

CALLA LILIES AND WHITE SATIN . . . contributed to the pretty picture in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at the Easter Sunday wedding of Margaret Leona Stevens to Richard Carlton Glidden. The couple is shown after the marriage was solemnized in a 3 p.m. service read by the Rev. Galen H. Onstad.

In the other picture the bride is with her mother, Mrs. Bernice Stevens, left; and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Willis A. Glidden, just before the ceremony. —Photos by Floyd

Glidden-Stevens Vows Exchanged Easter Sunday in St. Paul's Episcopal Church

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the scene of an Easter Sunday wedding April 18. Before a background of calla lilies, Margaret Leona Stevens and Richard Carlton Glidden exchanged vows in a 3 p.m. ceremony, the Rev. Galen H. Onstad, officiant.

Bride is the daughter of Mrs. Bernice Stevens, 301 High Street; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Glidden, 4505 Denver Avenue.

James Stevens, bride's brother, gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Robert O'Sullivan was organist; and St. Paul's choir sang before and after the service. David Dryden was candlelighter. The bride wore a traditional white satin and lace gown styled with a semi-fitted bodice, high round-necked lace yoke and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of pleated illusion net edged with lace was held by a dainty wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book topped with an arrangement of pink rosebuds and hyacinth flowers tied with narrow white satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dale S. Worley, who wore an aqua tulle dress with a full waist-length skirt; and her headband was of shattered pink carnations. Best man was bridegroom's brother, Willis H. Glidden; and ushers were David Gerald King and Dale S. Worley.

The reception was in the St. Paul's parish hall, Mrs. J. H.

Strand and Mary Stewart poured; Mrs. Willis J. Glidden was at the punch bowl; and Mrs. Jerry King cut the cake. Mrs. Willis H. Glidden and Mrs. Ralph Swindler assisted. June Byers, Newberg, friend of the bride since childhood, registered the guests.

The bride was graduated from OTI last June as a laboratory technician; and was employed at Hillside Hospital prior to her marriage. Glidden is a graduate of KUHS class of '49; and attended Oregon State College for one year. He joined the USAF in July 1951.

For travel, the new Mrs. Glidden wore a powder blue gabardine suit with white accessories and a shell-pink hat. After a trip along the California Coast, they are at home in Novato, California. Richard is at present stationed at Hamilton Field.

Out of town relatives included

Birthday Party

MACDOEL—Shirley Dixon was the guest of honor at a party in honor of her 15th birthday anniversary, Sunday, April 11.

Present were Shirley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kaylor, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dixon and Christy; Mrs. Eldon Kaylor, Susan and Carol; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Butler, Joanne and Mary.

Refreshments of cake, ice cream and coffee was served by the hostess.

aunts and uncles of the bride — Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strand, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hollingsworth, Eugene.

Grandfather of the bridegroom, A. V. Cooper, came from Mt. Shasta for the wedding; and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cooper, aunt and uncle, were here from Cottage Grove.

REBEKAHS AT MERRILL

MERRILL — Merrill Rebekah lodge No. 151 met April 19, with Letta Stolt, noble grand presiding. Four candidates, Phyllis Rankin, Wilma and Bob Burleigh, and Charles Cunningham were initiated.

It was announced that the state president would visit the lodge on May 25, and that grand lodge would be held in Grants Pass May 17 to 20. Marjorie Burleigh, Mildred Rexford, Lena Buck will be the delegates.

The district convention will be held in Klamath Falls on May 22, with Merrill lodge helping with the program.

Friday night square dances are still being held, with Jim Bradshaw the caller. The public is invited. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pope, Mrs. Mae Anderson, and Lewis Kandra. The next regular meeting is May 3.

CIC MEETING

FORT KLAMATH—Civic Improvement Club met Friday afternoon April 16 in the clubhouse for the second meeting in April. The president, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, conducted the business session.

May 21 marks the primary election date and also a regular club meeting date, and as the clubhouse is used by voters of this precinct, the meeting date is set for Thursday May 20.

The March financial statement was ready by club treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page, who also reported on the benefit card party given by the club April 10. Mrs. Page and Mrs. Joanna Taylor are general chairmen in charge of all card parties sponsored by the organization.

Also on the fund raising agenda for April, a cooked food sale is scheduled for Saturday morning, April 24, in the clubhouse, from 10:30 till 12:30. During the sale cake and coffee will be served. Members of the committee in charge of the event are Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine and Mrs. Harold Wing.

Planned for May, a "Pig in a Poke" will be featured. Mrs. Richard O. Varnum will prepare a basket containing some useful article, to be passed on to a second club member, who in turn will replace the salable item after depositing purchase price for the first item.

The chain will continue until all club members have participated. On the evenings of May 7 and 8 "Adam's Evening," a three-act farce with a 10 member cast, will be presented in the clubhouse under the direction of Mrs. Frank Strahan. Mrs. Varnum is general chairman, and Mrs. Wilbur B. Hecock in charge of stage and properties. Special entertainment will be offered each evening, featuring vocal selections by all-male groups of singers from Fort Klamath and vicinity.

On Thursday evening, May 13, a much anticipated annual event is scheduled. Mrs. B. B. Blomquist, drama instructor at KUHS, Klamath Falls, will for the third consecutive year present her Little Theater pupils in a varied program. Final plans and arrangements for Mrs. Blomquist's group's visit here will be completed at the next club meeting, May 7.

Saturday evening, May 22, the club will sponsor a car party and box social in the clubhouse for Scout Troop 34; all proceeds to be used to help defray expenses of members attending summer camp this year.

Mrs. Wilbur B. Hecock was named alternate chairman of a forthcoming rummage sale, postponed from last fall and slated for sometime this spring; Mrs. Richard O. Varnum is chairman.

After the business session, the president read a short historical sketch of the club, prepared from records of the organization since its founding on October 29, 1924. Objectives, names of ten surviving charter members of the original group of sixteen; including that of Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, first president of the organization, and still an active member, currently chairman of the program committee; were included in the story.

Following the club history, the president gave her personal interpretation of the meaning of the club, after which a general discussion was held by those present; all agreeing that the organization filled a very important place in the social, religious and youth activity programs of the community.

Program chairman, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley then read an interesting newspaper article, giving a detailed account of a recent oil well fire at Jal, New Mexico, and a vivid description of progress of the huge blaze, methods used to control and finally put out the conflagration. The clipping was sent Mrs. Loosley by her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence (Ethel) Byous, a resident of nearby Eunice, in New Mexico.

Refreshments were served at a table gay with spring and Easter touches. Centering the table was an arrangement of lovely cut spring flowers. Other appointments and favors combining to carry out the chosen theme.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Richard O. Varnum and Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, others present including Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Earl M. Jackson, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. Wilbur B. Hecock, and a Klamath Agency member, Mrs. Harold Wing.

THE TOWN WAS COLORFUL WITH FORMALS . . . worn by local and out-of-town members of Theta Rho here for the convention last weekend. First row, from the left, Martha Beasley, chaplain; Roberta Wade, chairman; Kay Meagher, R. S. chairman; Jean Bookout, vice chairman; and Lilly Winter, past chairman.

Second row, same order, Polly Chandler, outside guardian; Sharon Davis, secretary; Leila Havird, L. S. co-chairman; Yvonne Testerman, first herald; Shirley Davis, warden; Donna

Dragoo, musician; Carol Poe, treasurer; Micky Garrett, second herald; Connie Reeves, marshal; and Carolyn Ramsey, R. S. co-chairman.

Third row, Elaine Venator, third herald; Janice St. John, inside guardian; Donna Redford, conductor; Kati Lundgren, L. S. chairman; Karla Leithead, fourth herald; and Bernice (Mrs.) McCracken, member of Theta Rho State Board of Control. —Photo by Kettler

THETA RHO CONVENTION . . . was a busy session for local and out-of-town members assembled in Klamath Falls last weekend. Above, from the left, Bernice McCracken, member of the Theta Rho State Board of Control of Oregon; Roberta Wade, vice president of Theta Rho Assembly of Oregon; Kay Meagher, president of Theta Rho State Assembly of Oregon; and Martha Beasley, right supporter to the vice president of Theta Rho State Assembly of Oregon. —Photo by Kettler

Friends Visit At Eastertime

Out of town houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis, Easter weekend, were entertained with a buffet supper Saturday evening, and a group of local people were invited to meet the visitors.

Here for the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Durward Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harvey, Sutherlin; Bob Bingham and Lloyd Plaisted, Eugene; Elaine Clark and Sally Woodhouse, Ashland; Bob Scott, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Beckley, Mrs. Frances Alderdice, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Ridenour and Ken and Linda Ellis.

The visitors returned to their homes Sunday evening after a tour of Tululake area and the new Lake O'be Woods road.

Palm Sunday OOA Breakfast

The annual Palm Sunday breakfast sponsored by Friendship Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, was held at Jen-Ed's Sunday morning, April 11. Short talks and group singing were enjoyed by the large number of members present, following the bountiful breakfast.

THETA RHO CONVENTION

The annual Theta Rho District Convention was held here on Saturday, April 17, with about 75 girls from Merrill, Lakeview and Klamath Falls attending.

A business meeting held in the afternoon from 1 - 5 p.m. was followed by a dinner. For the evening's entertainment a dance was held at the American Legion Hall.

The next annual convention will be held some time next spring at Lakeview.

"Remember Mothers Day - May 9th"

OUR GREAT Vernonware SPECIAL PRICE EVENT

APRIL 26 through MAY 8

16-pc. Vernonware Starter Sets (SERVICE FOR FOUR)

REGULAR $10.95 Special... $8.95

Klamath's Own

YOUR STORE

"For Distinctive Gifts"

Phone 4561 YOUR STORE
FREE DELIVERY
in the city limits
Send us your mail orders
Plus Shipping Costs

721 Main
Phone 4561

SAVE 10% on SHADE TREES

When trees come into a nursery they are planted temporarily until the leaves appear. Then they must be planted permanently, for summer. This is a very expensive operation and costs about 10% of the value of the trees. We will gladly pass to you a saving of 10% on all shade and fruit trees, and some evergreens.

MALIN NURSERY

Homedale and Harlan

Klamath Falls

not already planted permanently when you arrive at the nursery.

We can't urge you too strongly to come down now! Come at once and make a large saving, on large (10 to 20 ft.) shade trees.

Telephone 5502.

Music by Anita and Lou

Now! AT THE WILLAMETTE

For the Best in DINING, DANCING, ENTERTAINMENT