A WHIRL OF FASHION for Spring and after is this permanently pleated concertina skirt of nylon and acetate, completely hand washable, from the Spring collection of Stephanie Koret of California.

High Color High Style

Color is the idea in play separates this season. Fashion completely by-passes pallid, washed-out shades for new unadorned colors that do wonderful things for a woman's face and frame of mind. These are lush, ripe-fruit colors one might find in a sunny garden, with names like bright cherry, lime, eggplant, tulip pink as well as the shade made famous by Gauguin.

One color-conscious fashion house, Sacony, has created a group of separates they call "pop-ons" in brisk cotton poplin that takes vibrant dyes permanently, holds them through dozens of washings. Poplin has a further advance over yesterday's coars e-fabric play-clothes, because it's smooth on the skin and crispy-cool to wear.

These "pop-ons" come in ten brilliant and beautifully coordinated colors in high-fashion styling. There are halters with petal-shaped bodices, with shirt-waist collars, or with vest points meant to be worn outside. Skirts are wide flaring with deep-plunge pockets, slim wrap-and-ties.

The variety of choice goes on to pants — sleek, slim slacks, tapered knee pants, brief, cuffed shorts or fashion's newest pet, walking shorts. Almost everything can be topped with a boxy jacket — one is cut and sewed like a man's shirt, another boldly designed with over-sized pointed collar, deep pointed pockets, pointed sleeve cuffs.

PAINTLESS PARKING

It is possible that parking attendants will be eliminated by the use of a coded card-key which actuates the control mechanism which operates the entrance and exit gates of a parking area automatically. Everything about the device is automatic — except the money paid for parking, of course.

TAN... OR STAY FAIR... but keep your complexion beautiful whichever shade you choose; protect your skin and your health. Every skin needs some protection. Elizabeth Arden's six remarkable Summer Preparations offer varying degrees of protection. Ardena Sun Gelee shields the skin from burning rays of the sun while encouraging a glossy tan. Ardena Sun-tan Oil is for a superb bronze tan that is smooth and shining — this satin-like oil keeps the skin soft and supple — is equally good for men as well as women — and, most important, it keeps insects away. Ardena Sun-Pruf Lotion promotes a smooth, even, golden tan while giving a protective screen against the sun. Salt water will not wash off this non-sticky, non-oily lotion. Ardena Sun-Pruf Cream is a fluffy, vanishing type cream which helps you tan as you please, while protecting the skin from burning. Men as well as women enjoy its benefits and it is wonderful protection for bald heads! And it keeps insects away. Ardena Sun-Bloc Lotion will allow you to enjoy the sun and stay alabaster fair. This light, non-oily lotion prevents both tanning and burning yet keeps the skin soft and fair. Ardena Protecta Cream is for those delicate, pink skins that are inclined to freckle, burn and blister; comes in convenient tube form and makes a good powder base. Sleek keeps the legs flawlessly smooth — a fragrant depilatory that is quick and pleasant to apply. Electra Wax is a wax depilatory. Velva Leg Film tints your hard-to-tan legs.

Gold Rush Brownies

Mrs. Cora Leavitt of Bonanza sent in this recipe for Brownies, which she makes frequently. To the original recipe she added coconut, which is optional. (She commented that her husband asks her why she uses recipes as she always adds a couple of innovations of her own!)

BROWNIES

2 cups crushed graham crackers (18 crackers)
1 package chocolate chips
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1 can sweetened condensed

milk
1 can coconut (optional)

Mix crackers, chocolate and nuts. Blend in milk. Pour into 8 x 8 x 2 pan which has been greased and lined with waxed paper and greased again. Bake at 325 degrees for 40 minutes, let set in pan 10 minutes and then turn out, cut into bars.

SUMMER SALAD

Tempt finicky appetites with a colorful salad on a hot day. Place a mound of cottage cheese in a crisp lettuce cup in the center of a dinner plate. Put additional lettuce cups around the center one and fill them with an assortment of fruits — cooked pitted prunes, stuffed with chunks of pineapple, halved fresh strawberries, canned peach slices, sliced bananas with orange juice, sliced pears, or whatever combinations you have available.

HONEY BUTTER

Wonderful with crisp, hot corn-bread sticks is honey butter which is made by combining equal parts of honey and butter, whipped to thoroughly blend.
