

Farewell Party For Mrs. H. Orem

PORT KLAMATH—Mrs. Harry Orem was the recipient of a delightful afternoon in the U. I. Clubhouse Friday, April 24, when women of the community gathered to honor her with a farewell party and handkerchief shower.

Daughter Ann accompanied her parents to Merrill to their recently acquired Adams' ranch property, while a year old Gary will live here with his grandparents to finish the term at Fort Klamath elementary school.

On a long table, lovely arrangements of spring flowers alternated with clever miniature clothes dryers with small clothespins holding individual handkerchiefs, each with card and donor's name. Other decorations were also placed on the wide panel of green crepe paper which extended down the full length of the center of the white covered table.

After the honor guest had un-pinned the numerous dainty and lovely hankies, a social hour was enjoyed. Game prize for high score went to Mrs. Donald Wimer, Mrs. Dwight Kirchoff, and Mrs. Edna Johnson. A special guest prize went to Mrs. Harold Wing, Klamath Agency.

The event was brought to a close by serving of refreshments by hostesses for the party, who included Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. Elmer Zumbur, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and Mrs. Elmore Nicholson.

Gift handkerchiefs were received from the following — Mrs. Frank Hale, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Dwight Kirchoff, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Chiloquin; Mrs. Harold Wing, Klamath Agency; Mrs. Allen Summers, Stockton, visiting here at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine; Mrs. Van Iderstine, Mrs. Blaine Brattain, Mrs. Ralph Darling, Mrs. William C. Martin, Mrs. Gene A. Page, Mrs. Mildred Castel, Mrs. Clarence Jenkins, Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley.

Ki-num-ka Group Camp Fire Girls

The Ki-num-ka group of Camp Fire Girls held its Five Continents progressive dinner Saturday, April 24. The first course of a Norwegian salad and Swedish coffee cake was served at the home of Mrs. C. J. Schmitz. Decorations included maps of these countries and place cards with pictures representing homes and places of foreign lands.

Second course was served at the home of Mrs. F. H. McNeal, where an Italian spaghetti dinner was served. Decorations consisted of an Italian flag made by Mrs. McNeal, and different products of Italy displayed.

The dessert was served at the home of Mrs. Angelo Gasperini where Hawaiian delight salad and coconuts were served. Table decorations included a centerpiece of dolls from many nations. Jean Gasperini wore a Hawaiian costume made of nylon from a parachute net and Eleanor Snyder wore the traditional hula grass skirt and flowers. All girls gave reports of a magic carpet trip to these foreign lands.

Girls attending were Kathleen McNeal, Frances Monti, Terry Toles, Jean Gasperini, Kathleen Dougherty, Eleanor Snyder, Louise McLaughlin and Elizabeth Mot-schenbacher.

How smooth . . . how soft . . . how youthful-looking your skin remains depends on what you do about retaining its ever diminishing moisture content. Many women over 30 (though you'd hardly guess it) depend on daily Revenescence care. Many under 30 discover Revenescence early enough to help retain this precious ingredient for beauty.
