Doctor Says Inhaling Harmful

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A new wrinkle in the cigarette smoking-lung cancer controversy has been suggested by a Boston doctor: stop inhaling until the question is settled.

Meanwhile, it's okay to smoke if you don't inhale, says Dr. Richard Overholt, one of the country's leading chest surgeons.

Overholt, who says "there's no question" in his own mind that there is an "association" between heavy smoking — with accompanying inhalation — and some cases of lung cancer, told reporters at the 50th anniversary meeting of the National Tuberculosis Assn. last night.

"The public ought to be warned that there is a possibility of such an association, and we ought to urge them to stop inhaling smoke until the issue is settled."

If present investigations show there is no link, then all right. But, if it is shown that there is a link, then the tobacco companies ought to eliminate the responsible material or materials from the tobacco."

The doctor also urged that physicians take the lead in giving up inhaling, a suggestion perhaps inspired by something that happened earlier in the day when Overholt was presiding at a panel discussion on lung cancer.

The majority view of the six-member panel was that there might be an association between heavy smoking and lung cancer, although only two, including Overholt, voiced strongly positive views.

But when Overholt later asked the audience of 200 doctors how many, out of the approximately one third who indicated they were smokers, would give up smoking, not a single hand was raised.

Amid laughter, Overholt said with a smile:

"Then this panel has been a total waste of time."

Driver Aids In Babies Births

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A baby was born on the way to a hospital yesterday, and it was the 160th delivery credited to Leroy Coulter in his 11 years as a city ambulance driver.

Both the mother, Mrs. Evelyn Green, 21, and her son were reported in excellent condition at St. Louis Maternity Hospital.

Easy Victories Won, Light Vote Recorded In Pennsy

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Organized-backed Republicans and Democrats scored comparatively easy primary victories in Pennsylvania yesterday with only slightly more than 29 per cent of the state's five million eligible voters going to the polls.

It was one of the lightest statewide vote turnouts in Pennsylvania in recent years.

The nominees to succeed Gov. John S. Fine are Republican Lloyd H. Wood, 56, present lieutenant governor and "harmony" choice of the GOP leadership, and Democratic State Sen. George M. Leader, 36, nominee of the party's state policy committee.

Ridley to victory with Wood on the GOP slate were candidates for lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and three posts on the State Superior Court. There was no opposition to Democratic party-endorsed candidates for these offices.

Under the Pennsylvania Constitution, governors cannot succeed themselves.

Also nominated were candidates for 30 congressional seats, 210 State House of Representatives' chairs and half of the 50-member State Senate. Twenty-eight congressmen were renominated.

Only Republican Louis Graham and Democrat Augustine Kelley were facing close battles early today.

The campaign and balloting sharply contrasted with four years ago when the Republicans engaged in a knock-down, drag-out fight in which Fine and U. S. Sen. James H. Duff won the GOP nominations to their present posts, and apparent control of the state party machinery from candidates backed by National Committeeman G. Mason Owlett. Since then Duff and Fine have cooled in their relations.

Picked as Wood's running mate yesterday were Atty. Gen. Frank F. Truscott for lieutenant governor; Mrs. Gaynelle M. Dixon for secretary of internal affairs; and John T. Bell, George M. Griffith and incumbent Robert E. Woodside for Superior Court.

Yesterday some 23 per cent of the registered Democrats picked as Leader's running mate contractor Roy M. Furman for lieutenant governor; Democratic State Secretary Genevieve Blatt for secretary of internal affairs; and incumbents Chester M. Rhodes, F. Clair Ross and Woodside for Superior Court.

Wood, a southeastern Pennsylvania attorney, has moved from the county level successively through the State House of Representatives, Senate and lieutenant governorship. He was picked by a group of party leaders, including Fine and Owlett, in January and had taken opposition in yesterday's balloting.

His Democratic opponent in November is a south central Pennsylvania turkey grower and the son of a former state senator and veteran Democratic political leader. He defeated Allegheny County Coroner William D. McClelland in the primary.

The vote for governor: Republican, in 6,243 of 8,589 precincts, Wood, 510,250; Thomas S. Stephenson, 129,883; Gordon F. Chamberlin, 39,831.

Democrat, in 6,064 of 8,589 precincts, Leader, 201,186; McClelland, 126,166; Charles J. Schmitt, 23,809.

Army Moves To Aid Of Flood Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy Army equipment rolled toward Bonners Ferry, Idaho Tuesday as the raging Kootenai River crept close to the top of dikes protecting rice farm land.

The Kootenai, bulging with water from record mountain snowpacks, hit 28.6 feet Tuesday morning and was expected at the 31-foot "flood stage" level within 24 hours.

Other north Idaho rivers inched closer to the top in the wake of unusually warm May temperatures. But the situation at Bonners Ferry, a community of 1,800, was regarded as the most serious.

Dikes protecting the town are 37 feet but about 15 families living near the community ball park were advised to evacuate. They live in the North Side Flats, one of the lower points along the river.

Mayor Myrl A. Felch of Bonners Ferry said he did not regard the situation as critical in his town yet.

But an Army Engineers convoy of 100 men and 50 pieces of heavy equipment arrived in Spokane for fueling Tuesday en route to Bonners.

The convoy included 25 dump trucks, maintenance trucks, two large shovels, three tractors, tents and a field kitchen.

Capt. Clifford Rew, commander of the 231st engineer battalion, said his men will setup camp at the dikes in the town and are prepared to spread operations over a 50-mile radius if necessary.

Some 400 soldiers at Port Lewis, Wash. were standing by for emergency duty in north Idaho.

The engineers plan to build up the protective dikes and fill in weak spots as they appear in the dirt barriers. They were due to arrive at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

Two civilian observers from the district Army Engineers office in Seattle, Emer Nelson and Emmett Voll, were due at Bonners Ferry Tuesday night. The district engineer, Col. N. A. Mathias, is due Wednesday for an on-the-spot check.

Some seepage has been reported in dikes protecting hundreds of

U.S. Pledges Pakistan Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States formally pledged today to provide "military equipment and training assistance" to Pakistan's armed forces.

The agreement, bitterly opposed by India, was signed at Karachi by Pakistan's foreign minister Sir Mohammed Zafrulla Khan, and John Kenneth Emerson, American Embassy charge d'affaires.

The action, announced here, paves the way for sizable shipments of American weapons to modernize Pakistan's army so it can help defend that Asiatic region against possible Communist aggression.

In an obvious move to reassure India, the United States and Pakistan simultaneously exchanged notes setting forth "their mutual understanding" that the agreement:

1. Does not involve granting of military bases on Pakistan soil to the United States.

2. Does not establish a military alliance between Pakistan and the United States.

American defense strategists regard such aid to Pakistan as part of a move to build up the defensive strength of the entire Middle East.

STRIKE

acres of rich wheat land near Bonners Ferry. Volunteers were patrolling the barriers, and sand bags were being placed in spots.

The Kootenai is an annual threat to the town and surrounding farms. It caused extensive damage in 1948.

OCTOGENARIANS BOTH are Mrs. Nancy J. Atchley (left) and Mrs. Addie L. Newsome, who celebrated their 86th birthday anniversaries Sunday, May 16. Mrs. Atchley, a native of Colorado, has four daughters and lives with one of them, Mrs. O. H. Baker, 1727 Crescent. She has 13 grandchildren, four of whom were present for the joint birthday celebration with Mrs. Newsome; 20 great grandchildren, of whom four were present Sunday. Mrs. Newsome, who lives at Swan Lake, is a native of Virginia but has lived here since 1929. She has five children living. Three daughters, Mrs. Helen Kerr, Mrs. Chester Colman, Swan Lake and Mrs. T. M. Williams, Colton, California were present Sunday. Mrs. Newsome has 13 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Southern Town Studies New Law

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — The Greensboro School Board has told its superintendent of schools to start studying "ways and means for complying with" the Supreme Court decision that racially segregated public schools are unconstitutional.

Members said after passing the resolution 6-1 last night they consider it the first official affirmative reaction to the decision taken in 1954. "We must not fight or attempt to circumvent it," he declared.

Board Chairman D. E. Hudgins introduced the resolution. He said its adoption "would let the community, the state, the South and if necessary the nation know that we propose to live under the rule of law."

Korea Alerted Over Election

SEOUL (AP) — President Syngman Rhee today put South Korea under a three-day emergency police alert as some eight million voters prepared to elect a new National Assembly tomorrow.

A total of 1,213 candidates for the 203-seat legislature wound up their campaign with more charges and denials of police strong-arm interference.

Rhee has spoken for election of only his own Liberal party members. His main opposition, which supports his war policy but opposes his domestic program, is the Democratic Nationalist party.

Both Democratic Nationalists and independents have made numerous campaign charges of police intimidation and beatings.

In Pusan, several campaigners for Hoh Jung, an independent candidate and former Cabinet minister under Rhee, said they were beaten. One woman was seriously injured.

Another of Hoh's supporters died of a skull fracture after spending the night in jail on charges of curfew violation and drunkenness. His family said he had not been drinking.

Other anti-administration candidates complained that police intimidation made it impossible for them to complete or file election petitions.

Detection Career Begins Early

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Bobby Peters, 5-year-old son of a FBI agent has cracked his first case.

Bobby and his uncle were walking along Lone Oak Trail when Bobby spotted an abandoned car off the road. The uncle, Richard Peters, jotted down the license number.

The police department was notified. It turned out the car had been stolen in Danville, Ky. from Mrs. Emma Moon, a teacher at Centre College.
