

Braves Play In Snow

Tech Splits With SOC

BY BEN PHILGAR
AP Sports Writer

When you're in last place and you've got a team in town you think you can beat, you play the game even if it snows.

That seems to be the current theory in Milwaukee. The Braves, who have had rough time this spring, beat Pittsburgh 6-1 last night in a game interrupted in the sixth inning by a miniature blizzard.

The victory pulled the Braves out of last place and dropped the Pirates to the bottom.

Almost every spring one or more of the major league games are postponed because of snow. But the records fail to show one that was started, halted by a snowstorm and then resumed.

The wintry blasts that couldn't halt the action in Milwaukee knocked three other games from yesterday's schedule and rain washed out a fourth. It was too cold for Brooklyn at Chicago and New York at Cincinnati; too cold and wet for Baltimore at New York and too wet for Detroit at Boston.

In games that were played, the Chicago White Sox increased their American League lead to a game and a half over Detroit by whipping Washington 8-6. Bob Trice won his fourth straight at Philadelphia shaded Cleveland, 3-2; and the Philadelphia Phillies whipped St. Louis 14-10 in 11 innings.

The Phils-Cards struggle ran 4 hours 31 minutes, finished up in the early hours of the morning and saw a major league record set for the total number of pitchers.

The two clubs tossed 15 assorted pitchers into the marathon, starting with two of the league's best—Harvey Haddix and Robin Roberts—and winding up with Hal White for the Cards and "Murry" Dickson for the Phils.

Dickson got the credit, his fourth success against one loss since moving to the Phils from the Pirates. Ellis (Cot) Dean, seventh of the record-tying eight St. Louis pitchers, was pinned with the loss as the Phils poured across four runs in the 11th.

The deciding run came on a walk, a single by Earl Torgeson and a sacrifice fly. Singler by Granny Hamner and Bobby Morgan and a double by Johnny Woychik produced three more.

Warren Spahn struck out 12 Pirates in the Milwaukee triumph, which came against Max Surkont, traded away by the Pirates by the Braves during the winter. Joe Adcock homered for Milwaukee.

A single by Joe Demaestri followed by a walk and a single by Gus Zernial gave the Athletics the run they needed to whip the Cleveland Indians, who had won six in a row. Six of the eight hits off Trice went for extra bases, including a home run by Al Rosen, but the rookie stayed out of trouble most of the way.

A grand slam home run by Minnie Minoso set up the Chicago victory in Washington. Billy Pierce helped his own cause with a two-run single in the fifth.

The grand slam by Minoso was the first in the American League this season.

Oregon Tech's Owls and the Southern Oregon Red Raiders woundup with another split yesterday afternoon on the Recreation Field diamond, as the home standing Owls took the first game 11-7, and the Raiders came back with a 3-1 win in the nightcap.

Coach Art Kirkland's crew went to work on Southern Oregon's pitcher, Ned Landers, for four runs in the third inning, after the visitors had taken a 3-1 lead, bringing the OTI total to five.

In the fifth inning the Tech squad put together five hits and three SOC errors for five more tallies, which proved to put the contest on ice for the Owls.

The big blow for the Tech nine in the fifth were doubles by Larry Jeter and Dick Joslyn, and a booming three bagger by Don Veni.

Southern Oregon scored three times in the sixth, but they couldn't produce a big enough inning to overtake the home team. Ron Wright went the distance for the OTI nine and gained his fifth win in six starts. Joslyn led the Tech hitters with four safeties in four trips to the plate, while Low Emerson and Warren Osborne each collected two blows in three times at bat.

Southern Oregon's Smith and Bretzel had two for four, and two for three day at the plate for the visitors.

Arvey Nelson and SOC's Bruce Hoffman locked into a tight pitching duel in the night cap with Hoffman coming out on top with the 3-1 win.

Oregon Tech took the lead by a 1-0 score in the fourth inning on Osborne's and Larry Portney's back to back singles.

The Raiders went ahead in the sixth with two runs off Nelson on two hits, and a pair of free passes to first base. In the last inning, SOC's McLean pounded one of Nelson's pitchers for a long four bagger, which added an insurance run that the Owls were unable to get back.

All the Oregon Tech hits were singles and well distributed through out the lineup. Ted Landers paced the visitors with two hits in four trips to bat, one of them was good for two bases. McLean homered was the biggest blow of the game for either side.

Tomorrow and Friday the Mile High Campus crew will take on the Portland State baseball squad in Portland, and on Saturday they journey to Vancouver to meet the Clark Junior College ball club in a doubleheader.

Kirkland hasn't decided yet as to what combination he will use on the four game road trip, but indications are that he will stick with the same lineup that has been working the past few games.

Boxscores:
Southern Oregon 7 9 4
Oregon Tech 11 14 4
N. Landers, Hennebeck and Smith, Wright and Joslyn.

Southern Oregon 3 6 1
Oregon Tech 1 5 3
Hoffine and Smith; Nelson and Joslyn.

Dave Philley of the Cleveland Indians went to bat 26 times before he got his first hit this season—a single.

SEATTLE — Dixon Hoxsey, Jack Hurley's flashy young protégé, hung up his 24th straight victory Tuesday night, a fourth round technical knockout of Earl McDonald of Vancouver, B.C.

McDonald refused to come out for the fifth round, claiming he had been fouled. But after a quick check by the Washington Athletic Commission physician, the referee lifted Hoxsey's hand.

McDonald weighed in at 143 pounds, five more than Hoxsey. Pat McMurry, 192, Tacoma, scored his seventh triumph in the second half of the double main event, stopping Jim Murphy, 185, Bremerton in 2:17 of the fourth round.

Preliminaries:
Don Rogers, 145, Portland, drew with Ernie Davis, 142, Seattle, 6.
Dick Schwinder, 201, Seattle, knocked out Johnny Williams, 187, Bremerton, 3.
Al Cobb, 152, Everett, stopped Brave Junior, 163, Portland, 1.
Jerry Lynch, 127, Seattle, knocked out Teddy Hall, 125, Seattle, 1.

Four Horsemen Have Anniversary

NEW YORK (AP) — This coming fall will bring the 30th anniversary of the christening of the most famous football backfield in the history of the game, the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame.

It doesn't seem that long, but the beloved Grantland Rice recalls that it was on a cold, murky day in 1924 that he watched the peerless quartet of Harry Stuhldreher, Elmer Layden, Jim Crowley and Don Miller rip an Army team apart here and proceeded to immortalize them on his gifted typewriter.

Plans are being laid to celebrate the event fittingly when the Irish team invades Pittsburgh to play the Panthers next winter. Stuhldreher, now a steel company executive in that city, will be the host. Terry Brennan, the new coach of Notre Dame, will only be invited to look on and listen, as he had not been born when the Horsemen rode.

Three of the famous foursome—except Miller, who had been caught aloft in a storm and couldn't make it—sat at a table here the other day and batted around the days of their glory together. All are prosperous and successful men today, with a total of 16 children, or exercise boys, between them. It was good to hear them express their gratitude to Rice.

"Granny," said Layden, "no one would remember us today if it hadn't been for you. We would just have been another good backfield. We haven't taken it seriously, but it's been a lot of fun."

"Nonsense," growled the historian. "There hasn't been a greater backfield yet and I don't expect to see a better fullback than you were, even if you didn't weigh but 168 pounds."

For the benefit of those who came in late, the Notre Dame teams on which the Horsemen played in 1923-24 set an over-all record of 27 victories, 2 losses and 1 tie. Both losses were to Nebraska.

"They had a good football team," Stuhldreher said, "but we finally caught up with them on our third year. Their coach, Fred Dawson, seemed to have the same wonderful knack that Knute Rockne had of making a fellow play just a little better than he knew how."
