

KLAMATH COUNTY 4-H CLUBS PLAN SPRING FAIR

KAY O'DONAHUE, 4-H CLUB MEMBER, left, models a chambray school dress, lavender color — a perfect complement for her dark hair. The dress is a project completed in Clothing 3 and modeled at last year's style show which climaxes the annual three-day 4-H Club Spring Fair. Clothing 3 is entitled "Cotton Clothes for School and Sports Wear" and is one phase of the overall aim of the five years of clothing club work to teach girls how to be well dressed on what they can afford to spend for clothes. Kay, a Henley High School junior, will model a tailored

"best dress" of pale green arcalon, fashioned with slim lines, turtle-neck collar and three-quarter length sleeves, at this year's style show, to be held Saturday, April 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the exhibit building at the fairgrounds. Sharon Davis, right, a 4-H Club member from Altamont District, is a senior at Klamath Union High School and a charming model for the pink formal of sheer cotton crepe which she made in Clothing 4 and displayed at the 1953 style show. This year she will model a rose beige, rayon wool suit, box type. — Photo by Kettler

The dining table, centered with a bowl of spring daffodils flanked by tall blue tapers, featured a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake. After supper, the group played cards. The honored guests later opened their gifts; cut the cake and served the dessert course.

The cocktail hour is set at 8:30 p.m., and dancing from 10 until 2. Fillet mignon is the featured attraction of the buffet supper to be served by the Regans starting at 11:30. Mike and Beulah are planning a very special Easter menu for tomorrow, and hope the members will bring their families and friends out to the club.
