KF Patterson Rally Slated
 "A Patterson for Governor" rally will be held Saturday night, May 8, 7:30 p.m. at the fairgrounds when everyone is invited to hear some good music, an interesting program and two brief talks by State Senator Phil Hitchcock and State Representative Ed Geary. Refreshments will be served.
 Senator Hitchcock and Representative Geary will give their reasons as to why they prefer the incumbent candidate for a return as Oregon's Governor. They will cite his competency in office, following his appointment in a virtual emergency when Governor Douglas McKay accepted the office of secretary of the Eisenhower administration.
 The rally is being sponsored by the Paul Patterson for Governor Committee.

Man Injured By Pipe
 A. F. Blockinger, 1833 Earle, was reported doing nicely at the Klamath Valley Hospital this morning where he was taken following an accident late Sunday evening.
 While working on a TV antenna at his home, a piece of pipe came loose, struck Blockinger in the right leg, inflicting a deep flesh wound. He was rushed to the hospital by Kaler's Ambulance Service where the attending physician stated his condition is not serious.

STAFF SGT. AND MRS. DONALD M. FULLER

KF Girl Named By OSC Group Airman, Wife Visit KF

OREGON STATE COLLEGE. Corvallis, May 3 (Special) — Barbara Custer, Klamath Falls, has been selected as general chairman for the annual Mother's weekend at Oregon State College May 14, 15 and 16.
 This OSC tradition began in 1924 and then was known as "Women's Day." It was not until 1929 that the mothers of male students were invited, and full weekend programs were started in 1933.
 Events for Mother's weekend this year include the inter-fraternity sing, a flower show, luncheon, and tours of the new OSC buildings. Living groups will honor mothers with dinner's Saturday evening.
 Miss Custer, sophomore in science, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Custer, 3428 Shasta Way, Klamath Falls.
 New arrivals from England are Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Donald M. Fuller, guests of the sergeant's father, Donald D. Fuller and Mrs. Fuller, at the Alpha Apartments. They visited also at the home of Mrs. W. P. Myers on Lakeshore Drive.
 The sergeant, overseas for the past three years, serving with the U.S. Air Force, brought back an attractive red-haired bride of a month, from Mansfield, Nottingham, England.
 Mrs. Fuller served in the Women's Royal Air Force in the communications department. The young couple met at a dance at the Sculthorpe Air Base and romance immediately entered the life of the sergeant.
 Mrs. Fuller lived in the area that was heavily bombed during World War II but her home escaped injury.
 She went to London to see the Queen the day after the coronation ceremonies and saw the young monarch.
 Mrs. Fuller was amazed at the size of America as she crossed it by automobile from the eastern coast.
 Fuller, whose home is at Dayton, Ohio, will be stationed at Travis Air Force Base, California.

Bly Grange Sponsors Dance
 Bly Grange is sponsoring a dance V.E. night, Saturday, May 8 at Bly School gymnasium. Music will be furnished by Lorella's Three notes.
 Proceeds from this dance and supper will go toward helping fulfill Bly Grange's pledge to the permanent memorial shaft fund. This shaft is now being constructed on the courtyard at Klamath Falls.
 The names of the three Bly servicemen which will appear on the completed shaft are: John Thomas Waits, USN; Jack Patzke, AAF, and Lawrence L. Griffen, Army Artillery. Waits, Patzke-Griffen American Legion Post 13, Bly, was named to honor the memory of these boys.

ACCIDENT
 PENDLETON — Charles E. Wortman, 66, a pedestrian, died Saturday night after being struck by an automobile as he crossed a downtown Pendleton intersection.
 The driver of the car was not held.

KF Students To Be Chairmen

OREGON STATE COLLEGE. Corvallis, May 3 — Two students from the Klamath Falls area have been selected as chairmen for the annual Ag weekend May 7 and 8, at Oregon State College.
 Betty Brandejky, sophomore in agriculture from Klamath Falls, is dance chairman and William Wu, senior in agriculture from Bonanza, is hostess selection chairman.
 Ag weekend is sponsored by the school of agriculture and the program includes a steak fry, dance, rodeo, and fitting and showing of livestock.
 Miss Brandejky is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brandejky of Klamath Falls, and Wu is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wu, Bonanza.

J. K. will be in town May 9th.
