

MR. AND MRS. OAK H. ELDER . . . married in Healdsburg, California, April 1, in the Church of Christ. Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Waldrip. Waldrip was with the Reclamation Service for 20 years in Klamath County. They also lived at Tulelake before moving to Healdsburg.

FORMER RESIDENT MARRIED IN HEALDSBURG CEREMONY

Friends here will be interested in the recent marriage of Marie Waldrip, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Waldrip, to Oak H. Elder on April 18 in Healdsburg, California.

The Waldrips were former residents of Klamath Falls where he was employed for 20 years with the Reclamation Service. Later the family lived at Tulelake, Marie's birthplace.

The Rev. Walter Minkler officiated at the ceremony in the Church of Christ, Healdsburg.

For her wedding, Marie wore a white ballet length gown of satin and nylon tulle with Chantilly lace insets and mitts. A fingertip length veil was caught to a white nylon cap set with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and orange blossoms, a handkerchief her mother carried when she was married 20 years ago, and wore a lapel watch which belonged to her great-grandmother.

Maid of honor was Sharon Wheeler, who wore a pale green dress of nylon tulle over taffeta, a tiara of nylon tulle and pearls. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of white roses and forget-me-nots. Bridesmaid Nany Rosa wore an orchid colored dress of the same style, and Donna Caldwell, also a bridesmaid, wore a pale blue dress. Both girls carried nosegays of pink camellias and forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Waldrip chose a sheath dress, dusty pink and grey, for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were gray and navy blue and she wore a pink camellia corsage.

Best man was Dean Billings. Ushering were James Waldrip, brother of the bride, and Richard LaRue.

White calla lilies, ferns and wild dogwood blossoms decorated the church. Vocalists were Ron and Jean Walters.

The reception was held at the bride's parents' home, at 762 Norden Lane, where Annabelle Cavach, aunt of the bride, served the cake, assisted by Joan Duval, the bride's cousin, both of San Jose, California. Another aunt, Mrs. Mable Wilsey, Angels Camp, California, presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. Garfield Berger, Oakland, poured.

For her honeymoon to San Francisco, the new Mrs. Elder wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. On their return, the couple are at home at 831A Fitch Street, Healdsburg.

REAGAN-MILLER NUPTIALS CELEBRATED AT ZION

Claudia Caroline Miller became Mrs. George William Reagan in an afternoon ceremony at Zion Lutheran Church Sunday, April 25.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Theodore Miller, 2818 Laverne Avenue; her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Reagan, 4408 Arthur Street.

The Rev. Richard Graef officiated at the double ring exchange of vows. Soloist was Mrs. Jean Adams Badorek.

Claudia was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a waist length gown of white lace over satin, with long sleeves pointed at the wrists, a mandarin collar and a lace panel inset in the skirt. A three-quarter length veil of nylon tulle was fastened to a seed pearl tiara.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone pin, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried an heirloom handkerchief borrowed from the late Mrs. Larus Chamberlain, mother of Mrs. C. H. Underwood, and had a silver sixpence in her shoe.

Feminine attendants wore ballerina length dress of white tulle and satin, carried pastel colored parasols and wore matching headbands with white stephanotis and carnations. Maid of honor was Patricia Riley, and accent color was aqua. Bridesmaids, Carlene Meggitt, Portland, and Shirley Tawney, had rose as accent color. The junior bridesmaid, Judith Dockery, niece of the bridegroom, wore a gown of white net over satin, with aqua accessories.

William Reagan acted as best man for his brother, Jack A. Ferguson and William P. Ward ushered.

Large bouquets of white and pink snapdragons before a background of palms decorated the church.

Mrs. Miller wore a navy blue street length dress with navy and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Reagan chose a blue and black street length dress with white and black accessories. Both women wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

Following the nuptials, the young couple received their guests in the church basement. Mrs. Z. W. Dixon poured; Mrs. Emil Schiesel presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. Frank Hiley and Jean Underwood cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Assisting at the reception also were Dorothy Seymour in charge of the guest book, and Linda Ellis, who presided at the gift table.

For her honeymoon trip to Portland and Seattle, the younger Mrs. Reagan chose a light gray suit with navy blue accessories. She pinned the pink roses from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder. On their return, the couple will live here.
