

WALL STREET

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels provided a major portion of the strength for a moderate stock market advance Tuesday. Prices, however, were down from their peaks in the late afternoon. Gains ran in between 1 and 2 points at the outside with most changes either way in small fractions. Trading was brisk as prices advanced and came to an estimated 2,300,000 shares. That compares with 2,040,000 shares traded Monday when the market advanced a little.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Most grains showed advances on the board of trade Tuesday while the May and June soybean futures went through a series of wild gyrations.
Recent price declines in wheat attracted demand into that cereal from those who believe prices are so far below the government loan that not much new crop wheat will be offered on the free market.
Corn continued to attract speculative demand and oats followed corn higher.
The activity in May and July soybeans, particularly May, was largely a technical matter. It was a contest of nerves between the longs and shorts as the May future comes to the end of its run. Trading in all May deliveries will cease at the close Wednesday.
Wheat closed 1 1/4-3 1/4 h i g h e r, May 2.00 3/4-2.00; corn 7/8-1 1/4 higher, May 1.57-1.57 1/2; oats 1/4-1/2 higher, May 78 1/2-78; rye 3/4-1 1/4 higher, May 99; soybeans 7 3/4 lower to 3 1/2 higher, May 3.66, higher and last 30 cents lower to 20 cents a hundred pounds higher, May 19.75-19.60.

HERBERT M. MUNSELL, will be installed as grand patriarch of the Odd Fellows lodge in Grants Pass tonight.

Odd Fellows Elect Munsell

Herbert M. Munsell, local public accountant, was unanimously elected to the office of grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows, at the annual session held in Grants Pass. He will be installed as grand patriarch on Tuesday, May 18, in Grants Pass, and will serve as the head of the patriarchal branch of Odd Fellowship until May 1955, having under his supervision the various subordinate encampments and their auxiliaries in the state of Oregon. An interesting and distinctive feature has been added to his installation into the office of grand patriarch, when he will be invested with regalia, to which has been attached the jewel of the office of grand patriarch, which is over 100 years old. This regalia consisting of a royal purple collar, trimmed with gold lace, and embellished with a gold patriarchal tent and filigree work, was the official encampment regalia authorized in 1840, and discarded for more modern regalia in 1895. There are very few of these old original regalia left in the United States, and none have been manufactured since 1895. Munsell has been active in the Odd Fellows for twenty years, and has gone through all the chairs in the subordinate lodge, the encampment, or patriarchal branch, and is a past captain of Canton Crater No. 7, Patriarchs Militant branch. He has served as secretary of Klamath Lodge No. 137, for over 16 years. He was elected to the office of grand junior warden in the Grand Encampment at their session held in Klamath Falls in 1951; elected grand senior warden in 1952 at the session in Salem; elected grand high priest at Portland in 1953.

U.S. Accepts Argentine Bid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury has accepted a nine million dollar bid by an Argentine joint enterprise for Czechoslovak-owned steel mill equipment held in this country under the Trading-With-the-Enemy Act.
The equipment, for which the Czechoslovaks paid approximately 16 million dollars, was sold under sealed bid Monday. The Treasury said the nine million dollar bid from the Sociedad Mixta Siderurgica Argentina, of Buenos Aires, was the highest received. The next highest bid, the Treasury said, was approximately 1 1/2 million dollars from the Harvey Machine Co., Inc., of Torrance, Calif.
The Argentine bidders, the Treasury said, described themselves as a joint enterprise of the Argentine government and practically all private steel companies in Argentina. The Argentine company said it will use the equipment in a new plant being built near Buenos Aires.

HIGHLIGHTS AT KUHS

By GINGER MARTZ
Senior Pep Peppers planned the club's new members yesterday. New members are from the present junior and sophomore classes.
Sharon Adams, Barbara Baxter, Sharon Bliss, Julia Ann Brittain, Mary Lou Craig, Bonelli Crawford, Sharon Dewing, Dorothea Geary, Twila Greene, Margie Harkins, Myrna Heaton, Nola Higdon, Zon Johnson, Bonnie Karnes, Janie Larkin, Alice McKendress, Carolyn Nancarrow, Marillyn Nancarrow, Susan Peak, Pat Smith, Sharon Taylor, Lydia Teirik, Sharon Thompson and Florence Wamstead are the happy girls that you will be seeing at all the games next year. The new girls received invitations to the Mother-Daughter Tea at Susan Geary's Saturday, May 2.

A number of senior girls went absolutely ape at the Girls' League Assembly today. Their irrational behavior showed in real crazy dances including unusual variations of the jitterbug, Charleston, ballet, hula, barn yard polka, with a call can as the grand finale. The only same part of the meeting was at the beginning when Joan Meador introduced next year's officers.
The junior class went all out on the decorations for the prom with decorating done behind locked doors. Even the theme, "Orchids in the Moonlight," was top secret. Pelican Court was transformed into a garden with sparkling moonbeams on blue walls. Trees and branches were painted white and hung with baby orchids; vines of orchids trailed over a lattice and streamers of orchids hung from the center of the hall. The king, Don Wells, and queen, Annette Jacobs, were presented with orchids by girls in hula skirts. It was a delightful "aloha" for the seniors enjoying their last formal at KU.

Not much work was accomplished in classrooms overlooking the art exhibit Friday. More KU students took advantage of the opportunity to walk about in the sunshine and see the exhibits by elementary, junior high and senior high students.
Delta Chi held a picnic at Moore Park last Friday. President Jewel Larson had charge. This is an interdenominational young people's group with Miss Alloway as adviser.
GAA is another club ending the year's activities with a picnic. The elected outstanding seniors with the honors going to Pat Derby and Marjorie Shreeve. Officers for next year will be president, Beverly Hoyd; vice president, Rosie Paulson; secretary-treasurer, Barbara Baxter; point keeper, Charlotte Tracy; news reporter, Deann Noel. Boy's Alliance have their roster of next year's officers out and the boys heading the group are Guy Munsell, president; Elvis Mitchell, vice president; Gerry Barker, secretary-treasurer. This club has every boy at KU as a member.

John Ely, Sacred Heart Academy senior, was named winner of the 1954 Junior Chamber of Commerce Teenage Roadoo, and was presented a trophy and watch at the Jaycee dinner meeting Monday night.
Ely was one of 14 Klamath Basin high school students to qualify for the driving contest following written examinations. Ten of the 14 qualifying students participated in the driving contest Sunday on streets adjacent to Kwanis Park.
Runners up in the contest were Gartzler, Klamath Union High School, second place and Charles (Mike) Willingham, Gilchrist, third place.
The top three were all presented driving trophies by the Jaycees. Chairman of the project was Jerry Slusser. Judges were Officer Larry Bergmann, Oregon State Police; Officer Raymond (Bud) Switzer, Klamath Falls City Police; Jaycees Gail Osborne and Rex Dye. Contestants were judged on their ability to parallel park, to stop at a given point; to drive through an obstacle course 24 feet wide on which barrels were perpendicular; to drive with wheels between hills, placed 11 inches apart, without hitting the hills.
Ely, as winner of the local contest, will represent Klamath Falls in the state runoff to be held here June 20. Chairman of the state contest is Gail Osborne. State winner will be sent to Washington, D.C., to compete in the national contest.
Ely is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ely, 814 Lincoln. He is valedictorian of his class and recently won a high school music diploma in piano playing awarded sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers.
