

Indians Edge Baltimore

Doby's Blow Important

By BEN PHILGAR
AP Sports Writer

Bullet Bob Turley may still be nursing a home run headache today, but he probably will end up glad he didn't pitch that no-hitter. Turley toils for the Baltimore Orioles and last night he came within two outs of holding the Cleveland Indians hitless. He wound up getting beaten 2-1 when Al Rosen singled and Larry Doby, twice a strikeout victim, lined a high pitch 360 feet into the right field stands of Baltimore's Municipal Stadium.

"It was over his head," Turley said. "He never should have swung."

NO-HITTER

Turley is no fresh out of the Army that he wasn't around the last time a member of his team pitched a no-hitter. That was in May last season when the Orioles were still the St. Louis Browns. Bobo Holloman was the author. Nobody would go broke giving prizes for answers to the question "Where's Holloman now?"

Bobo never pitched another complete game for the Browns and he was lost in the minors by the time Turley shed his khaki last August.

A blond Greek-god type who stands 6-2 and weighs 215, Turley throws harder than any pitcher who has hit the big time since Bobby Feller moved from his Iowa farm to the Indians. He was the hottest property on the winter baseball market and the new owners of the Orioles turned down cash offers of $150,000 and upwards for his services.

61 STRIKEOUTS

Like Feller, he is a strikeout artist. In 60 innings last season he struck out 61 men, despite a 2-6 record. He fanned nine on Baltimore's opening day when he beat Chicago 3-1 and last night he nailed 14 Indians on strikes.

The new Orioles, like the old Browns, don't seem able to get him many runs. Seven of his eight games last year were decided by a single run, just like last night when eight Baltimore hits off Bob Lemon produced a first-inning run and no more.

Bob Porterfield of the Washington Senators, whose luck is usually all bad, was more fortunate than Turley last night. He pitched a three-hitter against the Philadelphia Athletics and his mates supported him with a 13-hit attack that produced a 13-1 victory.

NEW YORK

New York whipped Boston 5-1 in the only other American League game. Brooklyn defeated Philadelphia 6-3. Pittsburgh edged the New York Giants 5-4. St. Louis beat Cincinnati 4-2, and Milwaukee thumped Chicago 7-3 in the National League.

The Yankees used their patented weapon, the home run, to ruin young Leo Kiehl's return from the Army to the Red Sox. Yogi Berra, Gil McDougald and Mickey Vernon pounded Kiehl's left-handed slants into the Yankee Stadium seats while the Sox were being mystified by Eddie Lopat.

The Phils threw their game away in Brooklyn in the first inning. Three throwing errors by the infield sandwiched between five walks and a single gave the Dodgers three runs. The league champions added three more in the next two innings and Billy Loes lashed long enough to silence the Phils' threats although he needed help from Jim Hughes in the ninth.

RAD NIGHT

Whitey Lockman had a bad night in Pittsburgh. The Giant's first baseman hit a home run in the fifth inning only to have it disallowed because a base runner, Monte Irvin, had called time. Then in the eighth inning he muffed a pickoff throw from Don Liddle, and Toby Atwell scampered home from third base with the winning run.

Frank Thomas drove in three of the five Pirate runs with a two-on homer in the first inning.

Gerry Staley of the Cards won his first game and a new suit of clothes in Cincinnati. Manager Eddie Stanky, moaning over his pitiful pitching, in desperation offered the new suit to the first hurler to stay the distance. Staley immediately responded with a nine-inning eighth-inning.

Stanky wasn't around for much of it. He was chased in the third inning by Umpire Bill Jackowski for making rude gestures after being warned to stay within the lines of the coaching box.

Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's biggest winner last year, won his second straight with the help of a three-run homer by Eddie Mathews and a two-run blast by Joe Adcock. Adcock may not be on hand much longer. He received orders yesterday to report for an Army physical May 24.

Oregon Woolen jumped back into the lead of the Classic League last night by taking four games from the Roundup Tavern team, while AVA Farms was dropping two games to the Sixth Street Oxygen five.

AVA and Oregon Woolen shared the top spots in team play with the farm event winning the high game with a 1031 total, and the Woolen's turned in a series final of 2734 pins.

Don Ferguson won the top laurels in individual game column with his 245 pin total and Bob Victorino was close behind with a 240.

Victorino captured the series honors from Al Hakenwerth with a 613 score. Hakenwerth's three lines totaled to a 578 second place score.

Hakenwerth and Charlie Booth held the lead in season high individual average after last night's action, both having a 185 average.

Mel Robinson and Gino Rosierella were close with their 184 and 183 scores respectively.

Whitfield Social Outcast

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Men who are good at running the mile, which still is the "golden event" of the track world, consider themselves somewhat apart from the run-of-mine performers such as sprinters and middle-distance specialists, and so are not taking too kindly to the social aspirations of his Whitfield.

As far as they are concerned, Whitfield merely is the world's best middle distance runner, the holder of two straight Olympic 800-meter gold medals. That, in the opinion of the runners, scarcely qualified the former Ohio State star to elbow his way into their select company, much less shoot off his head about trying to run the first four-minute mile.

OLYMPIC KING

When the Olympic king made his announcement last fall that he had decided to more than double his distance this summer and expressed some confidence that he could show the milers a thing or two, the reaction of the latter group was immediate and to the point. They said, and for publication, that Whitfield was full of warm air. They predicted he would get his lumps the first time he raced around with grown men.

Well, the time has come, and on Saturday at Franklin Field in Philadelphia Whitfield will be given his first chance.

The opposition will include two of this country's best, Fred Wilt and Horace Ashenfelter, both of whom were quoted as saying Whitfield would have to learn the hard way. Under the circumstances, they can be counted upon not to do much leading. The race also will introduce the crack New Zealander Murray Halberg, who recently ran a 4:04.4 mile on grass in his own country.

TACKLING

In other words, Whitfield is not starting out to work his way up from the bottom. He is tackling the elite among the golden boys right off, and if he beats them or even stays close to the pace he will have gone a long way toward silencing the doubters. Frankly, the average track expert expects to see the Olympic hero racking and reeling and losing ground fast toward the finish, but he can't be sure.

With the big test finally before him, Whitfield has been making no rash predictions. He says merely that if he gets licked Saturday he will keep on trying to become the world's best miler. He remarks cheerfully that "it's too late to back out now."

Jones Wins TKO Decision Over Turner

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Television and Gil Turner are making life much easier for Bobby Jones, his four kids and his expectant wife.

Jones arrived in Philadelphia early last month for a 10-round bout with Turner. The 28-year-old Californian was unranked and figured so much cannon fodder for the ambitious local boy. But Jones a 3-1 underdog, won a split decision.

An accident, said Turner and his following. "I couldn't happen again. It didn't. Instead of a split decision, the methodical Jones won on a 10th round technical knock-out here Wednesday night in the return bout. He was only a 2-1 underdog this time.

So Jones, who came here with little or no reputation, leaves with two impressive victories, his pockets lined with green stuff to take care of the little Jones kids and mamma, and prospects of a big outdoor fight in June.

Girl Athlete Given Chance To Earn Letter

SEATTLE (AP)—Lorraine Dimoff, pretty Lewis and Clark College tennis star, will get a chance to earn that letter, after all.

Although rated the No. 2 player of the Lewis and Clark team, Miss Dimoff recently was removed from the squad when Northwest Conference officials voted league competition "for men only."

Seattle University came to her rescue Wednesday. The Chieftains will play Lewis and Clark at Portland Saturday. And as a competition for Miss Dimoff, they're offering Janet Hopps.

The two misses should be evenly matched. Miss Dimoff is highly rated in Oregon and the Washington Lawn Tennis Assn. ranks Miss Hopps as the Evergreen State's No. 1 woman player.
