JOB'S DAUGHTERS HENLEY BETHEL

The New Bethel U.D. of Job's Daughters, of the Henley District held its first meeting May 3, at the Mt. Laki Church. The chapter room was beautifully decorated by Gretchen Thompson and Mrs. Brown with apple blossoms from the apple orchard of the guardian and associate guardian, Mrs. Basil Brown and her husband. Honored Queen Ruth Roenicke presided. Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian of Oregon and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ustick, associate guardian and guardian of Bethel No. 6, were escorted to the east and given honors. A beautiful white Bible was presented to Queen Ruth from Ora Gienger. This will be a gift semi-annually to all new queens, from Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gienger and daughter Sharon Brandness. The senior Princess Maureen Lyon and Queen Ruth Roenicke gave a very interesting report of their trip to grand session in Salem. Refreshments were served by Dorothy Dehlinger, guardian of hospitality assisted by her committee of girls: Carolyn Hunt, Patti Buck, Janet Rodgers, Connie Johnston, Ann Taylor, Betty Hooper, Phyllis Golden, Gwen Balsiger and Joan Taylor. The mothers of Job's Daughters Bethel U.D. will be guests at Mt. Laki Church for Mother's Day Services, May 9. There will be a practice May 15 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Zuleima Nile Club Meeting Features May Day Decorations

Members of Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls gathered at the Winema Hotel, May 5, for the monthly luncheon meeting. The newly decorated banquet room was enhanced by charming table settings of tulips, including a miniature Maypole of crepe paper with miniature dolls as dancers. Large bouquets of lilac and potted plants were used most effectively. Thelma Leonard and Ruth Renie, entertainment committee, presented a group of accordion students, studying under Mrs. Harold Robertson, who played a group of popular numbers and accompanied Virginia Fuller in a graceful Hawaiian dance. Members of the group were R. J. Eudaly, Elsie Eastman, Marjorie Smith, Richard Groseclose and Norma Lay. A guest, Mrs. M. Irene Robb of Iras Temple, Boise, was introduced. Ruth O'Hara, chairman of the day, announced her committee which consisted of Beatrice Beane, Irene Byrnes, Bertha Murdoch, Vera Powell, Maude Wright, Cole Brown, Beulah Balsiger, Vera Anderson, Ruth Marks, Elsie McNeer, Dorothy Ellis, Anna Rumer, and Helen O'Neill. Special prizes were awarded to Maude Wright and Jane Swartz, and birthday gifts to Karen Young and Charlotte Osborn.
