

COMMITTEE MEMBERS . . . for April 3rd Reames Golf and Country Club dance, from the left, seated, Mrs. H. O. Juckeland, Mrs. Greer Draw, Mrs. John McCulloch, and Mrs. Stanley Miller. Standing, Greer Draw, Stanley Miller and John McCulloch. H. O. Juckeland not in picture. —Photo by Ferebee

CIRCUS THEME . . . at the Reames dance April 3rd finds a group of gay gals in front of the "taggart's" cage. From the left, Mrs. Bill Peak, Mrs. Robert Ellingson, Mrs. Floyd Boyd, Mrs. Frank Hall and Mrs. Howard Scroggin. —Photo by Ferebee

ALL MALE QUINTET . . . or "The Fearless Five"—also in front of the tiger's cage, from the left, Howard Scroggin, Lloyd Prock, Adolph Zamsky, Floyd Boyd and Bill Peak. —Photo by Ferebee

Aloha Chapter 61, OES Meeting

Grand Representatives of the Grand Chapter of Oregon were guests of honor at the stated meeting of Aloha Chapter 61 OES, held Tuesday evening, April 13 in the Masonic Temple, Rena Oldham, worthy matron, and Raymond Owens, worthy patron, presided.

Baskets of forsythia and bouquets of daffodils were used about the chapter room and parlors. Members were greeted by the following committee: Alma Getz, Charlotte Martin, Exene Humble and Jim Hunter.

Seated in the east with the worthy matron and worthy patron were: Betty Hunter, grand representative of Pennsylvania in Oregon, and past matron of Aloha Chapter; Helen McCornack, grand representative of New York in Oregon, and past matron of Manzanita Chapter; Susie Maust, grand representative of Alberta, Canada in Oregon, and past matron of Alpha Chapter, Ashland; Harry Deansmore, worthy patron of Troutdale and Claris Williams Jr., past patron of Aloha Chapter. The grand representatives were presented lovely corsages.

The United States flag was doubly honored. After regular escort, it was re-escorted to the altar by John Rhodes, associate matron, and encircled by the 1954 officers and friendship girls. A beautiful tribute was then read by Raymond Owens, worthy patron.

After the business meeting, a lively drill was performed by the friendship girls. A visitor, Cliff Maust, past patron of Alpha Chapter; was introduced and Charles Nale were welcomed back after a long absence.

The Pennsylvania Dutch theme was used for decorating the banquet hall. Each table held potted tulips, wooden shoes, dutch dolls and peace pipes. A large windmill decorating the head table was the center of attraction. Betty Thornton planned and arranged the decorations, assisted by Mildred Dimbat.

Aloha Social club provided the refreshments which were served by Dorothy Bramlett (president), Betty Thornton, Olive Thomas, Verla Land and Elmer Bramlett.

Job's Daughters Bethel No. 6 will have an initiation at the next stated meeting of Aloha Chapter which will be held April 27. Phyllis Pool and Minnie Grizzle will be in charge of refreshments.

BPW Meeting

Members of the Business and Professional Women's Club were treated to a "lookie" of themselves on television at the April 5 dinner-meeting at the Willard Hotel when members of the electronics department of Oregon Tech used equipment from the college to record and re-broadcast the dinner program. Cameraman was Don Orrell.

Other entertainers were Barbara, Mary and Joan Schultz, Tulelake vocal trio, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dallas on violin and piano.

Program chairman was Maude Davis, BPW radio and television chairman, assisted by Bernice Grewell of OTL.

Chairmen of the various committees were: publicity, Lillian Oiterbein and Lorraine Guillen; decorations, Bernice Grewell, Eva Erry, Mollie Williams, Ruth Doerr; hospitality, Polly Schroeder, Dena Backes, Agnes Lageson, Clara Lubke and Eva M. Bailey.

SOROPTIMIST

The Rev. Galen H. Onstad, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church brought a brief and impressive Easter message to members of the Soroptimist Club at the Winema Hotel during the luncheon hour, Thursday, April 15.

The Madrigal chorus from Sacred Heart Academy beautifully sang three difficult arrangements.

Program chairman was Ruth Lobough. Gay Easter hats, worn by Dena Backes and Mary Bothwell started the ball rolling for fines on other Easter bonnets worn by members.

Ruth Bathiany, Harbor, Oregon, former Klamath Falls resident was a guest.

Knox, Helen Chatburn, Dean Marks, Mary Catherine Walker, Mildred Walker and Grace Walker.

Royalty

couldn't ask for better dry cleaning service than we give all our customers!

Fit for a queen or a king! That's the kind of cleaning and pressing care we give all our customers. Our methods and equipment are modern . . . our service is expert and quick! For truly fine dry cleaning, you can depend on Cascade.

we pick-up and deliver!

Just Phone 5111 Send your cleaning with your laundry!

CASCADE LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANERS

Klamath's Finest Opp. Post Office

REPAINT!

with our improvement loan's help . . . Bring an estimate of costs from your contractor . . .

REPAIR!

we'll lend you the cash . . . you repay in reasonable monthly amounts.

REMODEL!

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

540 MAIN STREET

Quality Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation

SEEING THEMSELVES ON TELEVISION was a thrill for members of the Business and Professional Women's Club and their guests from OTL, at the television show put on by the electronics department of the college at the April 5 meeting at the Willard Hotel. The television camera, part of the program, table mats, and other decorations were all from the college. Seated at the head table, were (l to r) Bernice Grewell, registrar at OTL; Maude Davis, BPW radio and television chairman; Imogene Boothby, BPW president; Vera Cook, recording secretary; Nell Stewart, treasurer and Loy Smith, corresponding secretary. Three television screens were used to show the guests at all tables. — Photo by Floyd IMPROMPTU AND FUN . . . was the luncheon for Lucille McConnell, Wednesday, April 7, just a day before she and Dr. J. Martin Adams were married in Reno.

Guest of honor is seated; some of the guests standing (l to r), Mrs. Lee Stoner, Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mrs. Neil Black,

Adams-McConnell Wedding on 8th Of Interest to Many KF Friends

In a simple ceremony in the Riverside Hotel, Mrs. Lucille McConnell and Dr. J. Martin Adams were married in Reno, on Thursday, April 8. The late afternoon service was read by Judge L. E. Layman, and officially witnessed by Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., and Harry D. Bolvin.

The Wileys and Bolvins returned to Klamath Falls, Friday, after a side trip to Mt. Rose, and the Adams continued south, where part of their wedding trip was spent in San Francisco.

and the hostesses, Mrs. Wilson Wiley and Mrs. Harry Bolvin. Picture was taken at the Bolvin residence, 235 North Third Street; and Mrs. Bolvin was so interested in her guests . . . she forgot to look at the "birdie". — Photo by Milly Ramsby

Mrs. Adams is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Adams will be at home in the near future, 1540 Eldorado Avenue.

Dear Mother

To her, you're tops; she's funny that way. Knowing this, you're smart and thoughtful to give Mom a well done portrait of you for Mother's Day.

"The gift only you can give" Have your portrait made now to assure delivery for Mother's Day.

Ferebee Studio

U.S. National Bank Bldg. Main Phone 3252

PRESENTING CLASSIC ROSE

The New "Romantic Modern" Look in Sterling Silver

by Reed & Barton

Here is a modern sterling design of great warmth and beauty. Exceptionally heavy in weight, Reed & Barton's new "Classic Rose" is just 31.00 per 6-pc. place-setting, Federal tax included.

Use a budget account

Pickys Jewelers

700 Main St.

Phone 3151