Pro Football Video Plans Worry Colleges

BY GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—If your favorite college athletic director appears to be walking around today with a case of the nervous jerks, as though he suspected he was being followed, there is a reason. The National Football League has just announced its television plans for the coming fall.

It is no secret that college football authorities, including the big-time coaches, have been worrying themselves into a decline for several years that the money boys would yield to avarice and move in on the rich Saturday dates which they, the rah-rah forces, have always felt were theirs exclusively by right of inheritance. REPEATEDLY they have tried repeatedly to gain some assurance from the pros that they would at least limit their TV activities to Sunday games, even if they decided to play some of their contests on Saturday. The collegians got nowhere because the pros said they wanted no part of any agreement which might look even vaguely like a conspiracy to some government agency, and they also will be expected to be little further doubt that the fears of the athletic directors were justified. If the professional league hasn't moved in on them completely it has at least shoved a large foot in the door and hollered boo.

As of next autumn, the pros plan to play nine of their games on "Saturday night," and to televise some of the games. The television coverage will depend upon how attractive the sponsor considers each game to be and how much he wishes to spend in exploiting his wares. Presumably, some of them will blanket the land.

TELEVISION In addition, two league games will be played on Saturday afternoons, Dec. 4 and Dec. 11, and they also will be televised. Most college schedules will have been completed by that time, but it happens that Notre Dame and SMU are waiting until Dec. 4 to have it out in Dallas, and that they will be seen over the regular weekly college hookup.

If there isn't a conflict there, it will be close. The pro game will be between Baltimore and Los Angeles, at Los Angeles. As there is a two-hour time differential between Dallas and the Coast city, the college tussle presumably will start at least that long before the salaried number. To be safe, one had better start a little early or the other late.

Obviously, the professionals have tried to avoid, for the time being, at least, a direct challenge at the schools, but they have supplied a very clear picture of what they can do if and when the owners feel the time is ripe. As one pro official has said, there's no use making the colleges any madder than necessary, since they do produce the players and it is smart to get along with them as long as possible.

Ralph Dupas Whips Brady

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Dancing master Ralph Dupas, 18-year-old New Orleans high school student, glanced up the lightweight ladder for higher recognition Thursday after spending a convincing decision over rough Dennis Pat Brady.

The fleet Dupas, rated No. 5 in the lightweight division and an accomplished artist at hit and run tactics, sped to a unanimous 10-round decision over the rugged New Yorker in a nationally-televised fight Wednesday night. Dupas weighed 127, Brady 128.

Dupas departed from his usual touch and go attack in the early rounds and continually beat the befuddled Brady to the punch. The French Quarter flash, making his third appearance over the 10-round route, opened a gash over Brady's eye in the first round and the cocky Irishman's eye bled through out the fight.

The Chesapeake Stakes, now run at Laurel, formerly was held at Havre de Grace.

THE KLAMATH BASIN ROUNDUP ASSOCIATION is requesting bids for grounds concessions.

Bids must be submitted to P. O. Box 364 not later than May 14. Concession fee is 50% upon acceptance of contract and 50% on July 1. The Roundup Association reserves the right to reject any bid.

Pels, Cavemen In Track Meet

Derby Winner To Be New

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Down here in this horse loving country, where arguments on the outcome of the 80th Kentucky Derby often wage hot and heavy, they are betting there will be new faces in the winner's circle after the 29 or so 3-year-olds complete the mile and one-quarter journey late Saturday afternoon.

Not in many years has America's premier horse race been so jammed with owners, trainers and jockeys who never have felt the thrill of walking into Churchill Downs' flower-bordered circle to receive the huge gold cup and see their victorious horse bedecked with a stole of roses.

The sprawling circuit, which embraces communities in Washington, Oregon and Idaho south of the border and British Columbia, and Alberta in Canada, opens its 14th year with an old hand back as president, one new owner and many familiar faces in strange uniforms.

Robert (Bob) Abel, Tacoma attorney who stepped down as president last year, picked up the reins again in 1954.

In another change during the winter months, Frederick Mercer Jr., Yakima businessman, sold his Yakima franchise to a group of fans headed by Orin (Babe) Hurlingbery, former Washington State College football coach.

The Bears football of two former Pacific Coast League stars as field manager and general manager. Lou Bringer will handle affairs on the field and Dick (Kewpie) Barrett, who two years ago managed Victoria's WIL team, will hold down the front office.

Other changes find Bill Brenner, pitcher-manager at Lewiston last year in the same capacity at Vancouver; first baseman Don Pries replacing Cec Garriott as manager at Victoria; Larry Barton, also a first-batter, succeeding Brenner at Lewiston; Eddie Taylor, former Seattle Rainiers coach, as general manager at Tri-City, and George (High Pockets) Kelly, old New York Giants first baseman and longtime coach at Oakland in the PCL, as pilot at Wenatchee.

Thursday night's opener will find Calgary at Tri-City (with Abel in the stands); Edmonton at Salem, Wenatchee at Lewiston, Yakima at Spokane and Victoria at Vancouver.

184 Golfers In Frisco Open
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A field of 184 golfers, pro and amateur, tees off Friday in the $10,000 San Francisco Open-Invitational.

Art Wall Jr., winner of last week's Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas, Nev., heads the stars who include Cary Middlecoff, Ted Krohl, Doug Ford, Porky Oliver, Gene Littler, Dutch Harrison, Bob Toski, Al Besselink, Fred Wampler and Walt Burkemo.

JACK SUNITSCH AND JIM KING were caught talking over plans for tomorrow's track meet with the Grants Pass Cavemen, on the Modoc Field cinder paths. Sunitsch will probably be entered in both hurdle events, and King will get the nod to throw the javelin for the Pelican track squad. The meet is slated to get underway at 1:30.

Grants Pass travels to Klamath Falls tomorrow to meet the Pelicans in a duel meet on the Modoc Field track starting at 1:30.

Coach Len Surles' track and field team is fresh from a win over the strong Ashland Grizzlies last Saturday, and have been pointing to an even tougher meet this week.

Grants Pass will field a team that should be strong, with 14 lettermen back from last year's squad.

Don Korns and Skip Alexander will lead the Cavemen in the sprints, while football star Bob Woods will give the Pels plenty of competition in the hurdles. These three will also be entered in the broadjump.

Klamath's team is fairly well balanced in all but two events, and those have been showing better as the season progresses. The pole vault and javelin were deep holes in the Pel lineup at the first of the year, but Surles and his assistant, Bob Hendershott have worked out a few of the problems with these two field events.

Preacher Roe, Dodger southpaw pitcher, admits to 38 years. Record books have Preach as only 36.

Grover Cleveland Alexander never pitched a no-hitter but in 1915 he hurled four one-hitters.

The home team's lineup will probably be about the same as last week's when the Pels turned in a 65-57 victory over the Grizzlies, and would break down into the following:

Broadjump — Jim Dougherty, Dave Pepple and Chuck Guptill.
Shot Put — Dougherty and Marlin Causey and Ben Lawver.
High Jump — Orin Perkins, Jim McGee and Guy Munsell.
Pole Vault — Gerry Hamilton and Larry Dearing.
Javelin — Roy Ropp, Bob Bagette and Jim King.
High Hurdles — Dougherty and

Jack Sunitsch and George Arnold.
Discus — Bill Badorek and Pedro Colley and Lawver.
100 yard dash — Jim Bevans and Pepple.
220 yard dash — Pepple and Mills and Tom Ferrell.
Low Hurdles — Scott Hancock, Sunitsch and Arnold.
500 yard dash — Barry Pitts and Warren Cody.
440 yard dash — Ferrell and Bevans and Mills.
880 yard dash — Don Wells, McGee and Larry Heaton.
Half Mile Relay — Dougherty, Pepple, Bevans and Mills.

Get Name, Sponsor

Klamath Falls will field about the same team that entered the Oregon-California Semi-Pro Baseball League, but under a different sponsor and name.

Last year's team was called the Merchants and was sponsored by a few of the local business men. This year Loren Palmerton, of Eldorado Lumber Company will take over the sponsorship of the league entry, and it will be called the Lumberjacks.

Manager Hi Hatfield has been sending his club through practices twice a week, on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 5:30.

Hatfield stated that anyone who would like to try out for the team is invited to drop out to Recreation Field on these evenings and work out with the club.

He pointed out that this year's squad is weak at short stop and would like to have more infielders turn out in next week's practices.

The opening league game for the Klamath entry will be May 23, against the Lakeview Gems, last years league champions.
