

OLD FRIENDS AND NEW... some of them went to grade school together, in Klamath Falls, were invited to greet Helen Houston, former longtime resident; now of San Diego; and Jennie Peltz, recently returned from wintering in the Bay Region. Mrs. Houston has been at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. F. Farley, 1444 Pacific Terrace, staying with the children while Dr. and Mrs. Farley were in the Hawaiian Islands. From the left, seated, Hannah Hickson (on the arm of the sofa); Jennie Hurn, Mae Anderson, Jennie Peltz, and Minnie Robinson.

Standing, Maud Hosley, Dollie Landis, (Mrs. Houston's sister); Helen Houston, Lora Evans, Ruby Kenyon and Kate Peyton.

Hostess was Elizabeth Ramsby at her home, 521 North Fifth Street; and she's not in it — because she took it! Cards were played and dessert was served.

Klamath Friends in Geneva For Carolyn Collier's Wedding

Klamath Falls was well represented in Geneva, Switzerland, at the wedding of Carolyn Collier, member of a representative Oregon family, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier, her sister, Phyllis, and several friends from home witnessed her marriage to Thomas John Larson in the ancient cosmopolitan "capital of the world."

The nuptial rites were solemnized by the Rev. William F. Hastings, who made the trip especially for that purpose from Stuttgart, Germany. He is chief of resettlement for Germany, Church World Service, with which organization Carolyn has been doing welfare work with refugees during the past year.

The late afternoon candlelight service was in the American Church. Flowers in the chancel were white lilies and calla lilies—a dramatic background for the bride's dress of exquisite Swiss lace designed with the accent on simplicity. Waist length, and with a demure small round collar, it blended with the lace mantilla which framed her face. Her bouquet of boydsia was centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was her sister, Phyllis, who wore a white length dress in aqua blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Best man was Fritz Hochbrein, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, from Nuremberg, Germany.

After the ceremony, guests were received at the home of Monsieur and Madame Nicholas Lazarus, friends of the bride. Deferring to American custom, the Swiss hostess arranged for a large tiered wedding cake — to be traditionally cut by the bride and bridegroom.

The wedding supper for 14 guests was served in the Beau Rivage Hotel, on a table centered with an arrangement of red roses and pink carnations.

After a honeymoon in Switzerland and London, the new Mr. and Mrs. Larson will live near Sembach, in the French Zone of Germany, where Thomas is education adviser for a United States air base.

From Klamath Falls at the wedding were Mrs. Warren Hunt, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, and of course, Mr. and Mrs. Collier, bride's parents. Mrs. Stuart Nelson (formerly Barbara Johnson of this city) flew up from Nice, France, where, Lieut. Nelson is stationed with the U.S. Navy.

Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Ellingson flew direct to Geneva from New York. The nuptial event was their first stop on a three months' European trip.

Carolyn's aunt, Dr. Dorothy Collier, Eugene, was an honored guest. She came over with the Andrew Colliers and Phyllis and is touring Europe with them. Sharing honors with Dr. Collier was Miss L. Elizabeth Hansen, Seattle, who was on her way to Copenhagen.

Other guests included the distinguished Dr. Edgar H. S. Chandler, chief of Refugee Services for the World Council of Churches in Europe; and Margaret Jabor, assistant director of services to refugees.

Margaret Herold, formerly of Philadelphia, now of Geneva, Switzerland, was a guest, as were other friends of the bride, Joyce Kemp, England; and Ruscha Hartman, Geneva.

Local friends, aware of Carolyn's energy and initiative, will not be surprised that she married an enterprising explorer — anthropologist (son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Larson, of Atkin, Minnesota, and Phoenix, Arizona), who earned his title of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of South Africa prior to his present assignment; and who lives with isolated natives there to get first-hand information for his illuminating books and articles on the generally unknown and obscure customs in that part of the "Dark Continent."

Never take a chance on leaving your iron plugged in when you are called away from the chore momentarily. Minutes have a way of multiplying rapidly and a fire could easily be the consequence. More fires are caused in this way than result from any other electric appliance.

Soroptimist Club Elects Alice Lamm

New officers of the Soroptimist Club were elected on an unopposed ballot during the noon luncheon Thursday, May 13, at the Winema Hotel.

Alice Lamm, now vacationing in Europe was elected president. Dena Backes will serve as vice president and delegate to the national convention to be held at Banff this summer and to next year's Soroptimist conference.

Edna Albrecht is second vice president; Doris Fredrick, recording secretary; Ruth Remie, corresponding secretary; Phyllis Slater, treasurer. Board members will be Ruth Ray and Mildred Burke. Edna Albrecht is alternate for the president. Margaret Larkin is alternate for the vice president.

Members of the nominating committee were Beth Griggs, chairman, Coral Sabo and Bee Bell. Next week's meeting, Thursday, May 20, will be a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Instead of a luncheon meeting. Members of the Board club will be guests. There will be an interesting fun program and a plant sale, postponed from this week's meeting.

New officers will be installed at a 6:30 p.m. dinner meeting, June 10, when members of the Venture Club, and the Lakeside and Ashland Clubs will be guests.

Joan Meador, senior at Klamath Union High School, and Martha Beasley, Merrill, were named as students to win the annual nurse's scholarships presented by the Soroptimist Club.

It was announced that Alice Lamm brought dishes needed for the girls' dormitory at OTI and presented them in the name of the club.

May 26 there will be a "Question" program conducted by Ida M. Odell.

Engagement Announced

Word was received here that Mr. and Mrs. William Gilmore, Portland, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to Philip Brown, son of Mrs. Helen Brown, Salem.

Brown was graduated from KUHS in 1951; and former classmates will be interested to know of the betrothal.

Both are students at Willamette University and the bride-elect made a previous informal announcement to her Chi Omega sorority sisters at the chapter house in Salem.

No wedding date has been set.

FRIENDS BRING BIRTHDAY CAKE

Mrs. Hazel Kalina was happily surprised last Saturday evening when a group of friends dropped in to wish her "Happy Birthday" with a handsomely decorated cake "just for her."

Sharing the anniversary celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Garry Freitag, Ruth and Ronald Kalina, Mr. and Mrs. John Freitag, Vae Kalina and Joan Freitag.

MASONIC NIGHT OBSERVED IN THE TEMPLE MAY ELEVENTH

Masonic Night was observed after the stated meeting of Aloha Chapter, Tuesday evening, May 11, at the Masonic Temple. Members and visitors were greeted by: Mae Phinney, Dorthea Wirtley, Jack Murphy and Elmer Bismelt. The chapter room and parlors were festive with bouquets of tulips, lilacs and iris.

Seated in the east with Rena Oldham, worthy matron and Raymond Owens, worthy patron were: Alva Oldham, district deputy of District No. 1 of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Oregon; Elvin E. Phillips, worshipful master of Klamath Lodge No. 77 A.F. and A.M.; Mrs. Elvin E. Phillips and Elizabeth Owens. Past masters escorted and introduced were: Alva Oldham, Jack Murphy, Jim Hunter, Herbert Hamline, Brooks Custer and Dick Griffith.

Teryl, Gene, Marian and Dallas, talented young children of the Elmo N. Angle family from Lakeview entertained with a musical program of instrumental selections. Each child was capable of playing five different instruments, and during the program their ability was demonstrated by changing instruments constantly. The piano interpretation of a Chopin composition played by eight-year-old Dallas was enthusiastically applauded.

An interesting reading entitled

"Eastern Star and the Masonic Lodge" was given by Leona Angel.

The Friendship and Flower girls presented a lovely drill and together with the officers formed a square and compass around the altar as the worthy matron quoted an appropriate poem.

A blue and gold color scheme was used to decorate the banquet room. All tables held bouquets of yellow tulips and blue iris, Masonic emblems, miniature Masonic aprons and towels. Delicious refreshments were served by the following: Blanche Schulze and Blanche Marks (co-chairmen); Grace Cole, Ruth Hopson, Anna Bean, Ora Gienger and Alice Peyton. Members of the decorating committee were: Maude Wright, Mildred Dimbat, Edna Jones, Rena Oldham, Martha Powell and Leona Angel.

The next stated meeting, "Memorial Night," will be held April 25, at the Masonic Temple.

For very special evenings this summer, you might wear a stone edged with fox to lend warmth to air-conditioned places.

Sacred Heart Music Recital

Sacred Heart Academy will present a group of advanced music students in recital Thursday evening, May 19 at 7:45 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Students who will participate in the program include the following: Marian Asher, Patricia Druliner, Cecilia Kahn, Judith Brauner, Douglas Cummings, Barbara Campbell, Cecile Vandenberg, and John Ely.

The above students will be assisted by the Cecilia string ensemble and the Madrigal vocal chorus.

Sojourners

Regular meeting of Sojourners Wednesday, May 12, was immediately after a no-hostess luncheon in the Paul Bunyan Room of the Willard Hotel.

It was voted to have the second meeting in June on the fifth instead of the usual fourth Wednesday. Transportation was arranged for those going to Medford Thursday, May 13, to visit the valley Sojourners Club. Eighteen members planned to make the trip.

Eight tables of cards were in play and prizes went to Mrs. D. S. Johnson, pinocle; Mrs. Harry Gleason, canasta; Mrs. L. D. Leslie and Mrs. W. A. Ross, bridge.

Hostesses were Mrs. G. G. Packard and Mrs. Orman Gidow. New members introduced and welcomed by Mrs. C. E. Chant, vice president, were Mrs. Raymond Bennett and Mrs. Harry Gleason.

ALTAR SOCIETY

BONANZA — Mrs. Vernon Hubble recently entertained the Altar Society of St. Frances Cabrini church. The short business meeting was conducted by president, Mrs. Frank DeBel. Mrs. Jack McCarty was appointed vice president.

This was the last meeting until sometime in September; time and place to be announced later.

A social afternoon was enjoyed with delicious refreshments served by the hostesses. Others present were Mrs. Katherine Jendrjewski, Mrs. Frank DeBel, Mrs. John Brett, Mrs. Don Ralph, Mrs. Jack McCarty, Mrs. Clay Walker, Mrs. Joe Lindsay, Mrs. Irwin Beck, Mrs. Ernest Walker and Mrs. Hubble.

Gloria Naudie Brown honored the master masons with a beautiful vocal solo "There's a Grand Fraternity" by Katherine C. Lowman. Margaret Sheridan was the accompanist.

A blue and gold color scheme was used to decorate the banquet room. All tables held bouquets of yellow tulips and blue iris, Masonic emblems, miniature Masonic aprons and towels. Delicious refreshments were served by the following: Blanche Schulze and Blanche Marks (co-chairmen); Grace Cole, Ruth Hopson, Anna Bean, Ora Gienger and Alice Peyton. Members of the decorating committee were: Maude Wright, Mildred Dimbat, Edna Jones, Rena Oldham, Martha Powell and Leona Angel.

Ernie Fields and his orchestra and variety show are from the midwest where they have been a featured ballroom and theatre attraction for many years. I am bringing them to Klamath Falls because of the many fine reports about the band from various ballroom operators and persons who have heard his band and danced to his music. From all reports, it is a crowd pleasing band that plays Dixieland, blues, swing and boogie equally well. It is fun to watch — easy to dance to and a pleasure to hear. The floor show is also excellent entertainment. I am sure you will enjoy this fine musical organization.

New Officers Installed At Library Club Meeting May 10

The slate of officers for the next Library Club season, elected unanimously at the Monday meeting of the club, is headed by Mrs. Clarence P. Ward, President. Other officers are Mrs. J. J. Thomas, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Thompson, second vice president; Mrs. Joe L. Hicks, secretary; and Mrs. Jack Schulze, treasurer. The names were presented by the nominating committee composed of Mrs. Robert Hooker, Mrs. Fred Hoagland and Mrs. John Ashley. A short installation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Robert Thompson, and as outgoing president, she was presented with an "orchid and money" corsage.

The meeting, which was the last of this season, opened with several tenor solos by John Carter, who earned the gratitude of the club members by being an eleventh hour substitute for the scheduled performer who was unable to come.

Accompanied by Mrs. Don Zumwalt he sang "Mattin'at" by Leoncavallo; "Without a Song" by Vincent Youmans; "Morning" by Ole Speaks and "One Alone" by Romberg. Mrs. Zumwalt was given a corsage for her part in arranging the successful musical programs throughout the year.

In introducing Nelson Reed, who was to speak on the Klamath Basin Water problems, Mrs. S. A. Thompson, program chairman, pointed out that this subject was pertinent to the theme of the year "Our American Heritage"; since loving our heritage makes us aware of the many factors involved, especially natural resources and conservation of them.

Reed outlined the work done to date by the Oregon Klamath River Commission of which he is a member. The commission was established by the Oregon legislature and given $25,000 to study the best ways to conserve, use and protect Oregon water and water power, and to formulate a plan for the future use of our water resources.

The commission has had the technical aid of engineer Lewis Stanley and has studied many reports and recommendations done by other groups.

He described the different proposals for using water resources, particularly the ones proposed by the Bureau of Reclamation and the California Oregon Power Company. The California legislature is to appoint a similar commission and it is hoped the two groups can find a common meeting ground and present a treaty to the state legislatures and the national Congress concerning the future use of Oregon's, and especially Klamath's, water and power.

Reports of Library Club officers and committees were presented in printed form, with the treasurer's report outlined in full.

Mrs. Thompson announced that the Klamath Falls club is proud to have a member representing us in the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Walter Brown was elected recording secretary at the recent Portland convention.

Mrs. Brown was also elected second vice president of District 1 of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs at a meeting of the district in Cave Junction. At this meeting Mrs. Fred Hoagland was elected to the board of directors. Mrs. Clarence Ward gave a report of this annual meeting.

The arts and crafts display carried out the theme of conservation, featuring work done by students in the second, fifth and junior high school levels in the county schools. Handsome books of creative writing, maps and charts, posters and developmental material for teachers were shown from the collection of Mrs. Phil Brinker who is the elementary supervisor for the Klamath County School. The large panels of art work were the backdrop for the exhibit.

The decorations committee, Mrs. Guy Hancock and Mrs. Loren Palmerton, had decked the room with fragrant baskets of lilac blooms and flowering tree branches. In addition the Suburban Flower Shop provided a large chrysanthemum arrangement and Mrs. Palmerton provided a similar bouquet.

The tea table featured a silver and pastel grouping, with lilacs and tulips overflowing a large silver bowl. Mrs. Lloyd Young was tea chairman, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Bigger, Mrs. Bert Henson and Mrs. Lewis Stanley. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Kent and Mrs. Charles Houston, publicity chairmen. Hostesses were Mrs. C. O. Moore and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger.
