

Lightweights In Main Event

Tonight's boxing card has the prospects of being the finest that has ever been presented to the Basin boxing fans, with 34 rounds of boxing featuring Ralph Weiser and Little Papa Brown in the main event.

The Weiser-Brown battle could be classified as the Oregon State Lightweight championship. Both fighters are highly regarded around the state ring circles and the winner will be placed high on the state lightweight list.

Little Papa, who is handled by Bob Wark of Seattle, goes into the Armory ring tonight with a very outstanding record and quite a few wins over some outstanding fighters.

Blackie Vanderveer found Little Papa tough as they come and was beaten by the Seattle lightweight once and the fight was called a draw three times.

In recent weeks Brown has been posting win after win, which all points to tonight's yard being an action filled free swing affair.

Weiser, the Beatty Bomber, is not one to take too lightly. The little puncher has two fists loaded with plenty of power and can hit well with either hand.

It takes quite a bit of punishment to settle Weiser down for an evening, and with that potentiality he is dangerous all the time.

Weiser's record is nothing to be frowned upon, as he has fought some of the Northwest's top lightweights and has done very well.

The semi-windup will give the fans just what they want, action when Derrell Harrington and Rudy Carlson meet in a six rounder.

In the two previous meetings that these two have staged, Carlson holds the edge. In the first encounter, Carlson posted a fifth round knockout over Harrington, and the second meeting saw Harrington come off the floor to collect a draw with Carlson.

George Bray and Ted Hall meet in another six round battle that is expected to give the Armory galleries something to talk about.

Bray, the Bonanza battler, made quite a hit in his last appearance against Vito of San Francisco, in gaining a draw with the highly regarded Bay Area fighter.

Hall, on the other hand, will prove to be a test for Bray, who is making his second six round start of his young career.

The Seattle fighter, also handled by Wark, holds decisions over several top fighters. Two of them include Tony Alvarez.

In one of three four rounders, Beatty's Bob Barney meets the third Seattle fighter on the program when Al Cobb answers the first bell.

Barney and Cobb both have good records in their previous matches and should put on a good battle.

Included in Cobb's honors is a radio award for the outstanding fighter on a recent Portland boxing card.

Another four rounder will feature two Chiloquin pugilists in what could very well be classified as the city lightweight championship.

Duane McDaniel and Plum Wright will trade punches in what should give the ringside fans plenty of action before the card is too far along.

Promoter Mack Lillard is trying to lineup another four rounder to add to the program of top notch boxing that will fill the Armory tonight.

Pelicans Dump Cavemen Twice

Klamath Union High School's Pelican baseball team climbed back into contention for the district title yesterday by taking both ends of the afternoon doubleheader from the Grants Pass Cavemen, 5-4 and 2-3.

The Pelis, who were almost out of the district race until they posted the double win over league leading Grants Pass, started off shaky, but finished the afternoon's action very strong.

Grants Pass opened the first game with two runs on three Klamath errors and an infield put out, and countered again in the fifth with one run.

Klamath put together an error, a stolen base and a single by Bill Hamblin to score their first run in the second inning. In the fifth, the Pelis scored twice to tie up the ball game on two base balls and a two run single by Dave Leeling and a two run single by

In the Klamath half of the seventh inning, Don Dexter came to bat with one away and parked one of Cavemen's Brad Lucas' pitches into the canal, in straight-away centerfield for a home run that broke up the first contest.

Both teams scored one run apiece in the sixth setting the stage for Dexter's game winning blow.

Ron Conner led the Pelis with one for two and Cavemen, Don James and Mel Drew collected 2 for four and two for three respectively.

Dave D'Olivo and Lucas were locked in a tight pitchers duel until Dexter uncorked with his long blow.

In the second game, which was free swing and free hitting, the Pelicans exploded for nine runs in the first two innings, with 12 men going to bat for the home team in the second inning.

Garry Williams' home run with two men on base was the big blow for the second inning rally for the Pelis.

Klamath added one in the third, two in the fourth and then scored four times in the fifth and the last frame saw six Pelican runs cross the plate.

In the four run uprising in the fifth inning, Modesto Jiminez singled home Dexter, who was on when interference was charged against the Grants Pass catcher, starting the barrage.

Jiminez' blow sent Larry Yarnell to third base, and Bill Hamblin promptly blasted one of Dave Johnson's pitches for a home run.

In the sixth inning Don Taucher was safe on an error and Dexter followed with a double. Yarnell came to bat and collected his fourth hit of the game in as many trips, by banging out a long triple over the left fielder's head. Jiminez and Hamblin added singles, and Bob Kelley was hit by a pitched ball and Williams countered with a two run single.

Klamath hitters were led by Yarnell who had four hits in four trips, Jiminez with three for three and Williams with three hits in five trips at bat.

There were several outstanding fielding plays turned in by both teams during both games. Yarnell and Taucher turned in three nice outfield catches between them and Butch Kimpston, Pel reserve infielder robbed a Caveman of a sure base hit late in the second game.

The double win sent Klamath into second place one game behind Grants Pass. The Cavemen have a 4-2 league slate and the Pelis have won 3 while losing three. Medford is third with a 1-3.

Next Tuesday the Pelicans travel to Ashland to meet the Grizzlies ball club in a non-league game. Box scores:

The Beavers went wild in the sixth inning, scoring 10 runs on four singles, four doubles and three Washington errors.

Stars On Way To PCL Top

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Watch out for Hollywood!

The Pacific Coast League champions of 1953 and 1954 are on their way up off the floor after taking a bad pasting for the first two weeks of the season. They're only four games back of league-leading Oakland and Friday night made it three out of four from Los Angeles.

Hollywood is winning the close ones now. It was 1-0 over the Angels and Red Munger and Andy Hansen combined to scatter the four hits they gave Los Angeles. Munger suffered a badly sprained ankle in the fifth running out a topped hit. Fell on his face and was knocked out as the Angels trimmed the tap into a double play. Hansen came out and gave only one hit the rest of the way.

Fletcher Robbe's double in the ninth drove in catcher Jim Gladd with the winning run as Portland trimmed Sacramento, 4-3. The Solons outlast Portland, however, 8-6, including Tom Glaviano's homer in the sixth. But Walt Judnich's homer for Portland in the same inning tied it and set the stage for Robbe's winning scloop. Bob Alexander was the winning pitcher; Al Cicotte, the loser.

Ted Beard homered for San Francisco in the ninth but it wasn't enough and Oakland beat the Seals, 3-2. Ken Holcombe went the distance for San Francisco, allowing only five hits, while Chuck Beamon retired as Oakland's starter in favor of Bob Murray. The defeat mired the Seals deeper in the cellar. They have won only four games in 18 starts and need pitching help most of all.

Bill Thomson limited Seattle to one hit, a single in the first inning by George Schmees that scored a run, as San Diego beat the Rainiers, 5-1. After that Thomson held the Rainiers' offense. He allowed only four men on base. He had two out when he walked Leo Thomas, wild pitched him to second, and then was touched for the hit.

Orioles Get Last Laugh

Black Decisions Joey Kleim

NEW YORK (AP) - The Army holds the key to the future of welterweight Jed Black, a pug-nosed college grad from Michigan State.

Black graduated Dec. 16 and most of his class already has been called to ROTC duty. He still is waiting word.

New York saw Black for the first time Friday night as he won on a split decision over Joey Kleim, a hometown boy, in the 10-round televised feature at St. Nicholas Arena before an estimated 2,000 paying $3.50.

Referee Harry Kessler scored it 7-2-1 and Judge Harold Barnes 6-2-2, both for Black. Judge Charley Shortell came up with a surprising 5-4-1 ballot for Kleim. The AP had it 6-4 for Black.

Black can't be called to duty as a lieutenant in the reserves. Manager Heck Knowles has a May 17 date for him in Detroit. Vince Martinez, Carmine Fiore or Danny Giovanelli are possible opponents.

There is no Kid Gavilan talk in the camp of this young welter who is a stablemate of Chuck Davey's. After what happened to Davey, they want to be sure next time.

Black, 23, has a brilliant 27-1-1 record with an unbeaten streak of 26 fights. In that string he was held to a draw by Chico Vejar at Chicago Feb. 10 in his only other network TV appearance.

Drake Relays Windup

DES MOINES (AP) - Blazing duels were the prospect Saturday in the windup of the Drake relays.

Virtually every event was loaded with the talent to produce exciting finishes, the real thrill for the track fans.

Major attention, of course, was focused on Wes Santee, the Kansas speedster was down for appearances in the distance medley relay and the two mile relay.

Given the proper weather conditions, Wes and his mates were considered a certainty to wipe out the Drake mark of 10:01.8 Santee helped Kansas establish in 1952.

Santee, uncorking an unofficial 1:49.1 anchor half mile, Friday overcame a 22-yard Illinois lead to shoot Kansas to another remarkable sprint medley performance.

The Jayhawks clock was 3:21.4, the second time this month they have been under the American collegiate record of 3:22.7 they did 3:20.2 in the Texas Relays.

Santee came back later to anchor the Drake team to an easy 17:23.4 triumph in the four-mile relay as Wes eased through a 4:24 mile.

Gene Matthews of Purdue narrowly missed the Drake mark of 9:10.0 in the two mile run, winning the event by 100 yards in 9:10.7.

In other individual events, Neville Price of Oklahoma won the broad jump at 23 feet, 11 inches; Lee Voeber of Louisiana State took the 440-yard hurdles in :53.6, and Roy Pella of Michigan led the discus throwers with a toss of 164 feet 9 3/4 inches.

Russ Bonham came up with a 4:06.8 anchor mile to carry Whitler (Calif.) to first place in the college distance medley at 10:17.8.
