Marine Court Gives Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Marine Corps announced Tuesday no disciplinary action will be taken against Col. Frank H. Schwable for his germ warfare confession in Korea.

But the Court of Inquiry which delved into the case found that Schwable's usefulness to the Marine Corps has been "seriously impaired."

This left his future under a cloud. The court's finding against disciplinary action was approved by Gen. Lemuel Shepherd, Marine Corps commandant, Secretary of the Navy and Secretary of Defense.

In a statement accompanying the findings of the court, Shepherd said Schwable's forced confession, despite its falsity, "constituted a severe blow" to national interests and that the colonel's future assignment would have to be restricted to duties making "minimum demands for their successful performance upon the elements of unblemished personal example and leadership."

The Court of Inquiry had been set up to determine whether Schwable's confession, wrung from him while a captive of the Reds, justified a court-martial trial or other discipline.
