Former KF Resident Dies

Word was received here Wednesday of the death in Medford, April 27, of a former, longtime resident of Klamath Falls, Emil Schiesel, 78.

He lived in Klamath County for 21 years, operating ranch and dairy holdings before moving to the Valley View district near Ashland and later to Medford where he spent 15 years.

He was born March 17, 1876 in Schlushsee, Germany and came to this country as a young man. He was married April 1, 1933, in Ashland to Minnie Fuhrer who survives him.

Also surviving are his children by a former marriage; four daughters, Mrs. Gerold Whitlatch, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Arthur Perry, Dillard, Oregon, Mrs. Ina Di Rae, Pasco, Washington and Mrs. George Hagelstein, Klamath Falls; three sons, Leopold, Ashland, Emil Jr. Klamath Falls and Albert Schiesel, San Ysidro, California; also 10 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Recitation of the Rosary at the Conger-Morris Funeral Chapel Medford, 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 30. A requiem mass will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday May 1, at Sacred Heart Church, Medford.

Final rites and interment in Siskiyou Memorial Park, Ashland.

PHILATELISTS may have first flight covers bearing this stamp on the lower left hand corner by sending stamped, addressed covers to the San Francisco Postmaster with instructions to hold cachet to be mailed on the United Air Lines DC-7 inaugural flight June 1.

Boy's Life Saved By Quick Action

BALTIMORE (AP) — Thomas Williams, 12, was playing around the work yard of the American Paving Co. yesterday when he either jumped or fell into a huge sand bin beside a railroad siding and was completely buried.

A companion saw him disappear and ran for help. Two company workmen rushed to the bin and started digging furiously. They were soon joined by a fire department engine company and a rescue squad.

After the boy's head was uncovered, firemen supplied the unconscious youth with two bottles of oxygen. He was treated for suffocation and shock at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Church Woman's Society Holds April Meeting

The April meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, held April 20, combined business and an interesting and instructive program, followed by a social hour.

Prior to the call to worship, Mrs. Fred Cofer played several piano selections. Mrs. Lorena Ward led devotions, reading from Psalm 103.

Mrs. Joe Bramhall, president, introduced guests, among them Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, who announced a May fellowship meeting for April 7 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Items of business included reading the report of the nominating committee, announcement of the Smorgasbord dinner April 29, to which the public is invited, and of the annual church fellowship dinner and meeting May 2.

Mrs. Clifford Wood, guest speaker and program chairman, was presented by Mrs. John Yadon. Mrs. Wood substituted as chairman for Mrs. Everett Dennis, who was unable to be present. The program subject was "Who are the Guilty?" Mrs. Wood attempted to show that basic changes are needed in the construction of prisons, the confining and handling of prisoners.

In her talk, she stressed the need for religious influence, psychiatric treatment, improved living conditions, getting away from regimentation, firm but not harsh discipline, education for skill in some trade, probation rather than a prison term for lesser crimes and a plan for parole.

Mrs. Wood urged church women to become interested in promoting and working for constructive changes in juvenile institutions of correction and in prisons. She is well qualified to speak on the subject, having worked with the Juvenile Behavior Clinic in Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Paul Campbell gave supplementary talks. Mrs. John Mistler and Mrs. Alice Prescott spoke briefly on prison conditions at Leavenworth, Kansas, and at the Nashville State Reformatory in Tennessee.

Tea was served by members of Mary Circle. Mr. Joe Bramhall and Mrs. J. L. Dean poured.
