Jail Breaker Released

Richard Roy Logan, 23, on trial for jail breaking, was ordered released Wednesday afternoon by District Judge D. E. Van Vactor when the prosecution failed to prove he ever was legally arrested.

Judge Van Vactor explained that, under the law, it must first be shown that a defendant was lawfully arrested before he can be prosecuted for jail breaking.

Logan and Kenneth (Dusty) Wells, 25, sawed their way out of the city jail on February 5. Wells is still at large.

The trial terminated when Judge Van Vactor sustained a motion for dismissal by Defense Counsel George Proctor. Proctor contended the state had failed to prove Logan was legally incarcerated in the city jail.

Leo J. Matson, ex-policeman, who was supposed to have arrested Logan, denied on the witness stand that he made the arrest. No other officer appeared to testify about the arrest.
