SUE SEAHOLM CROWNED QUEEN AT CHILOQUIN HS ANNUAL PROM

CHILOQUIN — Sue Seaholm, dressed in a soft red ballerina length formal, was crowned 16th annual prom queen last Saturday night to climax one of the most attractive proms in the history of Chiloquin High School. "Circus Days" was the theme for the evening. Dwight Souers Jr., Klamath Agency, president of the junior class, crowned Sue queen and the other eight senior girls were her attendants. They were Frieda Kirk, Dona Clark, Edith Ling, Joan Ling, Twila Knight, Marjorie Erickson, Gloria Ochoa, and Jacque Schroeder Rossi. Four year old Mary Katherine Parazo, dressed in a light blue gown, was flower girl. The setting for Queen Sue was "Under the Big Top." The nearly solid canopy over the dance floor was of pastel strips of crepe paper from a center cluster of gay balloons to the edges of the grade school gym, where the event was held. On the walls were placed continuous murals more than life sized, of the circus parade. Clown heads marked with the names of the seniors were fastened to the posts. The backdrop for the Vocals, who played for the dance, was a huge painting of the caged lion with the theme name above in large letters. Manzanita in full bloom softened the edges of the floor and the stairways.

TAILORING CLASS COMPLETES WORK

CHILOQUIN — Thursday evening marked the finish of a ten weeks' class in tailoring for women from the local area who were instructed by Mrs. H. H. Madole, Klamath Falls, who has taught similar classes in other parts of the Basin. The women staged a fashion show for guests and served refreshments later in the evening. Each student kept careful track of all costs going into the toppers or suits that they made and then compared the finished products with articles of similar quality at retail prices to see how much they had saved in money. Labor time was not counted in the cost. Women who took the course were Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. Bert Bickers and Mrs. Glen O'Neill, Modoc Point; Mrs. Jack Shoemaker, Mrs. Louis Longee, Mrs. Harold Wing, Mrs. Conrad Shelland and Mrs. Charles Worthman, Klamath Agency; Mrs. Hubert Vanderhoff, Klamath Falls; Mrs. John Jaderholm, Mrs. Al Cline, Mrs. Curtis Jester (who made two suits), Mrs. Todd Deffenbacher, Mrs. Friedman Kirk, Mrs. George Hobbs, Mrs. Wesley Isgrig, and Mrs. Carl Lobert. The group met each Thursday evening for three hours during the ten weeks' session.

ALOHA PAST MATRONS' CLUB

Friday, April 30, Mrs. O. R. Holoway, Mrs. H. E. Getz and Mrs. W. B. DeWitt were hostesses to the Aloha Past Matrons' Club at the Masonic Hall. They served a delightful 1 p.m. dessert luncheon. A colorful assortment of spring flowers graced the luncheon tables; and a beautiful pink azalea plant served as the centerpiece on the large table. Twenty sisters were present. They were Mrs. J. F. Penrod, Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Dorothea Wortley, Mrs. Oscar Peyton, Mrs. K. H. Cofer, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Elizabeth Norris, Jennie Hurn, Mrs. O. W. The next stated meeting will be held on the last Friday of May which will be the 28th. Hostesses are Mrs. Penrod, Hurn and Mor-

ANW Club

Mrs. W. P. McMillan was hostess to the Art Needle Work Club at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. V. Brewbaker, 1503 Oregon. It was the last meeting before summer vacation and members and guests assembled for a delicious one o'clock luncheon, followed by election of officers. Mrs. R. E. Wattenberg will conduct the first meeting in September as Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby was elected vice president. Recent letters were read from members; including Mrs. George Chastain, charter member, now living with her daughter, Meta Holoway, in Sacramento, note from Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, now living in Pittsburg, California, told of trip she took with daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Mahaffey to Carmel and Santa Barbara; Mrs. George Wirtz, sent a message from San Carlos where she has been wintering with daughter, Mrs. Tom Harmon; also read, was a letter from Mrs. Oliver Gates, Hillsboro — her husband was affiliated with California Oregon Power Company during the power company's early days here. The following members and guests were present for the pleasant afternoon: Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. George R. Hurn, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. J. V. Brewbaker, Mrs. Lillian Mitchell, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby and Mrs. W. P. McMillan. The first September meeting will be an all-day session with a potluck luncheon at Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby's Rocky Point cabin.

Mrs. W. J. Wright Back From Trip

FORT KLAMATH—Mrs. Walter J. Wright returned Sunday, April 25, from the bright lights and fast tempo of city life to the peace and quiet of her cattle ranch home in the Wood River Valley. During her month's visit in California, she was guest of, and extensively entertained by her daughter, Mrs. Martha Freauff, Alameda; and her sister and brother-in-law, the Earl Hanways, wintering from Casper, Wyoming, in their newly purchased home in Beverly Hills. The family party took side trips to Fresno and Los Angeles, visiting friends and points of interest. Also, during her stay, friends of the Hanways arrived via the Lurline from their home in the Hawaiian Islands and entertained

Women of Moose At Merril

MERRILL — Thirty-seven co-workers were present at the regular meeting May 4, of Women of the Moose, Merril Chapter 18. The new semi-annual password was received, and two membership applications were read and balloted on. Nine Merril chapter co-workers attended a meeting in Richmond, California, last weekend where the following received the Academy of Friendship degree: Eleanor Waits, Catherine Schweigert, Celia Young, Ellen Fregl, Evelyn Rush, Elizabeth Holland, and Geneva Trujillo. At the May 4, meeting they were presented their Friendship rings by junior regent, Rose Bailey, who received a gift from the group. Lois Reid was reported ill and recently hospitalized. A special chapter meeting will be held at the LOOM Hall on Wednesday, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. standard time, in honor of Grand Regent Kay Mahaffey. The meeting promises to be an interesting one and all members are urged to be present. The Klamath Falls chapter has been invited to meet with us. An anniversary potluck dinner honoring charter members will be held at the Moose Hall on Sunday, May 16, at 5:30 p.m. standard time. All Moose members and their families are invited. There will be a program. Next Friendship meeting will be held in the hall, May 14.

Music Program At DAR Meeting

Eulalona Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Monday evening, May 3, at the First Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. Charles R. Waters, presiding. Members were delightfully entertained by an evening of American music, presented by Mrs. Don Zumwalt. After a discussion of the growth and development of music in America, with comments on some of the outstanding composers Mrs. Zumwalt introduced three musicians, Mrs. Earl Sheridan, who sang selections from Francis Hopkinson, Edward MacDowell, Stephen Foster, Carrie Jacobs Bond, and Lily Strickland; Bob Erdman, who played a Sonata of Revolutionary times; and selections from MacDowell, and Ferde Grofe; Sherman Carter, who sang typical numbers from Cadman, Jerome Kern, Oley Speaks, and De Koven. The following officers were installed by Past Regent Mrs. Robert Odell: regent, Mrs. Guy Barton; vice regent, Mrs. H. A. Pedersen; secretary, Mrs. Phillip Brixner; treasurer, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote; registrar, Mrs. William D. Foster; historian, Mrs. L. H. Stone; and chaplain, Mrs. Charles R. Waters. Mrs. Odell commended Mrs. Waters for her successful year just ended and presented her with an ex-regent's bar. The incoming regent, Mrs. Barton, was given a silver teaspoon decorated with the DAR emblem. In thanks to her officers Mrs. Waters presented each
