

MRS. KENNETH HAYES . . . the former Dolores Zellmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Zellmer, members of a prominent pioneer family in Davenport, Washington. — Photo by Dorian Studio, Spokane

AT THE RECEPTION. . . the new Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth (Ken) Hayes cut the cake after their wedding which was a social event of spring in Davenport, Washington. The wedding is of interest to local friends of the bridegroom, who formerly lived in the Henley District. — Photo by Dorian Studio, Spokane

Hayes-Zellmer Nuptial Vows In Davenport Church April 30

Some 200 guests witnessed the marriage of Dolores Zellmer to Kenneth (Ken) Hayes in the Davenport, Washington, Methodist Church, April 30. Dolores, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Zellmer, is a member of a prominent pioneer Davenport family; and Hayes, who has been living in the Henley District, is the son of F. B. Hayes, Madras. The Rev. James E. Doak, read the 8 p.m. service before a background of pink and white carnations and rose and white snapdragons; colors chosen by the bride for her general color scheme. Organist, Mrs. Walter Zellmer, aunt of the bride, accompanied Mrs. Paul Mitchell, soloist, who sang "I love Thee" in German; and "Because It Is Morn" in English. Candelights were D. E. A. Morgan and Beverly Kirkwood. Beverly's frock was white length of orchid net; and she wore a white wrist-corsage. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a dress of nylon tulle styled with a short sleeve fitted bodice. The wide oval neckline was ringed with Swiss embroidery rose-patterned in a sculptured wreath effect. The full gathered skirt repeated the embroidery detail in an applied rose at the waistline, securing the folds of the fan-shaped side drape. A petal cap held the veil of filmy illusion. She carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, centered with a large white orchid. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift from the

A GARDEN GET-TOGETHER, with lilacs, apple blossoms, the promise of summer and the informal hospitality of outdoor living . . . The event is the annual Sacred Heart Academy Mothers Club silver tea. The theme is "Lilac Time;" the time is 2 to 6 p.m. Saturday, May 22; the place is the parish hall. Mrs. Frank Bogatay, chairman; Mrs. James Pade, co-chairman; Mrs. James Cronon, entertainment. Also assisting will be Mrs. Dick Miller Jr., Mrs. Louise Vaughn, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. Regis Andrieu, Mrs. Willard Linehan, Mrs. John Howard, Mrs. Ray Kann, Mrs. Don Droliner. Proceeds from the tea will be given to the Sisters of Sacred Heart Academy. — Photo by Kettler

AT THE LUNCHEON MEETING . . . in the Crater Room of the Winema Hotel, April 29, Rosemary C. Murray, center, Girl Scout community adviser, is shown with Mrs. Art Moore, president local Girl Scouts, left; and Mrs. Keith Cobo, local council assistant, right. Miss Murray was here to confer with local Girl Scout leaders; and picture was taken during the board meeting. — Photo by Kettler

Beta Sigma Phi Celebrates 23rd Founder's Day Anniversary

The twenty-third Founder's Day Anniversary of Beta Sigma Phi sorority was observed by the three local chapters, Tau, Kappa, and Xi Delta, Thursday evening, April 29, with a banquet at the Winema Hotel. Bouquets of white daisies and yellow roses were used in the table decor, and miniature baskets of daisies marked each place. Mrs. Arthur Moore was toastmistress for the occasion. Mrs. Wesley McNeer Jr. sang the grace, "Bless This House." She was accompanied by Mrs. James Skeel. Mrs. McNeer, accompanied by Mrs. Skeel, also sang two other solos during the evening — "Absent," and "Give Me Something to Remember You By." Mrs. Moore welcomed the recent pledges of the sorority. Highlights of activities of each chapter during the past year were given by newly elected presidents, Mrs. Harold J. Shearer, Mrs. O. F. Badley and Mrs. Roy Eastburn. Mrs. George Wardell presented the awards for the outstanding girls of the year to the following: Mrs. Ben McCollum of Kappa Chapter, Mrs. Roy Eastburn of Tau Chapter, and Mrs. Russell Brackman of Xi Delta Chapter. Messages from international office were given by Mrs. Isabelle Bixner, Mrs. John Otterbein, and Mrs. G. A. Nichol. Mrs. Lowell Netzer spoke briefly on "The Role We Play in Community Living," and Mrs. C. O. Borsting commented on "Personal Development through International Fellowship." The climax of the evening was a most interesting talk given by the guest speaker, Mrs. E. A. Geary, on her recent trip with her family to New Zealand and Australia. Mrs. Geary told of both the economic and social phases of life in the various countries and islands visited.

For travel to Canada where the couple honeymooned, Dolores wore a flame red suit with black and white accessories. Her corsage was from her bridal bouquet. They will live in Davenport. The 6 p.m. rehearsal dinner, April 29, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zellmer before the rehearsal. Hostesses were Mrs. G. W. Gauger, Mrs. O. J. Maurer and Mrs. Albert Zellmer. Going from Klamath Falls for the wedding were Delbert Dehlinger, Robert Hill, Ralph Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hayes.

Our Gigantic FURNITURE SALE STARTS TUESDAY See Monday Night's Paper Patterson Furniture Co. 230 Main St. Phone 7150

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

FORT KLAMATH —The Crater Lake Cafe was the scene of a festive afternoon, Saturday, May 1, when Mrs. Alvin Copeland and daughter Joyce, new managers of the business, entertained at a family luncheon at 1 p.m., in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Copeland's niece, Mrs. Weston H. Engle. Places were marked for the following members of the Engle and Copeland families: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle, parents of Weston and Clifford Engle; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Engle, daughter Erma Jean and son Rex; Mrs. Copeland's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beymer and children, Klamath Falls; Lorin (Rusty) and Wayne Weston, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Weston H. Engle; and the hostesses, Mrs. Alvin Copeland and Joyce. A beautifully decorated cake was served after the luncheon.

Birthday Celebrated

CHILOQUIN — April 26 marked the birthday of 8th grader Evelyn McDaniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith McDaniel. The family entertained for her that evening at a large party where there were both games and dancing at the family home. Invited for the evening were Janet Parker, Janet Clark, Gail Manning, Dorothy Sadley, Andrea Wright, Mary Latches, Beverly David, Peggy DuBois, Joy Gard, Louise Niehaus, Gloria Ochoa and Regina Godowa. Elaine Jackson, Karen Wilson, Naomi Johnson, Minda Mendenhall, Manual Ochoa, Richard Ochoa, Munson Sanderval, Stephen Pope, Mewar Castro, Marral Griffin, Kenny Reed, Andrew Orits, Jr., Gordon and Charles Copeland, Darrel McDaniel, Duane McDaniel, Jim Wilson, Gary Heglund and Buz Smith. Refreshments of hot dogs and birthday cakes, three of them, were served late in the evening.

MR. AND MRS. GILBERT FRANKLIN . . . 2732 Dayton Street, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Lou, to Thomas Edwin Stowell Jr., son of Mrs. Hazel Adams, Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Both are students at Oregon Technical Institute; and the summer wedding is scheduled for August 28. —Photo by Floyd

MRS. ZELMA SULLIVAN . . . 1764 Derby, announces the engagement of her niece, Deloris Ware, to Glen W. Shellito, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shellito, 4407 Altamont. Glenn will be graduated in June from KUHS, where both are students.

World Wide Travel Bureau 716 Main Ph. 8873 Provides FREE Travel Service United States or the Globe AIR-STEAM Tickets Cruises Tours Hotel Reservations Come in and see us about a trip to Hawaii, Europe or Alaska using our Pan-Am PAY LATER plan. LAND-SEA-AIR Trip Insurance by The Travelers Insurance Company

Dermott's New Curl Lotion Revives Lost Hair Waves

This is the amazing new curl lotion you have been reading about in all the important fashion magazines. It's wonderful! An entirely new idea that returns crisp curl to your hair in no time at all, yet is not a "permanent" lotion. Particularly effective for keeping lagging troublesome ends off your neck. A clear, blue-tinted liquid as thin as water, it dries even faster than water without the slightest trace of stickiness and without the slightest risk of damaging chemical action to the hair.

Star Drug 5th and Main

Before you go. LOOK IN YOUR MIRROR . . . Don't pack a thing! Not 'til you've tried it on and checked your summer wear falls short of tip-top and you're short on time — call us! We're quick-action experts at dry cleaning and pressing. We'll get you off in time and perfectly groomed! CASCADE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANERS Klamath's Finest Opposite Post Office Speedy pick-up and delivery. Call 5111 Send your cleaning with your laundry!