GENE WALL, OF UPPER LANGELL VALLEY, is shown with one of his rare crosses between a game hen and a pheasant rooster. This combination arose when Wall's game hens and the pheasants began running together on his farm. The bird looks like a chicken, and has the distinct markings of a pheasant. Wall has three of these birds now and is planning on raising more in future years.

Hi-Y Dinner Election Held

KUHS Hi-Y Club members elected officers for fall term at the final meeting of the year and banquet held at the YMCA Monday, May 10.

New officers are Stewart Campbell, president; Doug Campbell, vice president; Terry Minchinton, secretary; Wayne Rodgers, treasurer; Robert Dixon, chaplain; Rex Angle and George Goehring, representatives.

Prospective new members attended the banquet meeting.

Plans for the fall were discussed and a "Backache for Brotherhood" project was accepted as one of the new major projects for the fall. Any income for this project, in which individual members offer their services for special work after school and on Saturdays, will be sent in to the YMCA World Service project. This helps to support an American YMCA secretary at work among the high school youth of Japan, who is assisting in organization of the Hi-Y program in some 300 different Japanese high schools.

Church Plans Benefit Program

Sacred Benefit program, sponsored by the Family Circle of the First Covenant Church, 823 Walnut, will be given Friday, May 14, at 8 p.m.

The program will consist of vocal and instrumental numbers and a brief message by the Rev. Ainley of St. Luke Community Church. The offering will go to pay on principal of the loan from the California Conference.

Refreshments will be served. Hostesses will be Mrs. Albert Clawson, Mrs. Maurice Keep and Mrs. Ray Dunn.

The whole family is invited.

Woman Collapses At Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The collapse of a woman spectator caused scarcely a ripple of confusion yesterday at the McCarthy-Army hearings.

The office of Dr. George W. Calver, Capitol physician, said the woman is Mrs. R. D. Seaman of Washington, and that her condition did not appear serious. The testimony of John G. Adams, Army counselor, continued as Mrs. Seaman was wheeled out on a stretcher. She was taken to Casualty Hospital.

SAFEGUARD
TOKYO (AP)—Japan's lower house Thursday approved the defense secrets protection bill, designed to safeguard the secrets of weapons furnished Japan by the United States under the mutual security agreement. The vote was 231 to 200.
