HOME EXTENSION
MIDLAND
By Mrs. George Overmire

The Midland Home Extension Unit held the last meeting of the year at Joan's Kitchen, April 8 at 10:30 a.m. With heads wrapped in towels, and faces well smeared with cleansing cream, lots of laughter and comment on how each one looked, was indulged in by 16 members and two guests present. During the morning session members prepared the cleansing cream and freshener led by Mrs. Audrey Ager as Mrs. George Overmire talked on "Home Care of the Skin." The cream made by the members has all the basic ingredients used in cosmetics.

A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. August Andrieu, Mrs. Joe Horsley, Mrs. Jack Lund and Mrs. I. T. Merkey.

The business meeting was opened with a letter read by Mrs. Joe Horsley from Dolores Bracken asking for two members to be present for the spacing of exhibits at the spring festival. Mrs. Leon Andrieu and Mrs. Norman Riley will attend this meeting.

The new plastic tablecloth purchased by Mrs. Audrey Ager was used for the first time.

Mrs. Stanley Rayson turned in her report on "Pennies for Friendship" as the ACWV chairman. A health report was made out for Mrs. Wilson Phillips.

A motion was made and seconded that the unit buy a gift for Joan's Kitchen in time for the festival. This will be purchased by Mrs. Charles Packer and Mrs. Stanley Rayson. Mrs. Fred Costiel won the promptness prize.

Mrs. Stanley Rayson announced that a new 4-H garden club was being formed.

The two guests were Mrs. H. W. Prough of the Bonanza unit, and a former member Mrs. John Myster who thanked the unit for their gift to the Klamath Nursing Home.

A motion was made for plans for a potluck lunch at the kitchen May 13, and then go in a body to the nursing home for a visit.

Mrs. Joe Horsley was re-elected chairman of the unit; Mrs. Audrey Ager was elected vice-chairman and Mrs. George Overmire was elected secretary treasurer. All

'54 Easter Sees Fear, Rejoicing

By JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The first Easter of the H-bomb era will be observed around the world tomorrow with prayers for peace and salvation.

Rejoicing that Christ is risen mingles with fears that man has fashioned a weapon that could doom civilization.

The hope of men, women and children at Eastertide was that the occasion never would arise to unleash the bomb's fury.

President Eisenhower, on whose shoulders rests much of the free world's burden of preventing war, will attend services at Augusta, Ga.

In Rome, Pope Pius XII will appear on the loggia of St. Peter's basilica, to impart benediction to the world.

The Christian feast of Easter, by unusual coincidence, comes this year on the same day as the Jewish feast of Passover, which commemorates the flight of the Israelites from Egypt.

Dr. Israel Goldstein, president of the American Jewish Congress, said in a Passover message that the feast, to Jews, "is a 5,000-year-old rite commemorating the brave free spirit which dominates their lives and thinking."

Although the Holy Land itself is torn with Jewish-Arab tension, church bells will call worshippers to service as usual on Easter in old Jerusalem, scene of the crucifixion and resurrection.

OUTDOOR SERVICES
Across the United States, hundreds of thousands of worshippers will attend outdoor or indoor sunrise services. A number of the outdoor services, mostly Protestant or non-denominational, will be on hill or mountain tops.

In a traditional gay note, women will don their new finery. The weather man promised "ideal" conditions for New York's annual "Easter Parade" on Fifth Avenue.

NBC-TV will televise on its network scenes from Park Avenue at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel from 12 noon to 1 p.m. (EST), but none of the networks planned any telecasts of the Fifth Avenue procession.

They were mindful of criticism they received two years ago that the Fifth Avenue TV pickup was turned into a commercial spectacle by publicity-minded people pushing into camera range to advertise various wares.

BIGGEST EGG
What is claimed to be the biggest Easter egg in the world, 12 1/2 feet long and nine feet wide, is on display at Red Cloud, Neb., for an annual Easter egg hunt that attracts some 3,000 children.

Minden, Neb., known as the "Christmas City" because of its brilliant lighting at Yuletide, is branching out this year with an Easter lighting display expected to rival the Christmas show.

In Washington, three military sunrise services are scheduled—by the Army, in gardens at the Walter Reed Medical Center; by the Navy, on grounds of the Naval Medical Center; and by the Air Force, at Bolling Field.

Nearby, the Grand Encampment, Knights Templar, will sponsor sunrise services at the Arlington National Cemetery Amphitheater.

In Boston, the Navy will conduct a Protestant sunrise service at 8 a.m. aboard the ancient frigate Constitution.

A half hour earlier, non-denominational services will be held at the Cathedral of the Pines, Ridge, N.H., on a knoll cleared of giant pines by the 1938 hurricane.

PENITENT RITES
In remote little mountain villages in Northern New Mexico, the Penitent Brotherhood observed the Easter season without its former physical excesses, such as self-flagellation.

Members of the order once believed only blood could atone for their sins. The group, long outlawed, was recognized by the Catholic Church in 1947 and since has been required to keep its rites within moderation.

An attendance of 50,000 to 100,000 depending on weather, is expected at the annual sunrise Easter services and pageant in the Wichita Mountains near Lawton in southwestern Oklahoma. There will be 22 scenes and hundreds of persons in the Holy City pageant.

The Shrine of Ages on the south rim of the Grand Canyon will be the scene of a colorful sunrise service to be conducted by Gov. Howard Pyle of Arizona.

On the summit of Hot Springs Mountain in Arkansas, the Hot Springs Choral Club will present its 20th annual Easter sunrise service.

A 150-voice choir of soldiers stationed at Fort Hood, Killeen, Tex., will sing at Easter services at Fort Hood Stadium. A cast of 100 persons will present a sunrise Easter pageant in Laurel Land Memorial Park, Fort Worth.
