Library Club Spring Musicales Receives Plaudits From Charmed Audience at April 12th Meeting

"Best ever" and "marvelous" were terms used by the large audience to commend the spring musicale presented Monday, April 12, at Library Club. The accomplished musicians and soloists from both Eugene and Klamath Falls featured on the program were applauded long and heartily by those who attended the meeting in the City Library clubroom.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt, music chairman, arranged the program, which included Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor and Miss Ruth Lobaugh, duo pianists; Miss Exine Anderson, soprano; Arthur Bailey, tenor; and Stacey L. Green at the piano. Miss Anderson, a member of the faculty at the University of Oregon School of Music, sang "Care Selve" from Atlanta by Handel.

OES Prosperity Chapter No. 160

Prosperity Chapter No. 160, Order of the Eastern Star held their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening, April 8 at the Malin Masonic Hall.

Presiding in the East was Doris Smith, worthy matron and Jess Smith, worthy patron. A beautiful ceremony commemorated the Easter season. White lilies were placed on a white cross and appropriate verses and music were used by the participating officers.

The worthy matron's birthday is in April and a surprise addenda was given her. She was also presented with a birthday cake.

Coming as another surprise was the presentation of a cake to Maryvyn Wilde, associate patron, whose birthday fell upon the meeting night.

One candidate received the degree of the order and was welcomed into the chapter. Members voted to turn over the sum of $200 to the Malin Masonic Lodge for further improvements on the hall.

Following the meeting, members gathered in the dining room for refreshments. Tables were appropriately decorated with Easter bunnies and nests of candy eggs.

Jerri Lou Waltmeir, who leaves soon for Oklahoma to join her husband, was the recipient of a surprise handkerchief shower during the refreshment hour.

AFTER THE EASTER EGG HUNT... an exciting interlude in the 5th birthday anniversary party of David Jones — some of the boys' hair-dos are not so slick as they appeared at the party given by David's grandmother, Mrs. Cyril Cook, 2415 Wiard Street.

From the left, front row, Andy Jones, Sandy Jones, Joe Paul Jones, (not all brothers and sisters — but cousins of quest of honor); David Jones, Ronnie Kowalis and Jerry Kramer. Back row, Sherron Kowalis, Kay Kramer, Mary Kellison and Davids sister, Linda.

There were winners — but no losers in the egg hunt — each child received a basket-favor of his own. David and Linda are children of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Jones, 136 Michigan. — Photo by Kettler

Dermott's New Curl Lotion Revives Lost Hair Waves

This is the amazing new curl lotion you have been reading about in all the important fashion magazines. It's wonderful! An entirely new idea that returns crisp curl to your hair in no time at all, yet is not a "permanent" lotion. Particularly effective for keeping lagging troublesome ends off your neck. A clear, blue-tinted liquid as thin as water, it dries even faster than water without the slightest trace of stickiness and without the slightest risk of damaging chemical action to the hair.

Curl Lotion $1.50 plus tax

Wonderful for last minute repair jobs before a date or after a shampoo, it adds necessary body and crispness with no sacrifice of sheen. Created by Dermott, well-known hair stylist, to give lustre and lasting waves to his own coiffures, this amazing lotion is now available to the public. Women are delighted to find it gives "body" to fine hair, and with continued use, encourages natural waves.

REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

DICK AND EMMIE EIMERS— from Seattle spent a couple of days here this week with friends on Lakeshore Drive—it was Em's first sight of the big white birds on Upper Klamath Lake which she insisted on calling "penguins"—and couldn't understand why they weren't wearing their tuxedos this spring—New to her also were popular KP games — shuffleboard and horse collar—and the rule about "beginner's luck" held true in her case with a vengeance.

MARK BEACH—the bass member of the popular and famed "Oswego Four"—has another good reason (other the SPEBSQSA) for a kindred feeling for the Klamath country is that he was born in Lakeview—where his father owned the newspaper—also mentioned in passing—that son Scott was progressing nicely in Paris where he's studying on a Fulbright Scholar-

"Clean-Up Day" At Bonanza Library

BONANZA — "Clean Up Day" was held all day April 12 at the Bonanza Library. The women took vacuum cleaners, brooms, mops, etc., and really did a bang up job. The floors had been sanded, varnished and waxed, so everything is neat as a pin. Windows were washed and even the yard got some attention.

A sack lunch was eaten at noon, with coffee furnished by the Bonanza Women's Club. Those gathering to work were Mrs. Cecil Haley, president of the Bonanza Women's Club; Mrs. Florence Horn, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mrs. Ivan Bold, Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. Reg Thomas, Mrs. Walter Risse, Mrs. Oliver Haley, Mrs. Roy Fernlund, Mrs. Owen Peppie, Mrs. Bill Becholdt, and Mrs. Birdie Burk.

HEIRLOOMS Before mass production of plate glass in American, mirrors were treasures to be passed down as heirlooms from generation to generation.
