

First Club-Sponsored Teenage Dance In History of Reames is Gala Event

THE FIRST . . . BUT NOT THE LAST . . . is the unanimous opinion expressed by teenage offspring of Reames Golf and Country Club members after the smashing success of the May 8th dance.

The younger group who had the clubhouse for themselves that night were the first ever to be accorded that privilege . . . and the adult sponsors joined right in the fun. Pictures include a group of unidentified dancers; the popular punch bowl (with customers) from left to right, Joan Estes, Danny Low, Gail Narseth, Richard Pastega, Lois Saastedt, Kenny Kuhlman, Nadine Wilkerson and Bill Bechen.

Teenage Dance At Reames May 8

About a hundred teenagers at the dance, and the programs were representative of May flowers. Decoration chairman was Susan Peak, assisted by Carolyn Boyd, Sherrill Snell, Don Boyd, and Tom Humble. The programs were made by Nancy Clark, Jane Larkin, Nancy Hopson, Sandra Robinson and Susan Peak. Refreshments were served from a beautifully decorated table, with a floral centerpiece of tulips and narcissus, arranged by Mrs. Frank Peak, Susan's grandmother now visiting in Klamath Falls.

Bring last year's strapless cottons up-to-date by making Berntha collars for them in contrasting colors. For easy sewing and added comfort, make each collar from two pieces of material and join them at the shoulders with ribbon. Make a wide boat neckline that starts at the shoulder, where the ribbon joins the back and front pieces.

A good choice to keep you comfortably fresh-looking around the house this summer is a sleeveless, boat-necked cotton dress that wraps around to button and bow at back. It needs no ironing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walker and daughter, Dairy, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen McGregor and family, Klamath Falls, spent Mother's Day with the Clay Walkers.

Mrs. Ruby Brown is spending a few days in Langell Valley with her daughter Mrs. Wes Dearborn and family.

Some persons, when they meet a visitor from another city, put him through a regular third degree. "Do you know the Smiths?" "You must know the Browns. He is very prominent." And they keep it up until they have exhausted all the impressive names they know. Don't give the impression you are trying to find out how important the visitor is by finding out whom he does or doesn't know. The impression you make won't be too impressive.

Something new has been added to the tote bags that gained widespread popularity in recent months: It's a matching purse to safeguard money, and keep small items handy.
