Frozen Cream Tasty Dessert

For a delicious golden frozen dessert that's both creamy and tart, the test kitchens of Deepfreeze Home Appliances has come forward with this:
Dissolve 1 envelope plain gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Scald 1 cup milk. Add 2 or 3 drops of yellow food coloring. Beat 2 egg yolks 3 minutes until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually add 1/2 cup sugar. Combine egg mixture slowly with hot milk over low heat. When mixture coats spoon, remove from heat. Add softened gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Cool slightly.
Add 1/2 cup orange juice and 1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice. Chill in freezer compartment of refrigerator. When mixture starts to congeal, add 2 cups stiffly beaten cream, whipped with electric mixer 5 minutes at high speed.

YOUR NEW FLOWER HAT this spring may be complemented by a floral perfume. Houbigant offers a delightful one in Quelques Violettes, a masterful replica of fresh violets laden with dew. It is available in a convenient purse-size flacon that was inspired by grandfather's watch and is encased in a sleek purple moire pouch. The hat pictured, by Sally Victory, is a cluster of violets, pale pink roses and lilacs on a green trellis with a hand painted butterfly perched atop.

Ten Fashion Rules

"Hemlines may go up or down, but beautiful fashions go on forever! No matter what a woman's age, or what age she lives in, her comeliness is unassailable in well-cut, becoming fashions." These are the words of the popular designer, Stephanie Koret of California.

"When it comes to color, begin with white, because that's where the newest Spring colors begin," continued Mrs. Koret. "Colors and fabrics are the news for Spring—lovely hues that burst into bloom with all the freshness and beauty of Spring flowers, gorgeous fabrics with the look and feel of linen."

She mentions these 10 rules for always being well dressed and well groomed:

1. Keep it simple. Simplicity is always in good taste.
2. Don't overdress. Understatement is the best policy.
3. Don't overdo accessories. Keep them simple, again in good taste.
4. Keep your hat simple and smart. Only the plainest costume can take an extreme hat.
5. Your gloves should be plain.

6. Wear comfortable, good shoes, suitable for the occasion, but never too fancy.
7. Jewelry should simply accent your costume — never too much, even for special occasions.
8. Learn correct timing in dress. Save your glamour clothes for after five wear.
9. For usual evening occasions, short dresses are most becoming and practical, except for formal dinners and dances.
10. Keep your hair shining, nails well groomed and neat.

LINEN LIKE WHITE NYLON makes this Summer 1954 Judy'n Jill Junior dress with shirt-front pleated bodice, from Horwitz and Duberman's collection. For pretty skirt fullness, many narrow unpressed pleats are stitched down just below the waist. Other popular colors are red, mint and pink.
