

Wedding in Casablanca Of Malcolm D. Crawford Of Interest to Friends

A-1C MALCOLM D. CRAWFORD, U.S. Air Force, stationed at Nussour Air Base, Casablanca, French Morocco, and his new bride, the former Londa Qriarte of Casablanca. Date of the wedding was May 1.

The young couple is pictured walking down the church aisle, followed by four couples who attended them during the service.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Crawford, Tulake pioneer family. The bride is the daughter of an old and well known Spanish family, living in Casablanca.

Other picture shows the young couple leaving by automobile for the wedding trip. They will visit in Tulake this June, when the airman will return to the states for re-assignment to Tampa, Florida, for the remainder of his enlistment. Crawford had two years at Stanford before going into the service.

LYNETTE KOHN... daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn, former local residents, now of San Luis Obispo; and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn Sr., 1217 Eldorado Avenue; has recently received two high honors. She is cover girl on the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y Manual for Leaders... a new national publication of the YMCA; and the other was being selected for Girls' State in California. (See story).

— Photo by McLain, San Luis Obispo

"Cover Girl" on National YMCA, Jr. Tri-Hi-Y Manual

Local friends are proud of the outstanding scholastic and civic accomplishments of Lynette and Beverly Kohn in San Luis Obispo. Their ability was soon recognized in the California community, and the honors given both of them are many.

Lynette, a junior in high school, has earned an enviable list of honors, including editorship of the school paper, "Tiger's Roar"; the lead in the junior class play; secretary of the interschool council and of the German school committee which sponsors a partner school in Stuttgart, Germany, to promote better world understanding.

She is a member of the junior class executive board, and of the student body welfare board. She is very active in the Girls' League, and the Girls' Athletic Association. She is on the school tennis team; and the California Scholarship federation elected her as treasurer.

She has attained the rank of torch bearer in Camp Fire Girls, in dramatics and camp craft; and she has been junior counselor for three years and counselor at the Y summer camp for two years.

Lynette was chosen by the San Luis Obispo Lions Club as winner of the 1953 speech contest. She has also held office in Rainbow for

MR. AND MRS. A. L. FITZWATER... 447 Alameda Avenue, announce the engagement of his daughter, Joan Marie, to David K. (Bud) Ustick, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ustick, 2441 Orchard Way.

Bud and Joan's romance stems from an acquaintanceship which started in Fremont Junior High School. They continued to be classmates through senior high school — both are graduates of KUHS, class of '51. Bud is presently stationed in Korea with the U. S. Army Signal Corps. No wedding date has been set. In the interim, Joan greets classified ad customers of the Herald and News.

OREGON HISTORY AT MERRILL LIBRARY CLUB

MERRILL—Mrs. L. H. Stone and Mrs. H. Ashley of Klamath Falls, showed slides and gave an interesting talk on the history of Oregon at the May 6 meeting of the Merrill Library Club, held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Jinsette.

Mrs. William Walker reported that the food sale sponsored by the club on the Saturday before Easter netted some $30 for the club treasury.

The Community Music Festival held May 2, under the direction of the club president Mrs. Harvey Denham was reported a success, and a thank you is expressed to all participating organizations.

The style show planned for June has been postponed until September, further details to be announced later.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jinsette, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, and Mrs. Frank Howard.

Members present were Mrs. R. L. Drago, Mrs. Harvey Denham, Mrs. Warren Frutts, Mrs. Max Hartlerode, Mrs. H. J. Hendrickson, Mrs. James Kirby, Mrs. R. A. Merton, Mrs. G. A. Milne, Mrs. William Poe, Mrs. George Rankin, and Mrs. William Walker.

Girls

Her recent selection by the San Luis Obispo American Legion Auxiliary for Girls' State was based on recommendations by high school faculty members who cited her for citizenship, scholarship, interest in community government, character, honesty and co-operativeness.

Her parents Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn Jr., were former owners of Kohn's Flower Shop—now "Flowers by Rita and Bill" (first names of present owners, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. DePew).

Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn Sr., 1217 Eldorado, are longtime residents of Klamath Falls.

MR. AND MRS. CARL K. FOGLE... 3280 Anderson announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Doris, to Dale B. Smith, Bly. The wedding date is set for June 26, at the home of the bride's parents. — Photo by Miller-Williams

ON THE SOCIAL CALENDAR for Lutheran women was the annual silver tea, held Thursday, May 13, in the church parsonage with Mrs. Richard Graef, wife of the minister, as hostess. Pictured is Mrs. W. H. Roemhildt, pouring for Mrs. Herman Braatz, (center) president of the Lutheran Women's Guild which sponsored the tea, and Mrs. Frank Eberlein (right).

Henley Bethel Gets Charter Number 51 on May Seventeenth

A beautiful and impressive ceremony was held May 17, at the Mt. Laki Church, before an enthusiastic group, when Bethel U.D. exemplified the International Order of Job's Daughters work for their grand guardian, Dorothy Crump. She presented Queen Ruth Roenicke, Mrs. Basil Brown, guardian; and Basil Brown, associate guardian; with their Charter No. 51.

Two new members were installed, Edith Wallen and Linda Hall.

Dorothy Crump, grand guardian; Avon Vert, past grand guardian of Portland; and Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian of Klamath Falls were escorted to the East and given honors. Freda Ustick, guardian; and Joy Ustick, associate guardian; were escorted and given honors.

Reta Boudon, guardian; George Boudon, associate guardian; newly appointed guardians of Bethel No. 5 were welcomed. Rena Oldham, worthy matron; Raymond Owens, worthy patron of Aloha Chapter No. 61 were also greeted.

Lois Gueck, worthy matron of Manzanita Chapter No. 172 was given a hearty welcome.

Carry Heilbronner of Bethel No. 6 gave the flag tribute and presented the Henley Bethel No. 51 with their Bethel flag, a gift from Bethel No. 6.

Grand guardian, Dorothy Crump, installed the guardian council: newly elected Queen Maureen Lyon; senior princess, Sandra Dehlinger; junior princess, Beverly Hurlbut; marshal, Virginia Roenicke; and guide, Linda DeLap.

Cora Enman was the soloist for the evening. Refreshments were served by the guardian, Dorothy Dehlinger and her committee, Ann Taylor and Carolyn Hunt.

Decorations were unusual and beautiful, flowers furnished by Gretchen Thompson and Cole Brown, Bethel guardians.

There was a large attendance the previous week of Job's Daughters and their mothers for the Mother's Day services at Mt. Laki Church.

QUOTA CLUB

Quotarians heard the pros and cons of the proposed truck traffic route bill at regular Quota Club noon luncheon at the Winema Hotel.

Guest speakers for the day were Greer Drew and Casper Moty of the Cross Town Traffic Committee, official committee appointed by the mayor to work with the state Highway Commission.

"Hollyhocks", by Walter Rolfe and "Waltz in A Flat," by Brahms, piano selections, were played by Elizabeth Muma.

Prizes for the day were awarded to Nina Pence and Elizabeth Derby.

For Leo's Lasting Lustre
Photo Finishing
In Tulake...
EARL'S PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY

ZION LUTHERAN ANNUAL SILVER TEA MAY 13th

The parsonage of Zion Lutheran Church was the scene of the silver tea sponsored annually by the Lutheran Women's Guild with Mrs. Richard Graef, wife of the pastor, as hostess.

This year's tea was held amid a profusion of floral arrangements featuring tulips, spirea and other spring flowers on Thursday, May 13, during the hours of 2 to 5 p.m.

The Lutheran Women's Guild is affiliated with the National Lutheran Women's Missionary League which engages in missionary enterprises around the world. The local chapter is especially concerned with foreign and home missions, Christian education and assistance to Concordia College in Portland.

A school devoted to the preparatory training of pastors and teachers.

The tea is one of the highlights on the social calendar. It was attended by most of the women of Zion congregation.

Mrs. Frank Eberlein was at the coffee service; Mrs. W. H. Roemhildt poured tea.

In addition to socializing, games were played during the tea hours.

* PICTURE FRAMING
Underwood's Camera Shop
206 State St. Phone 7500

Seat covers

by Pebble Beach
CALIFORNIA

In All the New Styles

- Side Zipper Models
- Reversibles
- Boxer Models
- Brief Models
- Prices Start at... $2.95

RUDY'S

6th and Main

Sizes 28 to 42

Rickys Jewelers

Wed-Lok

inspired
ensembles for your
June Bride

Our exquisite new "Tiara" series... in white or yellow gold... captivating new creations that LOCK together to become one. Above all... you are assured of DIAMOND VALUE beyond compare.

prices include federal tax

- $225 • Diamond solitaire engagement ring with 2 diamonds, 4-diamond wedding ring.
- $300 • Diamond solitaire engagement ring with 4 diamonds, 6-diamond wedding ring.
- $375 • Diamond solitaire engagement ring, 2 round diamonds, 2 baguettes; Wedding ring has 4 round diamonds, 2 baguettes.
- $75 • Groom's matching 3-diamond ring.

Budget Accounts Invited

Rickys

700 Main St. Phone 3151