

San Diego Posts Win Over Beavers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Seattle Rainiers and Portland Beavers traded Pacific Coast League opponents Tuesday night and both Northern teams dropped the series opener.

San Diego, which edged the Rainiers 4-3 in a wild and woolly series at Seattle last week, visited Portland, while Sacramento opened a weeklong stay in the Queen City. And Sacramento was in a hitting mood as it drove three Seattle pitchers from the mound and beat the Rainiers, 6-2. The Sacs' little shortstop, Richie Myers, did the most damage with a resounding double in the third inning that chased across three runs off starter Vern Kindersfater. Chesty Cret Johnson, the Pacific Coast touched for 11 hits by Seattle but wasn't scored on until the eighth inning.

Eddie Erault, San Diego's ace pitcher, held Portland to five hits as the Padres downed the Ports, 5-1. Erault fanned five and was in control all the way, whereas Red Adams, who got as far as the seventh, gave up all San Diego's runs. Earl Rapp hit a homer in the Padre cause.

Los Angeles got six hits off the No. 1 Oakland pitcher, but cagey Al Gettel stopped them with one run and best them, 5-1. That one run was driven in when Gettel laid one down the middle to Bobby Spicer, the Los Angeles pitcher, and he swung when he was supposed to be taking.

Hollywood and San Francisco were rained out.
