

Parents Send Reds Appeal

MEDFORD (AP)—The parents of Richard Applegate, National Broadcasting Co. correspondent seized more than a year ago along with two other men by the Chinese Reds, said Wednesday they have cabled the Chinese Communist delegation at Geneva asking his release.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Applegate said they sent this cablegram to Huang Hua, counselor to the delegation of the People's Republic of China now attending the Geneva conference:

"On humanitarian grounds we beseech you to release NBC correspondent Applegate."

They said the appeal had been suggested through NBC by Kingsbury Smith, former International News Service correspondent in Moscow.

Applegate and two other men fell into Communist hands while sailing on Applegate's yawl for Portuguese Macao. The Reds never have admitted taking them. A Hong Kong newspaper last week published an unconfirmed report that the three had been given prison sentences ranging from three to five years.

Army General Honored By Navy

TOKYO (AP)—Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. today was awarded the Navy's Distinguished Service Medal for "exceptional diplomacy and fact" during the 14 months he served as chief Allied negotiator of the Korean armistice.

The gray-haired, Bible-quoting Harrison, chief of staff for both the Far East and United Nations commands since the armistice, was decorated in farewell ceremonies at headquarters here.

He and Mrs. Harrison will leave tomorrow for the United States on the first leg of their journey to Panama, where the general will become Caribbean commander in chief of U. S. forces.

Die-Hard Reds Panic Island

CHEJU ISLAND, Korea (AP)—A halt - dozen die-hard Communist guerrillas are preventing resettlement of this isolated island just off the southern tip of the Korean peninsula.

The guerrillas — two women and four men — are known by name in the settlements which they terrorize. They now act more like simple bandits than political warriors.

Others who once roamed the rugged volcanic hills with them have returned to their fields as peaceful farmers or artisans. They have been forgiven and accepted into the communities.

But because of the bitter hold-outs, villagers must withdraw each night behind the lava stone walls ringing their towns. They lock and bar the gates and mount guards throughout the night. Raids continue at irregular intervals.

The slopes of 6,000-foot Mt. Halla are designed by nature and man to harbor the hunted.

At the end of the war in the Pacific, Japan planned a last stand from this rugged mountain island. She garrisoned it with more than 200,000 troops and covered the lower slopes of the mountain. The Japanese and Korean troops have gone but the fortifications and hide-outs remain.

Armed with abandoned Japanese rifles and machine guns, the six guerrillas apparently continue their activity simply because

School Closed After Protest

ROLLA, Mo. (AP)—More than 200 Rolla High School students walked out on their classes yesterday in protest over the dismissal of two teachers and the resignation of two more.

The school shut down.

The Board of Education voted Monday night to dismiss Mrs. Mae Halley, art teacher, and C. A. Largent, diversified occupation teacher. The board also tabled the contracts of Mrs. Isabelle Estes, music teacher, and three others.

Mrs. Estes and her husband Harry thereupon announced their intention to resign from the school system.

The board gave no reason for its action.

It is an easy way to live well on an island knowing few luxuries.

Born out of the thunder and violence...
IN EVERY DECADE THERE IS ONE GREAT LOVE STORY
THIS IS OURS!
Paris, 1944... the war had come and rolled on to Berlin. In the same streets where life had been cheap, love was now cheaper. Passions were bartered and kisses bought...chocolate bars and cigarettes were becoming the medium of exchange.
It is like this after every war. And out of the tears, the laughter, the kisses...out of the thunder and violence come a thousand stories. But only a few are destined for greatness.
Here, in the great tradition of "Farewell To Arms" and "The Big Parade"—is just such a story.
Its star is Kirk Douglas giving the finest performance of his career as the soldier who didn't know where war ended and love began.
Its discovery is Dany Robin, an electrifying new French star who plays the Parisian girl—with no permanent address.
Its story is as frank and bold as its title—
