

A LOT OF PLANNING must be done to accommodate the 1500 Moose expected to converge on Klamath Falls for the 23rd annual Oregon State Moose Association Convention to be held June 18, 19 and 20. The general convention committee includes (seated, left to right) N. S. Hepburn, welfare committee chairman; Bill Mills, governor; Roger Wright, general chairman and (standing, same order), Ray Slight, properties committee chairman; Vic Douglas, membership; Russell Fairchild Jr., convention secretary; Vane Caley, program; C. C. Chapel, advertising. Highlights of the convention will be a barbecue the night of the 20th at the fairgrounds.

Marines Plan Oregon Unit

Major W. F. Simlik, commanding officer of the Marine Corps recruiting service in Oregon, has announced that plans are now under way to form the 3rd Oregon Beaver Platoon. This platoon will be based upon the two previous units, the last of which completed recruit training during the past month.

According to details of the plan the unit will be composed of high school graduates who are now completing their final semester. Arrangements are being made for the platoon, which will consist of 75 volunteers, to be sworn into the Marine Corps on June 11, possibly during the Portland Rose Festival in Multnomah stadium. Prior to their departure on the following day the men will take part in the rose festival parade.

Technical Sergeant Keith L. San, local Marine Recruiter, states that any men who are interested in joining the Marine Corps with this select group should contact him to insure that a spot will be reserved for them. He is

Pre-school Clinic Slated Wednesday

A preschool clinic for all children who are to enter the first grade at Altamont Elementary School this September will be held Wednesday, May 12, at the school.

During the hours of 9 a. m. to noon, each child will be given a physical examination by a doctor. A dentist will examine his teeth. His eyes will be tested and the necessary shots given.

Parents are urged to bring all children who will start school this fall at Altamont.

If transportation is needed, parents are asked to call 7505 or 3344.
