

Humphrey Bogart Reports On Latest Stay In Italy

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (U)—The following is a condensation of the official testimony given under oath and three scotch and waters by Humphrey Bogart in his usual booth at Romanoff's:

Thomas — You have just returned from making "The Barefoot Contessa" in Italy. Is that correct?

Bogart — It is.

Thomas — Recently and during your absence, certain reports have been made about your conduct and statements. I would like to place in evidence this clipping from a TV column: "To Humphrey Bogart's comment that he will go into TV only when he feels he's slipped. Joan Crawford, acidly retorts: 'That's the most stupid remark since Ariene Dahl said nobody over 25 would be in pictures now that we have widescreen. . . . By the way, whatever happened to her? . . . There's a lot of actors in TV who haven't slipped.'"

Bogart — That's a clear-cut case of taking remarks out of context. I stand on my statement, which was that I am a motion picture actor. Movies occupy all my efforts, and I have no time for regular TV shows, plays, etc. I'll consider them at a time when I'm unable to keep regularly employed in movies. Might I add this point of order: that if all Miss Crawford's statements during her years in Hollywood—and they are many—were laid end to end, they would reveal the most vivid imagination since Baron Munchausen.

Thomas — I have here a printed report that you existed on scotch and soup during your stay in Italy. Is that correct?

Bogart — Absolutely correct. I don't eat spaghetti, you see. So I got by on scotch and soup. After all, their minestrone has everything in it.

Thomas — I offer as evidence the report by the Italian beauty Silvina Pampani that actors like Bogart, Clark Gable, Gary Cooper, Spencer Tracy and others are too old to make love on the screen. Do you have any rebuttal?

Bogart — Indeed I do. In fact, I offered it to Miss Pampani in person. I arranged to have lunch with her and called her on it. I brought out a picture of my wife, Miss Lauren Bacall, and my two young children. I told her through her interpreter, "This is an example of my work." She laughed and took back what she said about me.

Thomas — Were you or were you not connected romantically in the Italian press with Miss Pampani?

Bogart — I was — by some Communist sheet. They said I was having daily cocktails with her, since I had been unable to land Ava. And that Miss Bacall was hurrying to Italy because of this. I threatened to sue unless they retracted. They retracted gladly.

Man Loses Clothes In Freak Mishap

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (U)—William Thomas' clothes caught in the machinery of a diesel engine yesterday and everything was pulled off except his shoes and socks.

The worst Thomas, a railroad maintenance man, suffered was a broken arm.

He was servicing the locomotive when his rain coat was caught by the spinning shaft of a radiator fan motor.

Jockey Eddie Arcaro has ridden in every Kentucky Derby since 1944.

SHILO J. SMITH (left) wound up 53 years of service with the Southern Pacific on April 29 when he brought the east-bound Shasta Daylight into Dunsmuir. He's shown here receiving the congratulations of J. A. McKenna, division superintendent, and J. C. Slade, assistant superintendent. Fireman on the final run was Smith's son, Francis.

SACRED HEART NOTEBOOK

By Beatrice Walsh

The 12th annual series of piano auditions sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers is now in progress. Mrs. Mary Wilson Anderson of Portland will adjudicate. A selected list of 55 piano students will play in the three-day program. Trojans defeated the Malin Mustangs Friday, 9 to 5. They played the Tulelake team today. Bly Bobcats will tangle with the SHA team Wednesday. A doubleheader will be played with the St. Mary's Crusaders Saturday.

Valedictorians and salutatorians of the various Klamath County schools will be honored at the principal's dinner Friday, May 7. Mr. and Mrs. James Souza will represent Sacred Heart, together with Valedictorian John Ely and Salutatorian Cecile Vandenberg. Several girls will go to the Franciscan Convent on Palatine Hill, Portland, for a three-day retreat this weekend.

Tomorrow night will be the big night for all attending the prom. Fan-shaped programs in all colors of the rainbow are being made out. Alfred Reginato and Joannette Brandjesky will reign as king and queen.

Temporary Fee Successor Named

PORTLAND (U)—Federal District Judge David W. Ling of Phoenix has been named to fill temporarily the federal court position recently vacated by Portland's Judge James Alger Fee.

Fee recently was appointed to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals at San Francisco.

Ling, appointed to the temporary duty by Chief Judge William Denman of the Ninth Circuit Court, is expected to stay here two months clearing up pending cases.

Malin Garden Club Meets

MALIN — The April meeting of the Malin Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Loyal Loveness, Wednesday, April 28.

Members answered roll call with interesting items on gardening. During the business meeting, which was led by president, Mrs. Loyal Loveness, final arrangements were made for the District Garden Clubs Convention, Wednesday, May 5. The meeting and luncheon will be held at the Malin Masonic Hall. Members of the Malin Club will be hostesses. Registrations will start at 9:30 a.m. and the business meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m. The 12:30 luncheon will be served by ladies of Prosperity Social Club. Mrs. Jerry Rajanus is table decorations chairman. Mrs. Edwin Stasny and Mrs. Howard Henderson will make the favors and corsages for the Malin group. The newly organized Malin Club is holding its first District Convention.

Mrs. Robert Holl was elected president of the club. Vice president is Mrs. Ben Johnson; secretary, Mrs. Alden Loveness and treasurer, Mrs. Marie Ottoman.

A report was made by the president on the state and Regional Garden Club Convention, which will be held in Ashland June 6 to 10. The Malin Club will enter an exhibit of miniature arrangements for this convention and Mrs. Harmon Loveness will be in charge of the exhibit.

Tentative plans were made for Malin's annual flower show and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher has accepted the chairmanship. Members were asked for suggestions for a show theme. More plans will be made at future meetings.

Mrs. Karl Kujac, newly appointed program chairman, announced that the new program books are nearing completion and next year's committees have been appointed.

Attractive carryalls and planters were exhibited at the meeting by the garden crafts chairman. Proceeds from their sale will be added to the club's treasury.

Mrs. Frank Paygr was in charge of the plant exchange.

Members voted to plant and care for one of the flower beds at the Malin Community Park, as they had done last year. Committees will be appointed for the project. The object of the club is to encourage civic planting and civic beauty.

WHAT PRICE GLORY

Need we say more? because we're bursting with pride and enthusiasm over two very different dramatic and artistic movies showing together at the Pelican starting Thursday

"ACT OF LOVE," filmed in the war-torn Paris of 1944, stars Kirk Douglas and the French actress Dany Robin. It's director is Anatole Litvak who surpasses even the emotional power of his unforgettable "SNAKE PIT"

The other one is "THE MAN BETWEEN," with James Mason and Hildegard Neff, directed by Carol Reed who gave us the superior productions "THE THIRD MAN," and "THE FALLEN IDOL." Remember, this outstanding show starts Thursday.
