FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIMER

Fort Klamath people congratulate two of its young girls on their outstanding achievements at the recent 4-H club fair in Klamath Falls; Ed Williams for placing as champion in room improvement, homemaking 3, and also for record book championship award in the room improvement division. Ed is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams, Janet Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, received two high awards and a red ribbon in cookery 2, as well as a record book championship in the same division.

Mrs. Everett Morris was called last week to Ashland by news of the death of a younger brother. Mrs. Morris had been here for some time at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown and Dan Jr., who welcomed a third member of the family, April 13, little Debra Anne; Mrs. Morris took Dan Jr. home with her to Ashland, and Brown's mother, Mrs. Francis D. Brown, Crystal, assisted her son and family; she left Sunday, April 25 for her home at the Brown ranch, Crystal, 12 miles west of Fort Klamath.

Joseph C. McAuliffe and her brother, the Rev. Father William Codd, Seattle, were overnight guests Monday at the McAuliffe home, leaving Tuesday on a trip to Seattle where they will visit other relatives for a few days. Mrs. McAuliffe and her brother had driven up from the McAuliffe ranch at Cottonwood, California, where Father Codd had been a guest for a few days; both the McAuliffe family and Father Codd will return soon, the latter spends his vacation here each year with his sister and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley last week received announcement of the birth of their 11th grandchild, a daughter, born April 16, weight 8 lbs. 7 oz., to Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer, Carlsbad, New Mexico. She is the former Maxine Loosley.

Monday evening, May 3, has been set for the monthly pack meeting of Fort Klamath Scout Troop 34, originally scheduled for Friday May 7. Special entertainment is planned for the pack meeting, to which anyone interested is extended a cordial invitation. Victor Sisson, fire control officer, USIS, Klamath Agency, will show films dealing with the subject of "Keep Oregon Green"; also present will be forestry officials of KPFA, Klamath Falls, as well as rangers of the Crater Lake National Park service, all interested in prevention of forest fires in Klamath County and Crater Lake Park. Refreshments of wieners and buns will be served following the meeting and program, each party to bring sufficient for his group.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Reese returned Wednesday, April 21, to their Fort Creek Motel property south of here, after spending the winter and early spring at their winter home at Bakersfield, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orem and Anne moved Friday, April 21, to their new home at Merrill, the former Adams ranch recently purchased by Ira Orem and son Harry. Harry's parents, in turn, moved here from Klamath Falls. Staying with them is Gary, 6-year old son of the Harry Orem, who will remain with his paternal grandparents until the end of the current term at the Fort Klamath elementary school, where he is a first grade pupil.

Aloha Chapter No. 61 OES

Aloha Chapter No. 61 OES met Tuesday evening April 27, at the Masonic Temple with Rena Oldham, worthy matron and Raymond Owens, worthy patron, presiding. Host and hostesses for the evening were: Jim Hunter, Alma Geiz, Charlotte Martin and Exene Humble.

Mildred Dimbat assisted Maude Wright in arranging spring blossoms about the Chapter room and parlors.

A first time visitor, Sylvia Woods of Hillsboro Chapter 31, Hillsboro, Oregon was introduced and welcomed.

Members and visitors of Aloha were greatly impressed by the initiatory work which was exemplified by the officers and choir members of Bethel No. 6 of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Refreshments were served in the banquet hall from tables decorated with purple and white streamers and miniature music notes, bars and scales. The committee in charge of decorating and refreshments were: Minnie Grizzle (first guardian of Bethel No. 6), Phyllis Poole, Ada Matthews, Inez DeLamater, and Rita and George Boudon.

The next stated meeting, entitled Masonic Night, will be May 11 at the Temple. After a short business meeting, all Masons and their wives will be invited to enter the chapter room as special guests. It will not be necessary for either to be Eastern Star members. Blanche Marks and Blanche Schulze will be in charge of refreshments and the Friendship Girls in charge of entertainment.

FANCY WORK
Knitting or crocheting will go faster with clean needles. Whether they are made of bone, plastic or steel, you can use hot soapsuds often to wash away the marks of sticky or perspired fingers.
