action

FAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP) — If the weather's good, you will probably find Bevo Francis on the banks of the Ohio River waiting for the catfish to grab at the bait on his trout line.

Otherwise, he'll probably do some "loafin' around" at the nearby community of Hammondsville.

At any rate, you can bet Big Bevo, one of the nation's most publicized basketball players, is the most unruffled party in the recent furor that resulted in his dismissal from tiny Rio Grande College.

The college expelled Bevo Monday after he missed mid-term examinations, failed to show up for class and lacked excuses for a number of absences.

Thus ended — at Rio Grande at least a fabulous, two-year career in which the gangling farm boy set a batch of unbelievable scoring records.

But, Bevo, who announced a couple of weeks ago he might have to drop out of school because "bills are piling up," wasn't excited. He planned to "sit back, take it easy and look over some offers..."

The offers, he said, have come from colleges, AAU teams, and some professional clubs. He appeared content to "let the boys bid."

Bevo's coach, Newt Oliver, plans not to complete the two years he has left on a contract calling for $3,600 annually. He has said repeatedly "I came here with Bevo, and I'll leave with him."
